INDICTED OFFICERS OF DEFUNCT TITLE, GUARANTEE BANK SECURE CHANGE OF VENUE.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Portland, Or., April 4.—J. Thornburn Ross, T. T. Burkhardt, J. E. Atchinson and G. G. Hill, of the defunct Title, Guarantee and Trust company, charged with fraudulently handling the funds of the suspended bank, won the first round in their fight for liberty today when Judge Cleland granted the bank officials a change of venue. The case will be heard in Marion county, probably by either Judge Burnett or Galloway at Salem.

Hyde-Benson Case Continued (United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, April 4.—While jurors in the box the Hyde-Benson land fraud case was continued until Monday, when another panel of 60 talesmen will report, the jury will be completed.

Old-Time Contractor Dies. George Stevens, twenty-five years ago the largest and wealthiest contractor in Salem and builder of the reform school, Salem hospital and many other of the other large public and private buildings, died at 1 o'clock Friday night at the age of 59 years in the Salem hospital, practically poverty stricken. Stevens was at one time reputed to be worth in the neighborhood of a half a hundred thousand dollars and was one of the most influential men of the Willamette valley. The deceased was a widower and leaves three sons and two daughters. The funeral service will take place at Rigdon's undertaking parlors at 3 o'clock this afternoon and the remains will be buried in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

Smith a "Gay Old Bird." (United Press Leased Wire.) Roseburg, Or., April 4.—Earl Smith, who is an eccentric bachelor of this city, aged 53, today did not deny that he was the man mentioned in the Chicago dispatch as asking the Peoria, Ill., postmaster to assist him in securing a wife. Recently he wrote his biography and circulated it among the young ladies of the county, but failing to secure the mate he desired by this system, he is supposed to have searched out a wider field. He owns a ranch near here.
