SOCIETY'S DOINGS

Inspection and Dance.
The regular quarterly inspection of the Company "M," O. N. G., took place at the armory Tuesday night. Assistant Finzer of Portland had charge of the inspection, and spoke in the highest terms of the work done by the local company. Colonel McDonnell also of Portland made a report talk to the company, and passed in general. After the inspection the floor was cleared and the grand march led by Miss Millie Lucas and Colonel McDonnell. The floor was in perfect condition, and the music of the dancing was furnished by the Salem Military band.

For Miss Cooke.
Miss Althea Moores will entertain informally this evening for Miss Cully Cooke of Portland, who is visiting in the city.

Exchange Party.
Mrs. W. W. Steusloff entertained the ladies of the Aid society of the First Presbyterian church at her home yesterday afternoon.

A guessing contest the first prize was given to Mrs. Miller, and the Constable was awarded the consolation. Three dollars was taken for tickets and will be used as a benefit for the society. Lunch was served in the store room. About 30 ladies were present, and a very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed.

WAGE WAR AGAINST POOL ROOM ORAZE

SEATTLE AUTHORITIES ARE DETERMINED TO KEEP HIGH SCHOOL BOYS OUT OF ALL QUESTIONABLE RESORTS.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Seattle, Wash., April 4.—The amens of many of the best families of Seattle add their lustre to a peculiar social register that Chief of Police Irving Ward and Mayor Miller have recently drawn up with the assistance of Superintendent of Schools Frank B. Cooper and Principal W. F. Gieger.

The compilation of the list is the first movement that has been made in the joint fight that Mayor Miller and Chief Ward with the school officials are making against the excessive attendance upon pool and billiard rooms by young high school boys.

Probably it is your stomach and not your heart that causes pain in neighborhood of the heart. If it is, Lane's Family Medicine will give relief. 25 cents at druggists.

LAFFERTY TURNED LOOSE

Escapes Charges of Assault With Knife Upon Technicality.

Peter Lafferty, who was arrested for "assaulting" Stu Finley with a knife in Talkington's saloon, was released by Justice of the Peace Webster yesterday on the technicality that no "assault" was committed; that Lafferty only threatened Finley and made no assault upon him.

"Faith Triumphant."

On next Friday, April 10, the chorus of the First Christian church will render Butterworth & Root's sacred cantata, "Faith Triumphant" in the church auditorium. They will be assisted by Mr. E. W. Pierce and Mr. J. Cyrus Price. The chorus has been working hard in the preparation of this cantata and the public is assured of an evening's enjoyable entertainment. The music is such that it not only pleases, but is instructive as well. The rostrum will represent a rose garden's in Damascus, during the reign of Benhadad II. The costumes have been selected with a view to their effect under the various colored electric lights to be used on that occasion.

"Faith Triumphant," is taken from the incident of the healing of Naaman by the Hebrew prophet, Elisha. The part of Naaman is taken by Mr. S. W. Wolf, whose deep bass voice will be heard to advantage. The part of Iran will be taken by Mr. E. W. Pierce. His beautiful tenor voice is admirably adapted to the character of the young Hebrew prophet. His solo (storm scene) "A Cloud Is on the Mountain's Brow," is one of the features of the evening. Miss Jennie Williams, as Queen of Syria, has a part that is just suited to her clear soprano voice. Mrs. Errett, as Naaman's wife, has a part that is not excelled in any cantata. Miss Nellie Sykes, with her deep, rich contralto voice, in the part of Hebrew maid, attendant to Naaman's life, will surprise you. Her solo, "Harp of My Fathers," is a gem. The chorus is composed of 30 voices and is well balanced. The entire proceeds go into the bible school fund. It takes about one and one-half hours to render the cantata. No pains or expense has been spared to make this one of the best local entertainments given in Salem.

MAY APPLY

"BIG STICK" TO HAYTIANS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Berlin, April 4.—German irritation at the continued reign of misrule of Hayti is finding expression in the frankly avowed wish that the United States would step in and apply the "big stick" in the interest of order. The complications growing out of the claims of Herr Reinhold, a German subject, against the Haytian government coupled with the prospect of further disturbances in the near future, are held to make the situation intolerable.

Irritation of the throat and hoarseness are relieved immediately by two or three little swallows of Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure. Grip patients should make a note of this.

GOOD OR ILL OMEN?

New York State Convention To Be Held on Hughes' Birthday.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, April 4.—Delegates-at-large to the Republican national convention will be selected next week, when state conventions will be held in South Dakota, New York, Massachusetts and Delaware. It is believed to be a foregone conclusion that New York will instruct for Hughes and that Taft will capture the South Dakota delegation. Many think that the delegates selected in Massachusetts and Delaware will go to the convention uninstructed. By a peculiar coincidence the New York state convention will be held in New York city next Saturday which is Governor Hughes' birthday. The Massachusetts convention will meet Friday in Boston, and the South Dakota and Delaware conventions will assemble Thursday. The former will meet in Huron and the other in Dover.
