

DEMOCRATS ASKED TO SUPPORT BEAN

Circular Issued by the State Chairman in Behalf of a Non-Partisan Bench.

Alex Sweek, chairman of the democratic state central committee, has issued the following circular letter asking Democrats to support R. S. Bean:

"At the June election the proposed amendment to our state constitution will be voted upon and probably adopted, by which the justices of the supreme court will be increased from three to five, and the two additional justices will be selected at the November election. At a meeting of the Democratic state central committee, held in Portland, January 18, 1908, by a unanimous vote a resolution was adopted declaring in favor of making the judiciary of the state nonpartisan, thereby carrying out the plan initiated by Governor Chamberlain of selecting men for the various judicial offices with reference to their qualifications, regardless of their political affiliations. Under this resolution, Messrs. W. H. Holmes, of Salem; J. Weatherford, of Albany, and N. Peery, of Portland, all prominent attorneys and well known democrats, were appointed, as a committee, to look into the question and to determine upon the best method of carrying the spirit of this resolution into effect.

"After a full investigation of the subject this committee has reported in favor of electing the judiciary in such manner as to finally insure a proportional representation of each of the political parties upon the bench, and have decided that Mr. Justice Bean should be nominated by all parties to succeed himself. He is the only nominee of the republican party, and his high standing as a jurist, and eminent standing as a citizen make it fitting and advisable that the democracy of Oregon not only offer no opposition to his nomination, but as evidence of their sincerity, and to insure his election, place his name upon their ticket as well. Such course will cause the people to the propriety of having a non-partisan judiciary. After the principle is one established the Republicans of the state will have an opportunity of placing themselves on record in favor of this movement at the coming November election, when it is probable that under the proposed amendment two justices will have to be selected from the people to succeed the two commissioners, now aiding, and, in fact, constituting a part of the court. For these reasons no name will be printed on the Democratic ticket to be used at the primaries on April 17, and a blank will be left which to write the name of the person to be nominated. In conformity to the wishes of the Democratic state and sub-committees, you are requested to write, and to cause your Democratic friends to write, on this blank the name of Hon. Robert S. Bean, of Lane county, placing 'X' before the name, thus:

For Justice of the Supreme Court, Vote for One.

Robert S. Bean of Lane County. In this manner his nomination to both parties, as well as his election will be assured. We will then turn to the good judgment and fairness of the people of the state to see the election in November next, that of the five men who may occupy the supreme bench not more than two of them shall be of the same political party, thereby assuring the impartiality of that court. This is the effect of the course adopted in Massachusetts and New York, with the result that the appellate courts of those states occupy the foremost rank among the highest courts of the various states."

"GOOD NATURED JOE" FOR COUNTY TREASURER

Promises Efficient Service if Elected—Has Always Been a Consistent Republican Worker.

Nearly everybody knows good natured and obliging Joe Moore. After working for the past eight years as watchman at the court house, he is now a candidate for the office of county treasurer.

Mr. Moore was born at Mt. Vernon, Ind., in 1853, came to Oregon in 1865, he lived for a while at McMinnville and came to Marion county in 1868 and since that time has resided here.

He engaged in farming for several years near Silverton; he came to Salem eight years ago in order to give his children the best possible education.

He has a good education himself and is a good accountant, and on numerous occasions has been employed on the books in the several offices.

That he is steady and reliable and does well whatever he undertakes is shown by the fact that each succeeding county court retained him since his first employment.

Mr. Moore has always been a Republican and an earnest supporter of his party, but has never held a political office.

Should he receive the Republican nomination and be elected as county treasurer, the duties of the office will be carefully attended to and all persons receive courteous treatment.

President P. L. Campbell of the University of Oregon Wednesday gave the students of the Medford high school a talk on the university and necessity of passing the appropriation on which a referendum has been taken.
