Larry Keene, this year's captain, will undoubtedly hold his old stand in the pitchers box while with also some good substitutes should he want to lay out. Keene has attained a wide reputation as a high school pitcher and as he is now about 10 pounds heavier and stronger than last year it is hard to imagine just what kind of form he will have, but it will no doubt be something classy. Both Royal Niles and Bellinger have showed ability of good throwing.

Perry Jones will probably hold his old backstop position as he would be hard to beat in handling the big mit. Gabrielson the fast little first baseman will have an opponent for his place in Homer Hunt, the two will haveto scrap it out both being good. The rest of last year's infield are back, Farmer for second, Kay for third and Roberts at shortstop, but it is rumored that there will be changes from last year and that these players will probably not play their old positions but will be moved around some. There is lots of material for the outfield positions, but it is yet too early to predict any positions on the team.

Manager Krebs says he is getting up a good schedule that will include games with Seattle high, Portland high, Eugene high, O. A. C., University of Oregon and others. The Seattle game is a sure thing and will be played here, a trip to Seattle will probably be made.

It is safe to say that the Salem fans can look forward to some first class games.

Local Option Violations.

Other violations of the local option law were penalized with heavy fines at the late term of circuit court in Eugene. The aggregate of fines collected in that county for such offenses has reached considerably over $3000. The condition arouses wonder as to why men who want to traffic in intoxicvants do not go to places where it is not a violation of law to do so, and where the business may be conducted without hazard. There are thousands of cities and towns where the business is licensed, and in which the community fully and freely consents for it to be carried on. In fact, by accepting a license fee which has to be taken out of the profits on the goods sold, the community itself becomes a partner, and thereby fully legitimatizes the traffic. In such places the business is not outlawed, and the men who engage in it are not outlaws, with the authorities constantly in the search for them for the purpose of administering condign punishment, as is true of local option communities. Why persons who insist that they must engage in the business do not go to license towns, where the business is made legal and respectable by having the whole community as a partner, and where there be no fear of sheriffs, detectives and court —all this is a mystery.—Corvallis Times.

[Perhaps they can make more money in the no-lincense towns. People in any business go where they can do the best.]

SCHOOL GIRLS

Most of our ambitious young American girls work too hard at school.

Many teachers have little or no judgment about pushing a child beyond her endurance. They ought to know that girls especially have a danger period. Often, too often, utter physical collapse is the result, and it takes years and years to recover lost vitality.

Many a young girl has been helped over this critical period, and been prepared for a healthy womanhood by

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Miss Elsie L. Hook, of Chelsea, Vt., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I am only sixteen years old, but I want to tell you that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and your advice cured me of sideache, periodic pains and sleeplessness, also of a nervous, irritable condition after everything else had failed, and I want to thank you for it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.
