HYPNOTIC

...interwoven in a story that... unfolded to the grand jury... F. M. Austin, a dashing widower... living in magnificent apartments... this city, is called upon to explain... the name of Reuben H. Lloyd, prominent San Francisco attorney, who... to be on certain letters to Mrs. Lloyd says he did not write them.

The accusations against the woman... came from Claude Nasburg, a real estate man, of Coos Bay, Or., who declares that his brother and she are under the hypnotic power of Dr. Austin, and that she has obtained sums of money from them. Nasburg says his brother, Harry, met the woman five years ago at Coos Bay, and before long she was completely held on him. Later, she says, his mother fell under her power.

Nasburg declares that he became suspicious of Mrs. Austin, when she showed him a letter bearing the signature of Reuben H. Lloyd, and addressed to her. "I came to San Francisco," said Nasburg today, "and Mr. Lloyd told me that he had not signed the letter Mrs. Austin. I also learned that she was not acquainted with the prominent men with whom she seemed to be friendly."

Nasburg says Lloyd engaged an attorney, instructing him to present a motion to the grand jury. Mrs. Austin declares that the whole affair is a plot to injure her. "It arises out of differences in the Nasburg family," she said. "I did not write the letter which Claude Nasburg says I sent him, and never did before. I have no scheme on my mind to get the Nasburg money. The whole thing is incomprehensible to me."

STATEMENT NO. ONE CANDIDATE'S PLATFORM

CHOICE OF THE CARPENTER'S UNION

Walter C. Winslow, a Graduate of the Oregon State University and Champion of Organized Labor---Tells the Republicans How To Elect a Senator

I am in favor of Statement No. 1, because it is sound in principle. It is the old principle of government of the people extended just one step further. It has extended to the election of United States senators, where we have long needed it. When President Lincoln described our government he did not say: "A government of the Republican party, by the Republican party, and for the Republican party." He said: "A GOVERNMENT OF THE PEOPLE, BY THE PEOPLE, AND FOR THE PEOPLE." Any statement contrary to that principle; any attempt to give a minority the power to select United States senators is contrary to the principles of good government, and a step backwards. The Republican voters' choice means the ousting of the Republican party from power. It is plain to see that if the majority of the people of this state want anything, and the Republican party will not give it to them, THEY WILL PUT THE PARTY IN POWER THAT WILL. I am just as much in favor of a Republican for United States senator as any candidate who signs the Republican voters' choice pledge.

But my style of accomplishing that end, IS NOT BY BREAKING PRINCIPLE, and electing a man whether the people want him or not. If the Republicans want a Republican in the United States senate, let them take off their coats, go into the campaign and elect one, the same way we elect our congressmen. We are 40,000 in the majority, and to say that we can't succeed is cowardice. My motto is: "A government of the people, by the people and for the people," carried into effect by the Republican party.

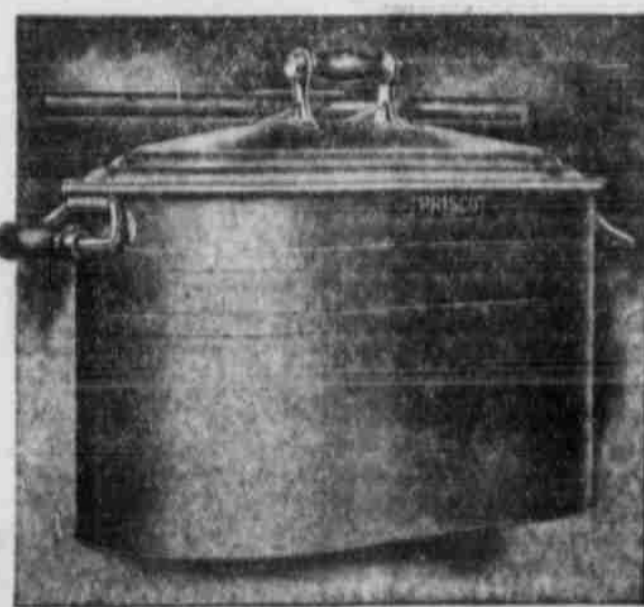

I wish also to say that if nominated and elected I will do all in my power to secure laws that will keep convict labor from coming into open competition with free labor. It is not right for men who have been convicted of felonies, and who are state charges, to replace our honest free laborers. I think the labor organizations are reasonable in their demand. If the state wishes to use these convicts to the advantage of the state, it can work them on our highways; there is nothing that Oregon needs more than good roads.
