NORTHERN PACIFIC LANDS

Refused to Sell Their Sagebrush Property for $2.50 Per Acre—Pendleton People Will Take into the Court

holding that the terms of the Northern Pacific land grant are the same as those of the Southern Pacific which the government is about to make relinquish to settlers at the minimum price of $2.50 an acre, a group of Pendleton and Echo men attempting to bring the railroad company, says the Pendleton Tribune. They have applied for purchase under the government provisions in the west end of the county. They filed copies of these applications together with affidavits to the county recorder. It is held that nothing further will be done in the matter until the government's suit against the S. P. and its holders of land grants, has settled as it is alleged that a decision in one will be a decision in the other.

There is little doubt in the minds of people who are familiar with the facts that the government will be successful in compelling the Southern Pacific to relinquish its holdings but there is considerable doubt in the minds of Pendleton lawyers and others as to whether the case of the N. P. is exactly similar.

The opinion seems to prevail that the grant to the Northern Pacific was unrestricted and that the company is permitted to hold its land just as long as it desires and accept just as high a price as it can secure.

As the land in question is now worth about $100 per acre it will be seen that those who are making the fight will have something worth their while if they succeed in their efforts.

We Got What He Needed. "Five years ago it looked as if time had come," says Mr. C. King of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was my druggist recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I bought a bottle and got what I needed—strength. I got one foot in the grave, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy put me back on my feet again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at J. Perry's drug store. 50c.

For Constipation.

Mr. L. H. Farnham, a prominent druggist of Spirit Lake, Iowa, says: "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are certainly the best thing on the market for constipation." Give these tablets a trial. You are certain to find them agreeable and pleasant in effect. Price, 25 cents. Samples free. For sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.

Oregon Supreme Court.

yond the point of endurance. On the other hand, China is inclined to go along on a stiffer line of policy than hitherto. An agreement between the Japanese and Chinese remains entirely unlikely, at least until the American fleet arrives, think the Chinese, who believe that the presence of the great armada in the Pacific will tend to bring the mikado to more favorable terms.

Fears American Fleet.

Tokio, April 8.—Japan is worried about the negotiations between Russia and the United States concerning the administration of affairs at Harbin.

The sensationalists connect the coming of the American warships with possible future resentions concerning affairs in South Manchuria.

A Washington dispatch says the American government has decided to oppose the action of Russia and Japan in Manchuria. Advice from Harbin quote Consul-Fisher as saying that the United States government on its own initiative demands the abandonment of Japan's present status in Manchuria. These things have aroused much comment here, but the foreign office refuses to accept an alarmist view of the situation and states its belief that the American government is not opposed to Japan's present attitude in Manchuria.

Women Join Boycott.

Tokio, April 8.—The anti-Japanese boycott in China has spread to the women of the flowery kingdom. The house wives in the larger communities are forming boycott clubs and a carefully organized campaign against Japanese goods will be carried on. This last turn in the fight has increased the alarm of Japanese exporters, who realize that the women are in a position to cause them great alarm.

A Twenty-year Sentence.

"I have just completed a twenty year health sentence, imposed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which cured me of bleeding piles just twenty years ago," writes O. S. Woolever, of LeRayville, N. Y. DEVELOPING JAPANESE WATER POWER

Consul-General Henry B. Miller of Yokohama invites attention to the following report of an electrical expert on the possibilities of development of electrical power in Japan:

In the case of one power site on the Tashiragawa the construction of a tunnel three and a half miles long would, it is stated, secure about 65,000 horse power, and at another power site, by means of about ten miles of tunnel and a certain amount of open canal construction, 150,000 horsepower could, it is reported, be secured. In the first instance there is a good reservoir site for storage, while in the second instance advantage would be taken of natural lakes. These sites and others which have been surveyed are in the Fujiyama district. Additional sources of power are near Nikko, where Lake Chuzenji would form the large reservoir, and where, with four miles of tunnelling, a fall of 2000 feet could be secured; also in the Lake Inawashiro district, where the construction of four miles of tunnelling would provide upward of 50,000 horse power. An inspection of the principal statistics over many years point to the probability of the initial plants giving, even during periods of drought, 300,000 horse power.

A favorable feature of the scheme is that the power sites, provisionally selected are located within a comparatively short distance of Tokio, where, at the outset, the bulk of the power would be taken. Between the capital and the sites referred to there is a minimum transmission distance of eighty miles and a maximum of 50 miles. It is estimated that the present requirements of Tokio represent 45,000 horse-power and that plants which will call for an additional 20,000 horse power are in the process of erection. These figures do not, however, include the electric road from Tokio to Yokohama, or the elevated road which is being constructed by the government in Tokio. One of the chief power sites is within 135 miles of the old capital, Kyoto, and Osaka, the Manchester of Japan, is only 160 miles distant. It is believed with the growth of the interurban tramway systems in Japan there will be an immense field for cheap water power. Owing to the high price of coal the cost of steam power is high, and the utilization of water power should prove an important factor in the industrial development of Japan.

BAKER CITY DEMOCRAT.

Says Oregonian Is Getting Ready to Fall Into Democratic Camp.

Our old friend the Oregonian is getting ready to fall into the Democratic camp as gracefully as it can. It recognizes the fact that the old thread worn platitudes of the Republican party will not win this year. It says: "The Democratic campaign will be an aggressive one and not merely a passive submission to inevitable slaughter like that of 1904. The truth is that Republican managers must seek some new ground of attack if they mean to injure Mr. Bryan seriously." "That sounds good to us. It looks as if the great coast journal, had given up the fight in the nation as well as in the state. It has already declared that Governor George E. Chamberlain will be the people's choice for United States senator and now it is weakening on the prospects for national success. We call the attention of our Republican friends to this magnificent compliment to the great Nebraskan. "It is difficult, indeed, to imagine just what objection can be made to Mr. Bryan that will weigh much with the voters." In other words, he is a faultless candidate. Pure in politics, honest, incorruptible, courageous, fearless. Read on, and on: "The New York World has been for some time trying to devise a really deadly campaign cry against him, and the worst that it has done so far is to say 'that he does not think right.' Since right thinking is largely a matter of opinion and taste, this reproach does not strike one as being very effective for campaign use. The same papers that accuse the Nebraskan of wrong thinking arraign Mr. Roosevelt for the same offense. The people of the country would be glad to see many more minds go astray in the same direction. "While Mr. Bryan seems to be partially exempt from effective attack himself, he brings plenty of indictments against the Republicans in general and Mr. Taft in particular."

We notice that the Oregonian does not stop to deny the indictments against Mr. Taft but rather assists Mr. Bryan to stick pins in the side of the great fat secretary. We wonder how Mr. Taft will parry this: "The laboring men insist they are entitled to trial by jury; but Secretary Taft went all the way to Oklahoma to find fault with a provision in the constitution securing this protection to the laboring man, and that offense will count against him with a certain class of working men." The Oregonian realizes the "offense." It makes not the least effort to palliate the crime, for crime it is. The laborers of this nation will not forget this last effort of the great fat secretary to add another stone to a fitting cap sheaf to the record of his oppression of the laboring men of America. If we can read between the lines at all, we can see the great palladium of Republicanism in the state of Oregon turning from the party vomit of crime, deception, intrigue, trickery, corruption, libertinism, political immorality, depravity, decomposition, deceit, duplicity, double dealing and dissimulation. It realizes the foulness of its present political abode.

President Roosevelt Says.

That outdoor exercise is needed by the American people. That's all rheumatism follows that advice? The answer is simple—use Ballard's Snow Liniment, and the rheumatism will go, leaving you as spry as a colt. Gives quick and permanent relief from rheumatism, neuralgia, lame back and all pains.
