City News

Weather—
 Showers and cooler tonight and Friday.

Six Skeins Silk Free—
 With purchase of pillow tops this week only. The Needlecraft Shop, 270 N. Commercial street, 2t.

High School to Play Eugene—
 The Salem high school baseball team left this morning for Eugene where they will play Eugene high school. The game with the University of Oregon has been called off, but they will go to Corvallis Saturday and play O. A. C.

Prisoners Increase—
 The state penitentiary has more prisoners at this time than at any time during the five-year term of Superintendent James. At present there are on the average of 422 confined within the walls as against an average of an even 400 less than six months ago, and there seems to be a tendency to increase rather than decrease. The hard times resulting from the panic are believed to be the cause to a large extent.

Special Sale—
 Stamped underwear this week. The Needlecraft Shop, 270 N. Commercial street, 4-29-2t.

Homeopathist—
 Dr. L. G. Altman, Office and residence 296 Liberty street, Salem, 3-4-eod.

Candidates Unaffected—
 The secretary of state's office has finished the official canvass of all state nominees voted on at the recent elections with the result that all candidates named at the time remained unchanged.

Racers Arriving—
 Horses are arriving rapidly at the Fair Grounds for the races during fair week. Already there are over 100 installed and the trying out and training is being rapidly proceeded with.

Have You Heard—
 About the May Morning Breakfast to be given on the Willamette Campus? It is an annual affair, they say. Wouldn't miss it for anything. Friday morning, 6:30 to 9. It will suit your purse and appetite.

Wants Reimbursement—
 F. A. Kenward, of Redmond, has written a letter to the Railroad Commission asking their assistance in recovering for two shipments of household goods, which were practically demolished in transit from St. Paul, Minnesota, to Shaniko, this state. Kenward states he wrote the Oregon Railroad & Navigation company, enclosing his way-bill and documents, but that they failed to return them to him, and that now he has nothing to show for the household goods.

Start the Month—
 Of May right by buying your Kid day's fish of Farrington & Van Patton, the grocers and marketmen.

They Have the Planet Jr.—
 The Salem branch of Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co., has all of the Planet Jr., garden tools. Always had them. Complete stock.

Business Doubled—
 In speaking to Mr. Cary, representative of the Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co. in Salem he said, that the sales for April, 1908, were double those of April, 1907. During the past week he has sold a 9 horsepower gasoline engine to be used on the gravel scow of Cummings Bros., valued at $450; one automobile wood saw, price $500; one hay baler, price $450; and two special mountain rigs, price $200. This is in addition to the regular business of the firm.

No Overcharge—
 Replying to the complaint of the Eugene Mill & Elevator company that rates from Eugene to Yoncola and from Eugene to Roseburg are unreasonable the Oregon Railroad & Navigation company have shown in a letter that the rates are the same as those approved by the commission.

Acceptances—
 The following have filed their acceptance of nomination with the secretary of state: Governor Chamberlain for senator on Democratic ticket; Judge Rob't S. Bean both Republican and Democratic for justice supreme court; John A. Jeffrey, congressman for second district on Democratic ticket.

Surveying Roads—
 Surveyors have been sent by the county court to make additional surveys along the Jefferson and Fruitland roads for the purpose of extending the two thoroughfares. The work will begin shortly.

Bad Paving—
 The paving on State street just in front of the lot on which the new Breyman block is being built, broke this morning making a hole about four feet square. The cause of the cave-in is believed to have been caused by paving over a hole without properly filling the same in.

Benson to Return—
 Secretary of State Benson, who has been in San Francisco for the past few weeks on an extended pleasure trip, will return to his work in the capitol building tomorrow morning.

Steel Ill—
 State Treasurer Steel is sick at his home in Portland, where he has been confined for several days. Mr. Steel has not been at his office since the day of the Ross trial, when he was put through such a grilling examination by District Attorney Manning of Portland. Subsequent developments, including threats of indictment for aiding in the conversion of the state school funds, have probably been responsible for the protraction of his break-down. The office is running smoothly under the guidance of Wm. T. Perkins, head assistant treasurer.

Claim Rate Just—
 The railroad commission is in receipt of a communication from the Oregon & Southeastern Railroad company, answering the complaint of the Cerro Gordo Lumber company, in which it was claimed they had to pay $31.66 for taking a car of lumber seven miles into Cottage Grove. The railroad company states that this rate is cheaper than the one charged by the Southern Pacific company. However, they have arranged for a conference, with the lumber company.

Elks, Attention!
 Initiation tonight. Banquet.

Pendleton Loses—
 The Oregon Railway & Navigation company have written the railroad commission explaining they are unable to comply with the request of the Pendleton citizens' request to grant week end excursion for a one and one-third one way ride, as they would be compelled to utilize the night trains on Sunday, but that if Monday return trains would be of any assistance they would see what could be done.

The Annual—
 May morning breakfast is to be given as usual by the Willamette girls, under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. As has been the custom for several years, they will serve it on the university campus, from 6:30 to 9.

Elks, Attention!
 Initiation tonight. Banquet.

Rails Have Arrived—
 The first carload of rails have arrived to relay the streetcar track on State street. They are 60 feet long and weigh about 75 pounds to the yard.

Home Seekers Welcome—
 L. Wallert and wife, L. Hentchel and wife and G. Korneman of New York city, arrived in Salem yesterday with bag and baggage. They are tired of the strenuous city life and propose to settle in this milder climate and engage in fruit and poultry raising. W. H. Norris and wife of Wichita are also here for the same purpose. Mr. Norris is an old railroad man and is anxious to get away from office work and into the fruit fields.

SHOES FOR TENDER FEET

While we carry all the latest and swiftest shapes in footwear, we have not overlooked the shoe needs of the man or woman who want plain, solid comfort. We have a big trade in good, sensible soles—every line and every curve speaks for comfort. And style isn't sacrificed either, for they are shapely and graceful in outline. The soles are made of best oak-tanned leather, and every pair is hand-sewed throughout.

We invite your attention to a special line of these Comfort Shoes, Dr. Reed's Cushion Soles. Wear one pair of these shoes, and if you appreciate real comfort, we are sure you will be back for another pair when they are gone. We have also the celebrated Walk-over Shoes in blucher, vals, Oxfords, in kid, tan and patent, all styles, all prices, all sizes. A so C. P. Ford's Ladies' Shoes in all styles.
