AMERICAN DAUGHTERS OF THE REVOLUTION

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, April 24.—Delegates to the congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution were the first to greet President Roosevelt at the White House today.
After receiving them the President delivered a brief address in which he complimented them on the historic purpose of their society.
The morning session of the congress alone was discussed.
Tonight the delegates will be the guests of the Sons of the American Revolution at a patriotic celebration at the New York avenue Presbyterian church. At noon tomorrow, the congress will adjourn.

UNIVERSITY WILL HAVE LAW SCHOOL

San Francisco, April 24.—The University of California is to have one of the greatest law schools in America. It will have an endowment of $1,000,000 and a faculty composed of the most brilliant minds obtainable.
Announcement of the plans for such an institution has been made by Professor George H. Boke, head of the department of jurisprudence at the state university. Not only will it be a greater training school for attorneys but it will also serve the purpose of preparing its graduates for leadership in public affairs.
Professor Boke says the state should train its lawyers in state affairs as well as in the legal profession. The full details of the enterprise will be made public tomorrow at a dinner to be attended by the leading attorneys and members of the state supreme bench, the appellate judges and the judges of the federal courts.

BANKER ROSS

stitution, will be the next of the indicted officials to be tried, his case having been set for May 4.
The conviction of Ross was but little surprise to those who have been following the case. The instructions given the jury by Judge Burnett, while unfavorable to the defendant were characterized by their absolute fairness. The jury retired at 3:10 o'clock. Otis Myer was appointed foreman and when the first vote was taken the jury stood 11 for conviction and 1 for acquittal. The juror standing for acquittal, based his position on the ground that the state had been reimbursed by the American Surety company for the $288,000, but when it was pointed out to him that Judge Burnett had that testimony stricken out, the outstanding juror fell into line.

Ross received the verdict of the jury with the same unemotional expression, which he has had during the entire trial. When the verdict was read by the clerk, Ross' attorney, Wallace McCamant moved the court for a 30 days stay of execution and for 30 days in which to file a bill of exceptions, preliminary to an appeal to the supreme court. The court took his motion under advisement, but the request will very likely be granted. District Attorney Manning, after the verdict was announced, stated to the court that the risk of the prisoner making good an escape was greater than ever before, and he moved that the $5000 bail on the count for which Ross was convicted be increased. Judge Burnett denied the motion, pointing out that the defendant was already under $20,000 bonds.—$5000 on each of the four counts.

A recess was taken by the court after the above matters had been disposed of to await the arrival of Harrison Allen of Portland, attorney for T. T. Burkhardt, vice president of the bank, who was slated for the next of the indicted to be tried. After the arrival of Allen, the case was set for May 3th with the understanding that the attorneys for the defense would argue a continuance this morning, but an agreement was reached that District Attorney Manning and Harrison Allen would decide upon a date and then inform Judge Burnett of the decision.

Portland, Or., April 24.—J. Thorburn Ross, the convicted president of the defunct Title Guarantee & Trust company, who was found guilty late yesterday at Salem, of having misappropriated state school funds, entrusted to his bank, will probably attack the legality of the trial in his appeal on the ground that Judge Burnett erred in deciding on so many points of fact and law and not leaving them to the jury.

According to the verdict of the jury of the Oregon law Ross could be sentenced to 396 years imprisonment.

TWO MUCH LOVE TO SEPARATE

New York, Apr. 24.—Mrs. Edward Kelly, mother of Mrs. Frank J.
Gould, said today that young Gould, who went to Hot Springs, Ark., soon after he left his wife and was served with papers in a legal separation, will return to New York Monday next and have a meeting with Mrs.
Gould.
"The meeting between my daughter and her husband will soon after his arrival," said Mrs. Kelly.
"I have had a telegram from Mr.
Gould, and I have no doubt the troubles of the young people are at an end or almost so. They are too much in love to be separated long, and after this experience I hope they will be wise enough not to get into another squabble."

THEODORA SHONTS

was sent to a Wall street brokerage firm. No further particulars are given. The cause of the death is not known on this side, but cablegrams simply saying: "De Chaulnes died suddenly last night."

Theodore Shonts immediately wired his daughter that he and his wife would leave at once for Paris.
The Duke de Chaulnes came from one of the most aristocratic families in France. He won his bride after a most insistent courtship, her father having refused him on his first visit.
The young people met in Paris and it was a case of love at first sight.
When Mrs. Shonts had satisfied herself that the duke was acceptable as a man, she advised him to come to New York and win her husband's consent, advising fully of Shonts' antipathy to foreign sons-in-law.
The duke crossed the ocean, but Shonts declined to give him an audience. Three weeks later the duke returned to Paris. The following year Mrs. Shonts and her daughter visited Europe again. In Paris they were the guests of the Duchess D'Uzes, the duke's sister and a leader in Parisian society. The courtship was renewed, the duke being most devoted, but Miss Shonts refused to wed him, without her father's consent. The duke declared that his dignity would not permit him to make another effort to win the father's consent, whereupon Mrs.
Shonts declared if he placed his dignity before his love it would be that the engagement be declared off.
The duke capitulated and followed Mrs. Shonts and her daughter to America. A meeting with the father was finally arranged by Mrs.

Shonts, the occasion being a dinner party at the Shonts home. Miss Shonts, who had been ill three weeks over her father's refusal to meet her lover, met a sick bed to attend the dinner. Shonts was much taken, against his will, with the duke and finally relented. On February 1 the marriage took place.

The duke, who was a physician of no mean ability, was 28 years old.
His full name was Emmanuel Theodore Bernard Marie D'Albert de Laynes D'Ally, Ninth Duke de Chaulnes and de Piquiny and Marquis D'Angear.

Duke Died in Bed Beside His Wife.
The duke was found dead in bed beside his wife in their apartments in the Langham hotel. Heart disease was the evident cause of death.
The hour of the duke's demise is uncertain.

The duchess awoke at the usual hour this morning, and seeing the duke apparently sound asleep, made no effort to awaken him. After donning her dressing gown she walked to his side of the bed and peered into his face. The strange expression her husband wore frightened her and grasping him lightly by the shoulder she shook him, but there was no response. Then feeling that something terrible had happened, she began to scream and hotel attendants rushed into the room. One of the physicians called, sufficed.
The duke was dead and had been dead for some time.

The duchess is completely overcome by the sudden taking away of her husband of two months and refuses to be consoled.

Senator Cogswell Drops Dead.

Portland, Or., April 24.—Charles A. Cogswell, one of the most prominent financiers of Oregon, president of the Warner Valley Livestock company and a director in the Oregon Life Insurance company, dropped dead this morning on an incoming interurban car. He was 44 years of age and came to Oregon from Iowa in 1869. He served two terms in the Oregon senate and one term as judge in Lake county. At the present time he was a member of the executive board of the city of Portland.

PRINCE DE SAGAN

MEETS ANNA GOULD

Naples, April 24.—Mme. Anna Goeld arrived here today and was met at the gang plank of the steamer by Prince Hele de Sagan, whom she is going to marry.
The prince embraced her affectionately and kissed her. He then escorted her to a waiting automobile, which carried the couple to the hotel where apartments had been engaged for her. It is believed here that arrangements are being made for an early wedding.

GOING AFTER BIG GAME

Washington, April 24.—President Roosevelt has made up his mind to have a big game hunt in South Africa next year, unless unforeseen circumstances prevent. He has talked enthusiastically on the subject with his visitors recently. His plan is to sail for an English port, but to make his stay in England brief and informal.

Mr. Roosevelt may make a world tour, visiting the capitals of Europe to study foreign governments at close range. He may also, it is reported, visit Australia and New Zealand.
But his one definite plan is a South African big game shooting, and it will take a radical reason to keep him away from that.

Col. John Henry Cradlebaugh, well known as the horse editor of The Capital Journal, has returned from Rawhide, Nev., and has headquarters for a few days at Liston's insurance office on State street. The color has all the appearance of having made a bonanza strike in that fabled mining camp and his friends are congratulating him.

President Roosevelt today nominated W. H. Lettner to be postmaster of Huntington, Or.

RACSO "London Shrunk" Coat Collars Don't Wrinkle

Ever wear a coat with a wrinkled collar? One that just WOULDNT stay down? Makes you look in the glass to see if it's really as bad in looks as it feels.

Small thing, you say--a wrinkled collar--spoils the whole appearance of an otherwise good looking coat though.

You KNOW that.
And you SHOULD KNOW, too, that there is an easy way to avoid the wrinkled collars, broken shoulders, curled lapels and puckered seams which the ordinary shrinkage develops the first wet day. The WAY is

RACSO "London Shrunk" Garments

There's no need for your new suit looking second hand after a few days' wear. Just get Racso "London Shrunk" garments and you have the perfect assurance that they will CONTINUE as elegant in appearance, as perfect in fit as when tried on, until the suit is entirely worn out.

Because every yard of pure wool fabric which goes into a Racso garment is especially "London Shrunk" in the piece before cutting or making.

So that when the suit is offered to you ALL THE SHRINKAGE is taken out, which means that the exclusive appearance of RAC-
SO garments is FIXED and PER-MANENT.

Every man and young man with a PROPER PRIDE in his appearance should wear Racso
"London Shrunk"
clothing. Priced $20 to $40 the suit.
