

SLEEP OF EIGHTY-FIVE DAYS IS BROKEN

Remarkable Restoration of Woman After Prolonged Cataleptic Slumber

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Los Angeles, Cal., May 2.—After sleeping 85 days, without a glimmering of consciousness in all the time, Mrs. Beulah Hawkins, whose remarkable case has excited wide interest among physicians, awakened at 12:30 o'clock this morning at the county hospital. Her first request was for a drink of water. Then she chatted breezily with Dr. Barber, hospital superintendent, and the nurses. She was particularly happy that her long sleep was ended, though she had no idea how long she had slept nor could she remember any of the events of the last two months and a half. Late in the evening, Dr. Barber had taken the sleeping patient into the clinic room for observation by members of the Los Angeles County Medical society. She was returned to her room, and half an hour after midnight the nurses were attracted by a rapping on the door. Entering the room, they found Mrs. Hawkins wide awake and perfectly rational. She is in excellent health, and is able to stand, though she is quite weak. In the first stages of her strange affliction, which Dr. Barber terms a negative phase of insanity, it was necessary to force food down her throat through a tube. Later she took nourishment quite naturally, though not conscious of the act. The woman will remain at the hospital for some time to come.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

No other medicine for Woman's ills in the world has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs.

No other medicine has such a record of success for woman's diseases, or such hosts of grateful friends as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been the standard remedy for feminine ills, Inflammation, Ulceration, and consequent Spinal Weakness.

It has relieved more cases of Backache and Local Weaknesses than any other one remedy. It dissolves and expels tumors in an early stage of development.

Irregularities and periodic pains, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility, quickly yield to it; also deranged organs, causing pain, dragging sensations and backache. Under all circumstances it acts in harmony with the female system.

It removes that wearing feeling, extreme lassitude, "don't care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, dizziness, faintness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy or the "blues." These are indications of Feminine disorders, which this medicine overcomes as well as slight derangement of the Kidneys of either sex.

Women who are sick and want to get well should refuse to accept any substitute for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

GENERAL FORD GETS ANOTHER ACQUITTAL BY JURY

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, May 2.—Tirey L. Ford, chief counsel for the United Railroads and former attorney general of California, was today acquitted of the charge of having bribed former Supervisor Jennings Phillips, a member of the board, to vote in favor of granting an overhead trolley franchise to the United Railroads. It took the jury just 12 minutes to arrive at a verdict, the vote for acquittal being unanimous on the first ballot.

GREATEST RELIGIOUS DEMONSTRATION OF THIS CENTURY

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, May 2.—A great parade of 50,000 priests, laymen and others representing every parish in Greater New York today marked the close of a week's celebration of the beginning of the second century of the diocese of New York, which was created in 1808 by Pope Pius VII. The demonstration was the greatest and most impressive of its kind ever participated in by any church in the country. As the long line moved up Fifth avenue it passed between thousands of people who formed solid walls of humanity on either side of the wide thoroughfare. From the big reviewing stand 8000 persons witnessed the parade in which there were 50 bands.

MADAM GOULD HAS HONEYMOON PLANS

Naples, May 2.—Prince Helle de Sagan's disregard of summonses to return to Paris as a witness in the case growing out of the charges that Count Bonie de Castellane used forged letters against the former at Rom's trial for his recent street fight with Helle is beginning to anger the French authorities. To several peremptory notifications that his testimony is needed the prince has turned an absolutely deaf ear. While he remains outside French territory the case is not one which enables the offended French judiciary to get him forcibly. On his return to France, however, there is a possibility of trouble in store for his contemptuous treatment of the court. Helle and Mme. Gould are understood to plan a motor trip together and the popular guess is that the plan is to make a wedding the feature of the journey. Just now they are delayed, however, much to their annoyance, by the customs officials' refusal to surrender the automobiles Mme. Gould brought with her, without a series of formalities, the completion of which will take many days. Both Helle and Mme. Gould are becoming thoroughly exasperated by the attentions of the press correspondents who watch them constantly and several unpleasant scenes have resulted from their angry replies to their newspaper questioners.

RICHARD CROKER SAYS ALL LIFE'S A GAMBLE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Dublin, May 2.—Richard Croker, former Tammany chief, talked politics and prize fighting, ending with a thrust at Governor Hughes' anti-gambling activity, in the space of one short interview here today. What he said about Hughes, comprises in fact, the whole of his political comment. He prefaced it by a refusal to discuss presidential possibilities, then volunteered the remark that he considered New York's Hughes' endorsement as a mere compliment, and added: "His action on race betting should injure politically. Is not all life a gamble? Is not the Hughes' politics a gamble? Yet, they select the pleasant part of the gamble and propose to penalize it. America needs a quiet President—a long rest under such a statesman as McKinley." Then he denied that he and Jim Roche, who failed so distantly in the fight for which Croker had backed him, with Burns, had had an "encounter" after this mill. "I was interested in the fight," said Croker, "but I never met Roche in my life and he never saw me, unless it was from the ring."

INDIAN VERSUS WHITE MAN

The Salem to Portland relay race between the Y. M. C. A. of Portland and the Chemawa Indian school began exactly at 9 o'clock this morning from the west side steps of the capitol building. Haigst represented the Indian school in the first lap, while Cartozian ran for the Y. M. C. A. Governor Chamberlain gave both young men letters of good-will to Mayor Lane of Portland and encouraged both with kind words and God-speed. The Indian took the lead from the very start and maintained it throughout his run, arriving at the end of his lap 3 1/2 minutes in the lead. The Indian was reported 25 minutes ahead at Oregon City.

cured any booty is not known here, as details of the holdup are being received in meager messages. Physicians and wrecking crews have been sent to the scene to care for the three men injured in the explosion and clear the track. The train was being pulled by two engines, when suddenly a terrific shock threw passengers from their berths shortly before midnight, hurled the two engines from the track and demolished three cars.

The passengers rushed from the train to learn the cause of the trouble. A great pile of wreckage greeted them. Thomas and George Ebele, engineer and fireman of the second engine, were found by the side of the track badly injured. A search for Engineer Bussy, of the first engine, was quickly made, but he could not be found. It is thought that he is buried under his engine.

In the midst of the wreckage of the coaches came loud cries for help. Carl Munge, who was riding on the blind baggage, had been buried under the demolished cars and could not move. The passengers pitched in and rescued him within a few minutes. Both of his arms and legs were broken and his condition is serious. His escape from death was remarkable.

Butte, Mont., May 2.—Detective McFetridge of the Northern Pacific has reported that he believes the dynamite which wrecked the Burlington flyer last night was intended for the North Coast Limited, which was due to pass over the same tracks a half hour later. The North Coast Limited usually carried any treasure that was being shipped to the coast and this fact was generally known.

A brakeman on the wrecked train declares he observed a man sprinting away into the night as he rushed from his car after the explosion. Additional news just received here from the scenes says that Engineer Bussy, buried under the debris, was killed, and give a more detailed account of what happened. Bussy's cries for help were heart-rendering. They grew weaker and weaker, and when they were finally hushed those who stood around the wreckage knew that he had drawn his last breath. Heroic efforts were made to rescue him but they were in vain. The flyer was on Northern Pacific tracks when it was blown up.

The dynamite that had been placed on the track exploded under the second engine, completely wrecking it. The three cars blown from the track carried fish, mail and baggage. Only the Pullman cars remained on the rails. The first engine plowed through earth a distance of 300 feet, but did not topple over. It was lifted completely off the track.

It is the theory of the police that the dynamite was evidently placed alongside the track and set off by a time fuse. Whether it was the work of robbers or some hobo seeking revenge for being put off of one of the trains of the company is still a mystery.
