PRINCE DEFEATS GOULD

In the matter of matching them in attendance. It is reported that the announcement of the engagement will be made in this county that no one will know anything about the wedding ceremony until it is all over. It is further reported that George Gould has decided not to throw any more obstacles in the way of his sister and prince and that he has been disengaged from trying to curtail her share or divide her share of $15,000 of the Jay Gould estate by announcement that she would make an attempt in court.

Vanderbilt Divorce.

New York, April 10.—Now that G. Vanderbilt has agreed to granting a divorce to his wife, the important questions that remain unsettled involve their child, amount of money Mrs. Vanderbilt demand from her millionaire husband and the disposition of the Vanderbilt home and furnishings. According to a statement made by the wife who is looking after Vanderbilt's interests, the latter will not sue for a divorce, but he offers objection to any attempt to keep their child from being educated in his direction. It is said Vanderbilt is determined to have his way in this matter more than in any other.

Mrs. Vanderbilt has rejected a demand that she be given $1,500,000 based upon the value of stocks on the market value two years ago. Attorneys figure that if this settlement were accepted she would receive about $800,000 in stocks and bonds at today's quotations. One report is that she will ultimately receive from her husband an amount of $1,000,000 and $400,000. David McClure, who is appointed referee in the case, will submit to Judge O'Gorman a report, which, it is said, favors Mrs. Vanderbilt.

Salve for Burns, Chapped Hands and Sore Nipples.

DEATH OF CHINESE HERO

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Los Angeles, Cal., April 10.—Seven years of pain and agonizing death followed the heroic act of Wong Chung Sue, a Chinese ranchman, who that long ago, saved the lives of scores of passengers by throwing a switch that had been left open on the line of the Southern Pacific railway.

Wong died at the county hospital, where for seven years he had lain flat on his back, praying for death to end his misery.

The Celestial had a ranch on one of the southern branches of the railroad. One day he came upon a switch that had been left open by a revengeful tramp. He worked with the heavy iron, but it resisted his efforts to turn it. He clung to the rod until an approaching passenger train was almost upon him and then moved the lever causing the rail to swing into place just as the train hit it.

The chinaman fell forward and a step of one of the coaches struck him, breaking his spine. Wong was found hours afterward by a section gang and hurried to the county hospital here, where he was placed in a heavy plaster cast and in this he remained for the rest of his life.

FRIENDS SURPRISED

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM

The high school faculty, students and especially the baseball team were very pleasantly surprised by a present from the Salem business men and baseball fans. Not a word of the affair had leaked out until the presentation at school Thursday afternoon. The gift consisted of a large bill of baseball goods, a solid rubber home plate, a dozen bats and case, a dozen league balls, a field marker and three high school suits. Moreover in a letter explaining the matter it announced more goods which were ordered, a pitchers box and a dozen baseball caps.

The high school fully appreciates this large gift and the only way they see of thanking the donors is by pulling off a successful baseball season and capturing the interscholastic pennant. From the present prospects they have a good showing.

NATIONAL CATHOLIC LEAGUE

La Fayette, Ind., April 10.—The organization of a national league of the Catholic societies of American universities will be the result of a convention opened today at Purdue University.

Representatives from institutions in every part of the country, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, including Harvard and other big universities, are ready in the city to attend the session. In view of the fact that all big colleges have local societies of Catholic students, it is figured that by organizing on a national scale the work of this nature will be made easier by centralizing it. It is pointed out by those who are advocating this new organization that one great advantage of it will be the interchange of ideas on the methods in use in the various institutions.

RACE HORSE MAN FACES A DIVORCE

San Francisco, April 10.—On the grounds of cruelty and an additional complaint that the tastes of her husband are so widely different from hers that they cannot live happily together, Mrs. Blasingame has been granted a divorce from Lee A. Blasingame, millionaire and known along the Pacific coast as the owner of race horses and the finest stock ranch in the west, located near Fresno.

According to the terms of the decree, which was granted yesterday by Judge Ellsworth in Oakland, where Mrs. Blasingame is living with her mother, she is given the custody of the two minor children and $220 a month alimony to run for thirty months. At the expiration of this time the allowance is to be decreased to $200. The property interests involved were settled out of court. In his will Blasingame agrees to bequeath at least $6,000 to his children and gives Mrs. Blasingame all the household furniture in the Fortieth street home. Blasingame did not contest the suit.

HENEY COMING

Henny leaves here and goes to Portland, for the first time since the beginning of open hostilities, they will have an opportunity to say something to the other at close range, it heretofore being a standing joke that they always said things about each other with the distance of the continent between them and with the cry of "wait till I catch him in the same town." Now they will have their chance.

Henny Interviewed.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Medford, Or., April 10.—Declaring that President Roosevelt has not laid his hands on any way, and that he is a free lance, and can act as he pleases, and that he will act most aggressively, Francis J. Henny is speeding northward to Portland to publicly reply to the accusations of Senator Charles W. Fulton. Tomorrow night, in Portland, Henny will publicly present his alleged proofs of the charges of corruption against Oregon's senior senator.

The celebrated federal prosecutor passed through Medford this morning enroute to Portland. When interviewed by a representative of the United Press, he said:

"At great personal sacrifice, I have returned to Oregon to place before the people proof of my charges of corruption, and answer the denunciations made by Senator Fulton in his recent speeches. I will not now outline my reply nor its nature.

"There is absolutely no truth in the published assertion that President Roosevelt silenced my attack upon Senator Fulton. He has never in any way intimated to me what his wishes were.

"My reply to Fulton will be aggressive. I am not on the defensive. I have no questionable acts to explain to any constituency. My trip to Oregon involves considerable sacrifice. I have employed my partner to conduct the examination of jurors at San Francisco and the people can rest assured that I would not leave the case at this time and travel clear to Portland unless I had something to say."

Has New Affidavits.

Portland, Or., April 10.—A report in Portland that Henny has a bunch of new affidavits from members of the state legislature alleging certain corrupt practices such as were contained in the Smith affidavit was wired to Henny at Grants Pass. He refused to deny the rumor.

"When I finish my speech tomorrow night," he said, "the people will know whether I possess such affidavits or not."

While at Medford Henny intimated that he might extend his stay in Oregon for several days and speak at a number of points in the state where Fulton has delivered addresses.

Making Salem Better, Bigger, More Healthy and More Beautiful As a City.

Several matters came up before the city council last night for the making of Salem a bigger, better and more up-to-date city,—as distinguished from a country town.

Probably the most important of these, second to the liquor license, was the operations proposed by the hospital and health committee. The putting in of a sewerage system in the southeast portion of the city, principally around Mill street and the Florence hotel, in which at present hundreds of open cesspools threaten the lives of the people with typhoid fever, was strongly urged. From the report of Councilman Radcliffe, the sewerage conditions in this part of the town are deplorable. The council will await a report from the city engineer and then proceed with haste to eradicate the evil.

A resolution, introduced by Councilman Stoiz, was also passed at the suggestion of the health committee to compel butchers to cover their meats on their way into town, instead of the present way of leaving them to the mercy of the mixed cloud of flies and dust which settles on it.

A number of sidewalk resolutions were passed, which will help in the making of Salem a first class city in the eyes of strangers. The street commissioner was also instructed to report sidewalks in dangerous condition, of which there are a great number, to the council and the owners of property, in front of which they exist, will be compelled to repair them.

Suit Over Land.

A question as to whom was the owner of a launch built by Marlon Kightlinger, but claimed by Mrs. Dixie Durkheimer, his housekeeper, on which an attachment had been levied was decided by a jury in the circuit court yesterday in favor of Mrs. Durkheimer.

Some months ago Kightlinger ordered the materials for the launch in his own name; told several parties it was his and as a result, Wade, Pearce & Company, to whom he owed a large bill, secured an attachment against the launch. It was then that he claimed the launch was Mrs. Durkheimer, and the jury yesterday sustained his contention, returning the property to her.

We Got What He Needed.

"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr. C. Farthing, of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at J. C. Perry's drug store. 50c.

FACTS ABOUT NEW THEORY AS SECURED BY INTERVIEWS

An article from the Nashville, Tenn., Banner, published during L. T. Cooper's visit to that city, throws some light on the remarkable success of the young man's theories and medicines in various cities visited by him during the past year. The article is as follows:

"In view of the enormous sale of Cooper's preparations now going on in this city and the intense interest which Mr. Cooper has stirred up since his arrival, a representative of the Banner spent Thursday afternoon at the young man's headquarters, watching the swarm of humanity come and go.

"During the afternoon the reporter interviewed many of the callers and obtained statements from all who cared to give them as to their experience with Cooper and his preparations.

"The following are selected from those statements as being typical of the general expression of the people seen:

"Mr. B. B. Lasater, living at 1224 North Fourth avenue, when interviewed said: 'I have been troubled with my stomach for the past two years, and have had rheumatism for more than five years. Sometimes I could not walk, and there were times when I could not even move in bed. Hard knots would form on my muscles, which caused me intense pain. Gas formed on my stomach after eating, which gave me much pain and distress, and I often was restless and tossed all night, losing much sleep and rest.

"Hearing of Mr. Cooper and the great work his medicine was accomplishing for others I decided to try it. I have taken it about two weeks, and find myself in a greatly improved condition. My stomach is in good shape, and does not trouble me at all. My rheumatism has nearly disappeared, and I expect to resume work shortly, for the first time in 12 months. Mr. Cooper certainly has a wonderful medicine, and I am grateful for what it has done for me.

"Another caller was Mrs. T. J. Smith, of 505 Hudson street. She said: 'I have been a sufferer from bladder and kidney trouble for twenty-five years. In that time I have tried many preparations and various kinds of medicine, but received little or no benefit from them. I seldom had a sound night's sleep, my rest being broken at intervals throughout the night. I had pains in my back and burning sensations.

"I heard so much of Mr. Cooper that I came to the conclusion he might be able to afford me some relief. I have now been taking the medicine about a week, and feel better in every way. The pain has disappeared, and I have no distress whatever. I have come here today to express my appreciation to Mr. Cooper for his wonderful medicine and what it has done in my case. I will take pleasure in recommending it to others.

"In spite of my assertions by various physicians that Cooper is a fad who will soon die out, the young man seems to be gaining even greater headway as his visit draws to a close."

The agency for Cooper's celebrated medicines has been given to us. We are making a fine record with them.—J. C. Perry.

Railroad Meeting at Aumsville.

There will be a meeting of the people of Aumsville and vicinity to consider the proposed Salem and Stayton electric railroad next Monday evening. A Salem delegation will attend.

DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve. It is especially good for piles. Sold by all druggists.

Object to Strong Medicines.

Many people object to taking the strong medicines usually prescribed by physicians for rheumatism. There is no need of internal treatment in and case of muscular or chronic rheumatism, and more than nine out of every ten cases of the disease are of one or the other of these varieties. When there is no fever and little (if any) swelling, you may know that it is only necessary to apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely to get quick relief. Try it. For sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.

Meeting at Liberty.

The people of Liberty meet Saturday night this week to discuss direct legislation measures and Statement No. 1. There will be a musical and literary program. A large attendance is expected.

Rheumatism.

More than nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp weather or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all that is needed, and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and soreness. Price 25 cents; large size, 50 cents. Sold by Dr. Stone's drug store.
