FARM WAGES SAID TO HAVE DROPPED

(Morning Democrat.)

Harvest wages in Oregon will be reduced fully forty per cent this year says a Portland paper.

"The whole country is full of idle men, and Oregon has her share, and when harvest time comes around in 1908 you will see men willing to work for $1.50 a day, where they refused $2.50 in 1907. The shutting down of the logging camps and railroad construction last fall was a bad blow on the laboring classes in the Northwest, and although times are slowly getting better, there are still plenty of idle men in the country.

"Last year men could get work any where and they would not stay more than a few days on one job, because work was so easy to get at the next camp or farm. Young men who had been raised in the country had gone away from their homes in large numbers as the result of the large wages offered at the big camps. These young men are all at home this year and they will be ready to do the harvesting when the crops are ripe without the assistance of transient men. This condition will reduce the wages offered, and the farmers will have it all their own way this season.

"There are quite a number of idle laborers in Portland now, but they refuse what work offers. There is but little to do but to clear land or work on a farm and this work does not suit them. They hang around the free lunch counters, bewailing the hard times and hoping for the return of the prosperity of three years ago which I fear is somewhat remote.

"At the same time good men can get all the work they want and at living wages. They can get $40 an acre for grubbing and if they have a mind to work steady they can clear $15 to $20 an acre."

PROTEST AGAINST RAILWAY

The meeting of the city council last night was largely attended both by the councilmen and by spectators, most of whom were signers of the various petitions which were at the meeting.

The feature of the evening was a petition signed by about 50 prominent citizens, asking the council not to grant a franchise to any railroad company which would allow the placing of switches, turn-tables or Ya on any public street. The petition referred to the ordinance, which if passed, will permit the Oregon Electric Railway Co. to place these switches on certain portions of Liberty, High and Mill streets. After considerable discussion the matter was finally placed in the hands of the committee on ordinances.

The report of the committee on street improvements, advising that the Oregon Electric Railway company be granted no more franchises in Highland until it placed suitable cross walks over its tracks in that addition was adopted.

Councilman Stolz reported that the bids for the improvement of Hood and Broadway streets had been rejected because the figures were too high.

The committee on health and police recommended that the wooden shacks on State street, which were once occupied by the Chinese, together with those back of the United States National bank, and the one on the northeast corner of Commercial and Ferry streets be torn down. It was stated that practically all of the owners of these eyesores had expressed their willingness to demolish the structures, and the matter was referred to the city attorney, who will devise a means of remedying the evil and report at the next meeting of the council.

The bill for an ordinance providing for the hygienic handling of meat and vegetables by dealers and deliverymen was referred to the committee on ordinances.

Among other business taken up at last night's meeting was a resolution favoring the improvement of North Commercial, Market, and Sixth streets, and a protest by the residents of North Salem, asking that no more franchises be granted to the Oregon Electric company in North Salem until the company furnished better accommodations to the residents of that district. The first resolution was passed, and the second will be taken under advisement by the city attorney.

LIBERTY DESIRED

LEGISLATION LEAGUE

Editor Journal—The Liberty Direct Legislation league had an unusually good program Saturday night. Colonel Hofer was the first speaker of the evening and began by complimenting the ladies, at which he is adept. He lauded the womanhood of Oregon, paying the highest tribute of respect and honor to our mothers and daughters, of which they are so justly worthy.

His remarks were appreciated by the audience.

How different with some men, who seem to think women are only beasts of burden to slave and toil for dollars, and when sick or unable to work to be cast aside as something unworthy of consideration.

Mr. Hofer discussed the single tax law and made some strong points against the measure.

He was followed by John P. Robertson, who discussed both sides of the measure. Mr. McMahon and Mr. Frazier also addressed the meeting. There was also a short literary program.

These meetings are held every Saturday night and everybody is invited to attend.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
