

TOWER CAUSED TROUBLE

American Ambassador at Berlin Said to Be a Person Without Standing at Court.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Berlin, March 27.—In American circles the situation resulting from the objection sent to Washington to the appointment of Dr. Jayne Hill, as ambassador to Germany, is now "up to Ambassador Tower."

Following a semi-official denial by the state department yesterday, that the German government had objected to Mr. Hill, and following a report that the reichstag proposed to censure the Kaiser, if it was shown that he had objected to the American for purely personal reasons, an official statement from the emperor himself was issued today by the foreign office.

The statement says flatly that the Kaiser never said or wrote a word that might be construed by anyone as an objection to Mr. Hill's appointment. On the contrary, it is stated that, as late as last November, the Kaiser expressed his warm approval of the Hill appointment, and since has had no occasion to change his views. It is denied that there is any statement apropos of the matter en route to Washington.

The Kaiser's action completely ends the matter, so far as the German government is concerned. It removes the last shadow of doubt that Washington was misinformed. Just where the misinformation came from will now have to be explained by Ambassador Tower.

As a result of the controversy, it is said that the Kaiser, who has heretofore been on the most friendly terms with both the American ambassador and his wife, is now quite displeased at both of them, and, unless Mr. Tower withdraws very speedily of his own volition, it is probable that Washington will receive an intimation that his ambassador has become persona non grata.

Tower Gets the Jolly.
The afternoon press is full of the various phases of the Tower-Hill controversy, and the consensus of opinion is that Ambassador Tower is entirely to blame for the confusion. The Morgen Post declares that Ambassador Tower is not only unfriendly to his successor, but that he displayed the same animosity to his predecessor. The paper attributes Tower's dislike to Dr. Hill to an old animosity of their wives, and brands the controversy as a "pettifogger's trick."

The Post declares that the only peg on which Ambassador Tower can hang an explanation is a jesting remark made by the Kaiser recently—what the Americans would call a "jolly"—in which he laughingly said, in the presence of the ambassador, "I don't think I can forgive my friend, Mr. Roosevelt, if he recalls Ambassador Tower."

The expressed belief of all the papers is that Dr. Hill will be appointed.

Tower Will Quit.
Ambassador Tower gave out an authorized statement late this afternoon in which he stated that he had definitely decided to retire in a few months. He would not intimate the date.

TO SUCCEED HARLAN ON SUPREME BENCH.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Cleveland, O., March 27.—The Cleveland press today prints a Washington dispatch from Gilson Gardner, its special correspondent, which states that Frank B. Kellogg, of Minnesota, has been slated for a place on the supreme bench, to fill the vacancy caused by the probable retirement of Justice Harlan next May.

Kellogg, though a young man, has attracted national attention by his determined and successful attacks on the Standard Oil, and its illegal methods.

PRESIDENT CLASHES WITH CONGRESSMAN

Washington, March 27.—That President Roosevelt and Representative Dickens, of Michigan, shook their fists at each other in a recent argument over the Wilfey case, and reached a point in the squabble, where it looked as though an actual fight could not be averted, is the substance of a report today.

The President had sent for Mr. Dickens, who is a member of the judiciary committee, which was investigating charges against United States Judge Wilfey at Shanghai, to inform him that the committee was altogether too officious in the matter. The President told the Michigan legislator that he thought the committee had gone further into the case than it had been instructed to.

Representative Dickens is said to have retorted warmly, whereupon both men lost their temper, according to the report, and shook their fists in each other's faces. Neither could convince the other that he was right, and finally Dickens rushed from the White House in an excited frame of mind.

PRACTICE LAYING OF MINES

now being engaged in daily by the ships of Rear-Admiral Evans' fleet. Torpedo practice also is under way. All of the battleships except the Vermont, Kansas and Missouri, have practically finished target practice, and the coming week will be largely devoted to torpedo practice.

All of the ships are being cleaned and painted, and made spick and span for the dress parade up the coast.

The governor of Lower California last night tendered a banquet, which was held on board the Mexican cruiser Tampico, of the admirals and captains of the American fleet.

Charles F. Bowling, a seaman on the battleship Missouri, died Wednesday evening of pneumonia. His home was at Eau Claire, Wis.

Jack is tiring of the job here. He is beginning to feel that enough is enough. This does not necessarily mean that his patriotic ardor has diminished, but orders to sail for the north cannot come too soon to suit him. It is now 15 days since the great fleet dropped anchor here and, aside from the excitement that target practice affords, the men of the fleet have practically no diversion, other than the regulations call for.

Magdalena's 120 inhabitants, about 99 per cent of which are peons and their families, are not sitting up nights arranging fiestas for the benefit of the sailors, and, to make matters worse, the "lid" is still on. Not a drop of beer can the sailor get, and thereby hangs a tale.

Weeks before the arrival of the fleet a number of enterprising Americans come down with bumbosats loaded with good things to drink, eat and smoke. The autocrat of the port, the American representative of an English development company, which holds extensive leases in the vicinity of the little settlement, unable to prevent "beach combers" from landing, much to his chagrin, devised another scheme to set their plans awry. He appealed to the governor of Lower California to prevent the sale of liquor to the sailors, and, upon his representations, accompanied by more or less veiled threats, a "closed town" order was issued. Not only were the Americans prohibited from selling their beer, but the Mexicans, well stocked with their terrible tequila mecal, found themselves in the same category. All in all, the restraint on ship and ashore is getting on the sailors' nerves.

Do Not Crowd the Season.
The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy the exhilarating air and sun shine. Children that have been housed up all winter are brought out and you wonder where they all came from. The heavy winter clothing is thrown aside and many shed their flannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is epidemic. Colds at this season are even more dangerous than in mid-winter, as there is much more danger of pneumonia. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, however, and you will have nothing to fear. It always cures, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it was used. It is pleasant and safe to take. Children like it. For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

Stanford Alumni Act.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Portland, Or., March 27.—After two sessions of the Stanford Club of Portland, at which various phases of the present difficulty between the students and the faculty were considered, the following dispatches were drawn up and sent to the faculty and the students this noon.

The telegrams are as follows:
To the Chairman of the Students' Affairs Committee, Stanford University, Cal.—Portland alumni have wired the Associated Students their condemnation of organized insubordination. The Stanford Club Portland requests a reconsideration of punishment imposed, and asks that leniency be extended leading to their reinstatement. (Signed)
CHESTER G. MURPHY,
President Stanford Club.

To the President of the Associated Students, Stanford University, Cal.—The sentiment of the alumni of Portland is that the students should subordinate themselves to the university regulations. That organized rebellion against such meets with the disapproval of the alumni. We have wired the faculty committee similarly, and requested that the punishments be reviewed and leniency be extended leading to reinstatement. (Signed)
CHESTER G. MURPHY,
President.

Anarchist Surrenders.

Oakland, Cal., March 27.—W. Fender has given up to the police as an anarchist. A local court is authorized by the government to take his deposition to be used in proceedings against him. The prisoner said that he had no anarchistic tendencies until after he bought a cigar store in Cincinnati a short time ago. A wealthy man sold it to him for $300, all the money he had, and then started a new store in the same block, taking with him all his old customers.

It was this incident, Fender says, that made him bitter against all rich men. He declares he was a rank anarchist when he arrived in Oakland a few weeks ago, and surrendered to the police to keep out of trouble.

It's pretty hard to attend to duties with a constantly aching back; With annoying urinary disorders, Doan's Kidney Pills make work easier.

They cure backache. They cure every kidney ailment. W. H. Wood, of 250 Cottage St., Salem, Ore., says: "A good many years ago I got badly kicked by a mule right over the kidneys and at another time while digging a well it caved in on me also injuring my back and since then I have had more or less annoyance from my kidneys. Change of weather caused my back to ache and when I worked hard it became so lame that I could hardly straighten up after stooping. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Stone's drug store, and since taking them I have continued to work hard and been exposed to severe weather, not an ache or other symptom of my former trouble remains. This clearly proves that Doan's Kidney Pills act up to the representations made for them. I also know of other people who have derived great benefit from their use. I am glad to let others know the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills for backache and kidney trouble."

AIRSHIP RACE FOR $200,000

(United Press Leased Wire.)

New York, March 27.—An international airship race between New York and Chicago, with a $200,000 stake, may be the outcome of the challenge announced today by A. P. Bliven, the Brooklyn inventor.

Bliven makes a startling offer of $100,000 against an equal amount for any other aeronaut for an airship to beat the one he will have completed during the coming summer. His craft, he says, will be able to make the trip to Chicago at an average rate of 70 miles an hour. Bliven's challenge has been sent abroad, and he has received numerous inquiries from European governments and aeronautical associations regarding it.

Attorneys for Chester Gillette, sentenced to die Monday morning, have been granted a hearing by Governor Hughes to present new evidence.

The Italian car is hopeless behind the American racer, but the great distance between them is due to a break-down 90 miles west of Ogden, Utah, on March 25. It was taken long.
