LOCAL BASEBALL
BY JOCK

The Cherry Pickers will again stand before Harry Gardner, pitcher for the East Portland, tomorrow afternoon on the Vaughn street grounds in Portland, and unless that gentleman handles himself a good deal faster than he did on the local grounds, he will surely receive another bumping.

Mr. Steve Sainpolis, who is to do the decision act for the Portland-Salem game Sunday, is said to be quite familiar with baseball. Every little bit helps the local players in this line when they go abroad, as the last two games played out of town were somewhat appealing to one approving of a square deal.

It appears as though Old Sol has a grudge against the Salem club from the manner in which he hides himself on every playing date of late.

The hope of every supporter of the local Tri-City nine, is that they will shut 'em out both games tomorrow afternoon.

"Dinny" Hull, Salem's little twirler, may not cut much figure as to weight, but he can throw the horsehide in all kinds of concaved forms. Hull can also flirt the stick at a good whistling speed too.

Wonder what ranch those East Portlanders rusteled that "Triple T" brand from? They certainly branded their colts young.

The battery for the South Salem Fairmount club next Sunday in their game with the Brunn's Beavers of Portland, will be Chester Bowen and Frank Rhodes, both of Salem. Outfield, Arnold, Humphrey and West; infield, Holman, Miller, Carey, Reavux. The line-up of the Brunn's Beavers could not be ascertained.

This Is An Age of Chovalry.

When we speak of the age of chivalry we are apt to imagine the existence at an earlier period of a finer sense of honor, of loftier ideals, of sublimer courage and of more devoted unselfishness than are found in the practical workaday world of today. As a matter of fact, "very gentil parfit knights," such as Chaucer describes, who rode about with a squire rescuing distressed damsels and redressing wrongs generally, were very few. The age was comparatively a harsh and cruel one. Oppression and violence prevailed, and human rights and justice were little regarded. Poverty was more general, and the condition of the poor more abject than anything we know, and the richest enjoyed little of the comfort which is today well nigh universal. People were supposed to bear the ills to which they were born, and all the efforts of a dozen knights in mail with plumed helmets did not go as far toward alleviating misery in a month as do the ministrations of a single visiting nurse now.

We live in an age of chivalry vastly expanded. Where there was on worker for others in the knights' days there are a hundred now, and chivalry permeates the spirit of all the good causes which enlist so many willing hands. Between the tenth and fourteenth centuries it was but in the bud; now it is in flower, and later on the full harvest of fruitage will come. There never was a time when there was such universal war against oppression of the weak and helpless, when every form of cruelty was so indignantly frowned upon, when womanhood and childhood were more sturdily championed and protected, when the poor and sick were so tenderly regarded and cared for, or when the lower animals were made the objects of such solicitude and shelter from harm and suffering. There never was a time when, at peace as we are with the world, there were more constant exhibitions of quiet, modest courage and splendid heroism than are constantly occurring in the records of our daily lives. In all sorts of accidents—by fire and flood, by the forces of nature, by travel and by the operation of great industries—there is always some one ready, generally some unknown, unheralded person, to risk his life in order to save others. If that isn't chivalry there never was such a thing. We do not yet by any means possess all the virtues, but courage and unselfish devotion in times of stress are very good to build upon.—Washington Post.

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heart-burn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants, viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandrake root.

The following leading medical authorities, among a host of others, extol the foregoing roots for the cure of just such ailments as the above symptoms indicate: Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Med. College, Phila.; Prof. H. C. Wood, M. D., of Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., Author of American Dispensatory; Prof. Jno. M. Scudder, M. D., Author of Specific Medicines; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Med. Dept. Univ. of N. Y.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., Author of Materia Medica and Prof. in Bennett Medical College, Chicago. Send name and address on Postal Card to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive free booklet giving extracts from writings of all the above medical authors and many others endorsing, in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient of which "Golden Medical Discovery" is composed.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They may be used in conjunction with "Golden Medical Discovery" if bowels are much constipated. They're tiny and sugar-coated.

FRANTIC WOMEN

Organic disturbances of the feminine system act like a firebrand on the nerves of women, often driving them fairly frantic.

A nervous, irritable woman is a source of misery not only to herself, but to all those who come under her influence. That such conditions can be entirely overcome by taking is proven by the following letters.

Mrs. Mary Wood, of Christiana, Tenn., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I had the worst form of female troubles and my nerves were all torn to pieces; sometimes I suffered so much that it seemed as though I could not live.

"I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I feel like a different person. Your medicine is worth its weight in gold, and I cannot say enough for your advice."

Mrs. Wallace Wilson, Thompsonville, Conn., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was all run down, nervous, and could not rest nights. Doctors failed to help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to perfect health."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

EFFORT TO SAVE OLD McLOUGHLIN HOME

Mayor Caril's determination to save the old McLoughlin home merits hearty commendation, says the Oregon City Courier. Sentiment is a nation builder. It is the soul of patriotism and the spirit of progress. A nation without it is a nation that has passed the zenith of its glory and that journey toward the setting of the sun.

The value of the property measured in gold is not great. But there is something else on earth, though we are prone to forget it at times, besides bank notes and bonds. The old McLoughlin home with all its associations, and the memories it recalls is a precious keep-sake. There are those among us who can remember it as a palace in a wilderness. It would pain these to see the old land mark go. Coming generations will cherish the historical structure and to them its silent walls will unfold chapters of romance and adventure.

The tomb of Shakespeare was once the unmarked grave of a forgotten bard. What but sentiment inspires the throngs to journey there now. As to the destiny of Oregon; her progress; her coming glory, her future grandeur; who will venture to prophesy. And in that day who may say in what esteem another generation may hold the neglected old home of the Father of Oregon. Preserve it? To be sure we will! Lest those who come after us look back upon us with scorn and censure. Indeed we will not sit by and witness the obliteration of the old land mark. We will go about it to save the historical building. Dr. Carll will take the lead and we will all follow.

CRESSWELL CAMP OF WOODMEN ORGANIZE

District Deputy Pixley of the Modern Woodmen organized a camp at Cresswell, Lane county, with 19 new members and 10 transfers. A crowd of about 50 came down from Cottage Grove to take part in the work. A midnight supper was served at the Cresswell hotel and was enjoyed by all. The officers of the new lodge are: Consul, A. R. Land; adviser, David Morton; banker, E. J. Moore; escort, W. H. Holterman; sentry, Bryce Posey; watchman, Troy Morton; physician, Dr. J. D. George; managers, F. E. Morton one year; John Beak, two years; G. E. Everson, three years.

The Cottage Grove Foresters did excellent team work during the initiation and Deputy Pixley thoroughly understands the work.

The Secret of a Beautiful Face lies in keeping the skin protected as well as cleansed. Just washing is not enough—that only leaves the delicate surface more exposed to the irritation of dust and germs; to merciless attacks of sun and weather. After washing, apply Robertine and experience its delightful refreshment. You will admire the line-less softness it imparts to face, neck and arms. It not only stimulates a radiant glow, but protects the skin from becoming coarse. Prevents burning, tan and freckles.
