THE BURGOMASTER SHOWS AT SALEM.

If your friend says long words to you with a long roll of r's and a sneeze at the end; if Silas and Sallie exchange conversation in unknown expressions, such as "Buttington," "Chinnington" and "Juackington" across the table and you wonder what they mean; or if your son cracks questionable jokes about President Roosevelt and sings a new comic song, usually with the roll of r's in the words—why, you will know he was at "The Burgomaster" last night.
The play, which is a comic opera based on Peter Stuyvesant, governor of New Amsterdam, and one of his followers, taking drugged whiskey to escape the Indians and waking up again in New York in 1907.

The young ladies in the choruses cannot be said to have very recently escaped from training in international beauty contests.

The hero is, of course, much startled and wonders at his awakening from the Rip Van Winkle sleep where he is, and is soon terror-stricken by newsboys, policemen, college boys and actors, which give much opportunity for songs and dance by the chorus, which was fairly good.

Gus Weinberg, as "The Burgomaster," was the best single player, and was responsible for keeping the audience, which filled the theatre to its capacity, in an uproar a good part of the time.

Leo Kendall, as "Doodle Von Kull," secretary of "The Burgomaster," and Robert W. Albright, as the captain of the soldiery, were a big factor in keeping matters humming, the former with his comedian jokes, and the latter with his fine baritone voice, which won much applause.

AN ACTRESS WHO LOVES LIFE OUTDOORS

Mary Mannering, the actress who is starring in "Glorious Betsy," the new American comedy by Rida Johnson Young, author of "Brown of Harvard," etc., loves the open air.
Miss Mannering's out-of-doors diversions are golf, driving and recently automobiling. She does a prodigious amount of walking all the year around. Her love of nature is almost primitive in its intensity.
Asked once what was her greatest ambition, she said it was "to lead such a normal life that I can get up every morning to see the sun rise." Often she will dismiss her carriage and brave all wind and weather on foot. An acquaintance of mine accompanied her from her hotel to the theater one March night in the teeth of a driving storm and the wind made umbrellas a sarcasm. She enjoyed every step of the walk and reached the theater in a gale of laughter and high spirits. It is the abundant vitality, this capacity of getting run out of things which annoy and bore most people that gives a compelling charm to her art and a rare, sweet, vivacity to her personality.

For a time Miss Mannering had a house of her own in New York, but this she has now given up. Her only home is her country place in the western part of the Catskill mountains. This she calls "Highmount," and from the windows of the house there is a glorious view of the dozen mountain peaks. The house is a large one of colonial architecture, part of which is brick terrace.

Her estate consists of 400 acres, and only the smaller part of the large estate is laid out in lawns, gardens and driveways. That portion of her possession which she has, with admirable taste, allowed to remain wholly "unimproved," is by far the greater part of the large lands.
Still in its original wildness, it is criss-crossed by mountain streams, clef by deep ravines, and overgrown with a net work of vines and forest trees that have never known the woodmen's axe. Here the happiest hours of Miss Mannering's life are spent, and thither she goes immediately after her professional work ends for the season, which is usually towards the end of May, and there she remains until the end of September. During the months she spends there she practically lives out of doors, and returns to her work in the autumn strong in body, burned and tanned as to face and physically and intellectually refreshed for the long winter traveling and acting.
Miss Mannering comes to Salem, April 1, playing at the Grand.

Kodol is today the best known remedy for all disorders of the stomach, such as dyspepsia, heart burn, sour stomach and belching of gas.
Sold by all druggists.

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE PAST WEEK

Students of this city who are attending the University of Oregon and the Oregon Agricultural college are taking advantage of the Easter vacation to visit their homes and friends here. The week of leisure for the collegians will be a happy one for their families and many friends.
Among the students who are visiting their home here are Harvey Slater and Gordon Moores of the University of Oregon, Mary Pigler, Fred Myers, Eugene Slater, Alvin Finley, Counsel Dyer, Tam Gatch and Tom Holman of the Oregon Agricultural college.

Mrs. F. W. Spencer Entertains.
One of the most enjoyable events of the week was a "500" party given by Mrs. F. W. Spencer at her home

Steusloff, Will Greenwood, F. M.
Brown, and Miss Blyvens.

Pioneer Dinner Given.

Mrs. A. M. Bosler entertained with a dinner on Tuesday in honor of a number of Oregon pioneers, at her home on Sixteenth and Lee streets.
Mrs. Polly Price, being the oldest guest present, was given the seat of honor.

The guests were: Mrs. Polly Price aged 85, of Turner; Mrs. Cannon, aged 82, of Turner; Chas. Mettear, aged 76, of Marysville, Cal.; George Mettear, aged 70, of Fossil; Mrs.
Charles Mettear, aged 65, Mrs. Carry Warren, aged 65, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Roysse, aged 60 and 66, respectively, of this city.

Mary Mannering, in "Glorious Betsy."

Thursday evening. About sixty guests were present. The prizes were won by Mr. Wm. Brown and Mrs. Steiner.

Priscilla Club.

The Priscilla Embroidery Club was entertained last Thursday by Mrs. F. W. Steusloff at her home on Commercial street. A pleasant afternoon was spent in social chat and discussing embroideries. Mrs.
Steusloff served a dainty lunch. Mrs.
J. L. Stockton will entertain the club next Thursday.

Mrs. Wain Entertains.

One of the most interesting social entertainments of the week was a card party Friday night at the home of Mrs. A. T. Wain, 667 South Commercial street, when the ladies of the Priscilla Club challenged those of the Meum-Teum in the popular game of "500." The guests were all enthusiastic players, and the excitement became more intense as the hours passed away. The game was won by the Meum-Teum Club. Miss Bessie Friby capturing first prize, Mrs. Fred Steusloff winning the second.

Those who won prizes for the gentlemen were: Frank Brown, first, Carey Martin, second. Delicious refreshments were served. Mrs.
Wain's guests were:

Of the Meum-Teum Club: Misses Kitty Harbord, Grace Babcock, Mayme Babcock, Elene Fawc, Gertrude Fawc, Grace Damon, Emily Jeffries, Blanche Brown, Jennie Fry, Kate Carmichael, Bessie Frisbie, Lois Byrd.

From the Priscilla Club: Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Wain, D. J. Fry, Carey Martin, D. A. Dinsmoor, O. C. Locke, A. L. Brown, C. M. Eppley, F. W.

and Mrs. A. M. Bosler, aged 63.
Their combined ages were 656.

It was a very pleasant afternoon, the time being spent in talking over the early days spent in the Waldo Hills, most of the guests having lived in that neighborhood. It was the first meeting in 45 years of George and Charles Mettear, and many other old acquaintances were renewed.

Those who had the pleasure of being guests at dinner with the pioneers were: Miss Grace Bosler, Harley Bosler, Ivan Royal and Mrs. Charles Humphrey, who is a niece of the Mettear brothers.

Eyre-Melson Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Etta May Melson to Mr. George Earl Eyre took place Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Minerva Wilson, on East State street. The decorations were daffodils, hyacinths, lilies with ivy and Oregon grape. In the parlor a bower was formed of white lilies, ivy and knots of white ribbon, under which the ring ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Selleck. After the ceremony a dainty lunch was served by Misses Edith and Etta Welch, Teresa Benedict and Henrietta Hauser.

The bride wore a becoming costume of white laces, and carried an arm bouquet of white carnations, which was afterwards caught by Edith Welch. Her traveling costume was a brown tailored suit, with a hat to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Eyre left the same evening for the groom's ranch in Canada, where they will make their home. They will stop on their way at Portland, Seattle, Victoria and Vancouver B. C.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Eyre, who have been visiting in Illinois are expected to stop on their way home and make the young people a visit.

Mrs. Eyre received her education in the public schools of this city, at the high school, where she was graduated in the class of '07, and at Willamette University. She is well-known and popular among her friends. Mr. Eyre is the son of Mr.
George W. Eyre, of this city, and was a popular member of the '07 class of the high school, where he took an active part in athletics.

LINCOLN SCHOOL

CHILDREN DEBATE.

A debate was held in the eighth grade room Friday, March 27. The question was:

Resolved, That the English had no right to take America from the Indians.

The debaters were Charlotte Grettle and Clair Alford, captains. The other debaters were Rubie Hark, Margaret Poisal, John Carson and Gilberts Belknap.

The debate was won by the negatives.

The sides were chosen for the next debate, April 10, 1908. The meeting adjourned.

SCHOOL REPORTER.

CAMPAIGN OPENS AT WOODBURN

Legislative Bunch Should Show Their Hand for an Open Scrap—Statement No. 1 men Are Not Seeking the Title of Honorables to Become Dishonorables.

Statement No. 1 candidates for the legislature in Marion county opened their campaign of the county at Woodburn today. All five spent the day, and will hold a public meeting there in the near future, at which their opponents will be invited to debate the issue. Walter Winslow, Hal D. Patton, O. L. Hatteberg, A. C.
Libbie and Henry J. Miller are making a campaign for progressive principles and against a return to the old way of electing a senator with a barrel, with federal offices and legislative grafts and clerkships galore.
One of the bunch today said: "We do not ask for ourselves or relatives any compensation for the honor of serving the people as their representatives in the general assembly, neither are we going to overthrow the expressed will of the people on the matter. We are not going to make war on the direct primary law nor on laws enacted by direct vote of the people. A clean citizenship, backing clean methods in the legislative assembly is the program, and we do not believe the people are ready to turn down those principles.
The campaign on these lines will be waged from now until the primary by the Statement No. 1 candidates, and the candidates opposed to them must meet the issue, and the people must decide between progress and a retrograde movement into the corrupt practices of the past, which is all that the machine politicians stand for, and which, under the leadership of the Oregonian, they are seeking to bring about. We understand the anti's want a scrap to liven things up a little, and we are going to be ready for them. If we are mistaken, and get licked, we will take our medicine and support the ticket."

Hon. M. L. Jones, of Brooks,
Hon. T. B. Kay will address voters of Macleay precinct here at the Grange hall. It is expected other candidates will be there.
Jones will explain his position on county matters, and Mr. Kay talk on the proposed amendments to the constitution exempting all land values from assessment.

State and District Officers.
The time for filing petitions, the necessary number of signatures attached, expired at 12 o'clock tonight. A full review shows the following candidates in line:

Republican.
U. S. senator—H. M. Cake, C.
Fulton.
Congressman, first district—W.
Hawley.

Congressman, second district—
R. Ellis, T. T. Geer, Geo. S. Shoup, Supreme Judge—R. J. S. Bona, Dairy and food commissioner—W. Balley, Alexander Reid.

Railroad commissioner, first district—T. K. Campbell, W. A. Carter, R. Robertson.

Railroad commissioner, second district—Clyde B. Hitchison, James Gaston, A. N. Hamilton, W.
Hurlburt, C. C. Loucks, Harry Whiting.

Democratic.
Congressman, second district—
John A. Jeffrey, A. J. Derby.
The Democrats expect to nominate Henry J. Miller, of Aurora.

Mr. Miller is a candidate for Republican nomination for the office of Representative in Marion county.
He is a successful business man, shop merchant of many years' standing, has a liberal education, and comes from a bedrock Republican precinct. He is a man of clean and the strictest integrity, and voted for that man for United States senator who shall have registered highest number of the votes of the people. He will only vote when he is elected to the legislature, and will take but one ballot to settle the matter if men like Mr. Miller are the majority. Mr. Miller has the education and business experience to make a creditable representative.

For County Commissioner.
This is an important office, does not pay very much. One of candidates who has not been mentioned in this paper is John E. Lee of Aumsville, one of the pioneer publican farmers of the county, has always done service for the people and has never received any nomination. He is a man who pays tax who does his duty in all walks of life, has raised a fine family, and elected commissioner, will give people a square deal.

Meeting at Macleay Tonight.
Hon. M. L. Jones, of Brooks,
Hon. T. B. Kay will address
voters of Macleay precinct here
at the Grange hall. It is expected
other candidates will be there.
Jones will explain his position on
talk on the proposed amendments

We Are Hunting For You

We want to tell you that we are hunting for your watch repairing, jewelry repairing, special order work, optical work and engraving.

Perhaps you hunted for us and failed to find us; got into the hands of some unskilled workman; had your work ruined and overcharged. Our work will please you, as it has and is pleasing thousands of satisfied customers.

We have a most skillful and efficient workman in charge of our watch repairing, and in jewelry making and repairing we are equally prepared to cope with the simplest or most difficult job promptly.
