we wholesalers can accomplish a good deal through such an association as is planned. We are, I guess, without exception, affiliated with the National Wholesale Liquor Dealers' association, and this great body has seen the need of taking defensive action and the state organizations can assist the movement by getting together among themselves.

"One of the most effective ways of wiping out the so-called 'joints' and getting rid of disorderly places so far suggested, and I understand it has been tried successfully, is to bring about a 'quiet arrangement' among the saloonmen who do obey the day and demand the revocation of the license of any person operating in the same community who does not obey the law. For instance, if there are six saloons in a town and five of the men run in a clean, law-abiding manner and the sixth is not, all that would be necessary would be for the five to band together and their united influence would unquestionably be sufficient to take the license away from the 'undesirable' man and put it in the hands of some one that will obey the law. If this could not be done, the inevitable alternative would be, in the course of time, the wiping out of all six saloons by local option. It is certainly to the interest of all liquor men to see that the disreputable places are wiped out, or the good will go down with the bad."

Other wholesalers who are active in the formation of the association are William O. Van Schuyver and P. H. Rothchild.

No Use to Die.

"I have found out that there is no use to die of lung trouble as long as you can get Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. J. P. White, of Rushboro, Pa. "I would not be alive today only for that wonderful medicine. It loosens up a cough quicker than anything else, and cures lung disease even after the case is pronounced hopeless." This most reliable remedy for coughs and colds, lagrippe, asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness, is sold under guarantee at J. C. Perry's drug store; 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
