Sampson Acquitted--

Harry Sampson, accused of stealing a few miscellaneous articles, such as a pair of pincers, a tobacco pouch and a horse-hair chain, was acquitted by a jury in the circuit court yesterday. He demonstrated to the jury that he though the articles were of no value to his employer, T. W. Steiger, with the exception of a revolver and that he had just brought that to town with him and had made no effort to run away with them, intending to return to the ranch the same night he was arrested.

John M., Hugh C., and Walter J. Garain appraisers of the estate of Hugh B. Garain, deceased, this morning filed their report showing the estate to be worth $19,850. Of this amount, property worth $13,850 is in this county and $6000 worth in Multnomah county.

Wants $550 Damages--

The suit of The James Higgins company, of Turner, against L. T. Torwick for failure to live up to an agreement and supply 500 sacks of Burbank potatoes and 150 sacks of seed potatoes is on trial in the circuit court. The Higgins company claim the agreement read the potatoes were to be delivered in five weeks, while Torwick claims three weeks, and claims that on this belief he held the potatoes in readiness to ship at the end of three weeks, but as they were not sent for and
