SALEM-STAYTON
ELECTRIC RAILWAY

Very Enthusiastic Meeting of Business Men and Property Owners Held at Aumsville--Stayton Boosters Present

The Salem men who went to Aumsville Monday night in the interest of the Salem and Stayton electric road got a warm reception. Seven rigs came down from Stayton with a large delegation of the business men from that live town. President Huckestein of the Business Men's league made an earnest plea for this crossroad that is so badly needed to connect up the valley towns. He was applauded for his remarks, and was followed by Prest. Freres of the Stayton Commercial club, who renewed his hearty endorsement of the plan, which was then fully set forth and was endorsed by an unanimous rising vote. Practical talks were made by Dr. Beauchamp and Mr. Kearns of Stayton, Sherman Swank, A. P. Speer, Dr. J. W. Cole, J. C. Colvin, Tom Johnson and F. L. Pound, who in conclusion offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, By the business men and property owners of Aumsville that we endorse the plan submitted by the Stayton and Salem commercial bodies for constructing an electric railroad from Salem to Stayton, and pledge our hearty co-operation in securing the necessary stock subscription to build the proposed line.
Adopted.
The trustees will meet in Salem in a few days and make their report on cost of the road and plan for stock subscription, when a public prospectus will be issued and work of raising money to build the road will begin. It is the intention to push the matter to an early conclusion and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed at the Aumsville meeting.

PASTMASTERS IN PETTY ROBBERIES

L. Smith, who was found guilty yesterday in the circuit court of robbing Dillman's second-hand store on the night of January 22, together with his confederate on that occasion, have both been identified by Detective Kellyer from Portland of being men with a previous criminal record. Kellyer, who arrived here yesterday identified Smith as one of the burglars concerned in the robbery at Sellwood sometime ago. Wilson, he stated, has been wanted by the Portland police for some time on several charges, he being one of the most versatile of crooks. One of the charges for which he is wanted is the stealing of a wagon load of wool from the Koshland warehouse in

WILLAMETTE DEFEATS
WHITMAN AT BASEBALL
In the first game of the season Willamette defeated Whitman three to one, and Capt. Powers and his men are jubilant for the sweet revenge of handing back a Roland for the Oliver they got last year at the hands of the Walla Walla giants. Wimberly, Doegle and Unruh scored for Willamette amid great enthusiasm. It was a splendid game and the Methodist college team have gained the heart of the fans in the first round.

All the two columns of space hired in the Statesmen devoted to me is for the purpose of defeating the State-ment No. 1 ticket which the corrupt machine is fighting.

Let the people be warned that the local machine seems to defeat State-ment No. 1 men as the only object of its campaign to restore the old and disreputable practices in connection with electing United States senators. LET NO CITIZEN WHO LOVES BETTER POLITICS FAIL TO VOTE FOR ALL THE NO. 1 CANDIDATES.
