

Run Down

If your doctor says take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, then take it. If he has anything better, then take that.

F. GOODE MAKES A STATEMENT

F. GOODE MAKES COMPLETE DISBURSAL OF EVERY CHARGE REFERRED AGAINST HIM.

Salem, April 8.—Councilman J. Goode of this city, has given the following exclusive statement to the "Journal," which gives his version of the trouble in the Free Methodist church here, which culminated in the house-bumping of Presiding Elder N. Coffey by the councilman's daughters, Miss Lulu Goode and Nettie Rhodes, last Saturday.

The statement denies the accusation of Coffey that Goode was expelled from the church. It also denies the statements by the Presiding Elder Coffey that Goode was expelled from membership in the Free Methodist church of Salem, and that he was expelled from the church.

Goode says that he was called to the meeting by the Presiding Elder Coffey. He says that he was called to the meeting by the Presiding Elder Coffey. He says that he was called to the meeting by the Presiding Elder Coffey.

Goode says that he was called to the meeting by the Presiding Elder Coffey. He says that he was called to the meeting by the Presiding Elder Coffey. He says that he was called to the meeting by the Presiding Elder Coffey.

If you are all run down, easily tired, thin, pale, nervous, go to your doctor. Stop guessing, stop experimenting, go direct to your doctor. Ask his opinion of Ayer's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla. No alcohol, no stimulation. A blood purifier, a nerve tonic, a strong alterative, an aid to digestion.

by H. V. Haslam, secretary of the so-called trial, he being one of the most important factors in bringing the prosecution. I had charged him with mis-appropriating money of the church. It was after this kind of a trial that the jury found me guilty as charged and that I was expelled from the church and that my attorney, Captain Sloper, had waived my right of appeal.

A New Educational Building. On the triangular plaza in Chicago formed by the intersection of Prairie and Cottage avenues and Twenty-third street stands one of the largest and most elaborate buildings devoted exclusively to the sale of school books. It has recently been erected by Ginn & Company to meet the growing demands of their business, and provides every facility for storing and distributing their vast stock of books, in addition to numberless appliances for comfort and convenience in office life.

The management is in charge of Mr. Hilton, the resident partner; Mr. O. J. Laylander, who formerly represented Ginn Company in Iowa, and now has the direction of the common school agency work and state campaigns; and Mr. D. W. Hall, who is in charge of the firm's high school and college interests.

A stairway leads from this floor to the one below, in which there is a kitchen and dining room, with complete appointments for serving luncheons to the entire staff. On the same floor is the women's rest room, 50x30 feet, well lighted and comfortably furnished.

Ginn & Company have spared no expense in providing for the comfort of their employees, and have aimed to combine with the intense activity of business life the restfulness of the home and the comradeship of the club.

HO! YOU MEN, TABOO THE DISHRAG. "My husband is such a handy man around the house," I recently heard a wife remark with pride. She went on to tell how he could dry dishes when the maid was out, and even enjoyed getting a meal. It seems to me to be a popular fallacy among wives that a useful man about the house is the most desirable husband.

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of Salem Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys. To filter the blood is the kidney's duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick. Backache and many kidney ills follow: Urinary trouble, diabetes. Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all. Salem people endorse our claim. F. A. Sutton, of 1125 Water st., Salem, Ore., says: "For ten or twelve years, rheumatism and kidney trouble was the b scourge of my life, and two or three times I was down on my back on account of the pain being so severe. I could hardly move, owing to the lameness and had to leave my farm and come into the city to doctor for the trouble, but nothing seemed to bring me more than temporary relief. I was in bad shape just before I went to Dr. Stone's drug store and procured Doan's Kidney Pills. My limbs would scarcely support me, and I could only get around at times and with the greatest difficulty. Doan's Kidney Pills benefited me at once, and when I had used three boxes of them I was absolutely free from every symptom of my old trouble, and my health was better than it had been for 14 years. I can conscientiously say that Doan's Kidney Pills are the best remedy of the kind I ever used or know of."
