

WOMEN WHO BELIEVE IN PERUNA

Honest Women Who Are Not Afraid to Tell the Truth About Pe-ru-na.

MRS. F. E. HENDERSON

Since I have used Peruna I have a splendid appetite, enjoy life and perfect health.

The Value of Health.
Who can set a money value on health? It is absolutely priceless. No one in good health can fully appreciate what it means to have poor health. The days are long and tedious. The nights horrible and painful. Nothing goes right. Even the mind becomes deranged and injured by continued poor health. Once liberated from the thralldom of sickness words fail to express the joy and relief. Peruna has been the means of relieving more women from ill health in the United States than, perhaps, any other medicine. A multitude of women stand ready to give testimony in favor of Peruna whenever occasion offers. Dyspepsia Entirely Relieved. Miss Lillie C. Martin, Shelbyville, Tenn., writes: "Everybody says I look better than I have for two or three years, and I sincerely thank you for your kind advice. 'I believe your treatment has entirely cured me. I can eat anything I want. I believe your remedies will cure any case of indigestion or dyspepsia.'"

MISS HELEN SAUERBIER

Head and Throat. Miss Helen Sauerbier, 815 Main St., St. Joseph, Mich., writes: "Last winter I caught a sudden cold which developed into an unpleasant catarrh of the head and throat, depriving me of my appetite and usual good spirits. A friend who had been cured by Peruna advised me to try it and I sent for a bottle at once, and I am glad to say that in three days the phlegm had loosened, and I felt better, my appetite returned and within nine days I was in my usual good health."

Caught Cold Easily. Mrs. F. E. Henderson, 221 Ninth St., Milwaukee, Wis., writes: "I never had any faith in patent medicines until I tried Peruna, but my experience with this reliable medicine has taught me that there is one which can be trusted, and which will not fail in time of need. 'For the past few years I have found that I caught cold easily, which would settle in a most unpleasant catarrh of the head. I had to be especially careful about being out of evenings, and not to get chilled when dressed thin for parties, but since I have used Peruna my general health is improved, and my system is in such good condition that even though I am exposed to inclement weather it no longer affects me. 'I have a splendid appetite and enjoy life, being in perfect health.'"

Pe-ru-na Tablets. For two years Dr. Hartman and his assistants have labored incessantly to create Peruna in tablet form, and their strenuous efforts have just been crowned with success. People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Peruna tablets. These tablets represent the medicinal ingredients of Peruna, and each tablet is equivalent to one average dose. Mrs. Josephine Holst, 162 E. First St., Portland, Ore., writes that she was troubled seriously with catarrh of the throat, that she used Peruna and was wonderfully helped in two weeks, and in a little over two months her system was rid of all traces of catarrh.

PANAMA CANAL TOWN BEING MOVED

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, April 22.—Mail advices from the Panama canal zone say that the old native village of Gatun, which is on the Chagres river opposite the present railroad station at Gatuna, is being moved to a new site about two miles from the present one on the new line of the Panama railroad. This change is necessary because the village is on the site of the Gatun dam. The houses are being taken down by the occupants or owners and placed in cars which the commission furnishes and they will be transported at the expense of the commission to the new location. The people will then have use of the cars for one week in order to give them time to erect their new houses. The village has a population of about 600 and contains about 119 buildings.

TWO GENERAL COURTS MARTIAL

(United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, April 22.—Two general court-martials have been appointed by the war department for the trial of such persons as may be brought before them, one to meet at Fort Missoula, Mont., and the other at Fort Lincoln, N. D. The details consist of 10 officers each. In the orders announcing the details it is stated that a greater number of officers cannot be assembled "without manifest injury to the service." A general court-martial should ordinarily consist of 12 members. The small numbers of officers on these boards is due to the great scarcity of officers in the various regiments at the military posts throughout the country.

BRITISH PREMIER DEAD

(Continued from page one.) His death probably will be followed by a split in the Liberal party such as occurred among the Democrats on the first nomination of William Jennings Bryan for the presidency. The severance of the Liberals into a radical and a conservative wing will mean the return of the conservatives to power. Sir Henry was the only man among the Liberal leaders with the gift of conciliation, and it has been his personality alone that has kept together the divergent elements that compose the Liberal ranks. With his death internal party warfare is certain to break out among the extreme radicals and the rest of the party. The militant radicals number about 100 of the present Liberal majority in the house of commons, which is about 150. At any time the radicals have it in their power to defeat the government by an adverse vote on a party measure and thus precipitate a new general election. Several times during the illness of Sir Henry there have been indications of revolt and the breach that has opened since the first of the year cannot be closed. The radicals declare that the only measures of sufficient importance to require the attention of parliament are those dealing with social reform, and particularly with the elimination of extreme poverty that exists throughout Great Britain. The radical are against the maintenance of a great navy and want the money expended on new battleships to be used for giving every man the right to employment.

Mr. Asquith, the new premier, it is said, is not the type of man to pacify the Liberal revolutionaries. He is a fighter, and a strict disciplinarian, and belongs to the Liberal imperialist group which acknowledged Lord Rosebery as its chief, until the retirement of Rosebery from active politics. Mr. Asquith has no sympathy for the program of the extreme radicals and his temperament is such that he can no more see their side than Grover Cleveland can sympathize with the Bryanites. It is reported that Winston Churchill, under secretary for the colonies, may be persuaded by the radicals to become their leader. Mr. Churchill, who is the most brilliant young member of the house of commons, is radical in his opinions, but he is very ambitious, but he may decline to risk his political future by becoming the leader of a party revolt. Mr. Lloyd George, the president of the board of trade, a close rival of Mr. Churchill, also is mentioned as a possible radical revolutionary leader, but he, too, is likely to decline the proffer of the extremists. No other men of first class political attainments are available as radical leaders, so that it will be without a competent director and will degenerate into guerrilla warfare. This will not work any the less harm to the Liberal party in the house of commons division, but it will decrease the force of opposition at the general election, through political prophets do not believe that the Liberals can secure a return to office, even if the radical element is not able to put up a highly organized battle.

ORA ROBEY'S FUNERAL

Attended by a Large Assembly of Friends and Acquaintances. The funeral services of the late Ora Robey were conducted from the First Christian church of this city at 2 p. m. Tuesday. The sad fate of this beautiful young woman, who was shot by John Grill at Marshfield, April 19, moved the hearts of thousands of our citizens and her popularity was attested by the large number who followed the remains to the cemetery. The heart-broken father and brother were present at the funeral but the mother and two brothers could not attend, remained at Marshfield. Miss Robey was a member of the lodge of Royal Neighbors, No. 1, of America, who conducted the services. Mrs. Jos. Bernardi, an orphan, residing at the lodge services, lodge sent beautiful floral tributes to deck the coffin. All the decorations were in white blossoms. The funeral sermon by Rev. J. H. Reit was a solemn and impressive view of the lessons of life as drawn from the sad tragedy, which the lives of the two unfortunate young people were laid out. A large number went by electric cars to the cemetery, and the grave of flowers that accompanied the remains fairly covered the coffin lined the grave and hid the casket from sight under a mantle of snow.

LOCAL BASEBALL BY JOCK

The Cherry Pickers will have a go with the Woodburn Tri-City league the coming Thursday on the local grounds. Hull and Heyser will be the fort for Salem, but it has not yet been learned who will be the battery for Woodburn. Owing to the fact that the local lads were picked two times straight by the Woodburn aggregation two weeks ago the Cherry Pickers will certainly do things to prevent another picking. There will be no game between the Salem Club and East Portland on Saturday as was announced yesterday, on account of the above game taking place, but on Sunday, East Portland and the local club will play a double-header in Portland. There is nothing stirring in the Pacific Coast league on Monday, as that day is considered the baseball player's Sundry. The local Tri-City players did not even practice Monday.

The Canby City league players were out on the field yesterday afternoon and went through a few hours of good practice. The Salem touch are certainly "comin' out of it" for fair of late. There are only three bachelor young men signed up with the local league this season, and those are Porterfield, third base; Carey, first base, and Dave Edwards, all-around man. The balance of the nine ball players all having a life partner. The South Salem Fairmount club will meet the Brunns' Beavers of Portland on the local Tri-City league grounds next Sunday afternoon. The Brunns' Beavers have a good reputation in Portland, and there will no doubt be a ball scrap worth seeing when the two teams come together, as the Fairmount youngsters have been practicing diligently of late. The pitcher for the local boys will be either Chester Bowen, or Meyers of Corvallis, with Frank Rhodes conducting the backstop position.

P. S. Knight will probably agree to marry that 500 couple free. Only 51 more.
