GLOVE WEEK--DON'T MISS IT

ROOSEVELT SPEAKS AT METHODIST CONFERENCE

Methodists' Share.

It is a pleasure to be with you to-day to bid you welcome on behalf of the nation, here in the capital of the nation. Important though the Methodist church is in many ways, there is none in which it has had so great and peculiar a part as in the United States. Its history is indissolubly interwoven with the history of our country for six score years since the constitution convention made us really a nation. Methodism in America ended its period of rapid growth about the time of Washington's Presidency. Its essential energy, its fiery and restless energy of spirit, and the wide play that gave to individual initiative, all tended to make it peculiarly congenial to a hardy and virile folk, operative to the core, prizing individual independence above all earthly possessions, and engaged in the stern and stern work of conquering the continent. Methodism spread among the old communities of the long-settled districts of the Atlantic water; but its phenomenal growth was from these regions outward. The whole country is under a debt of gratitude to the Methodist pioneer preachers, whose westward kept pace with the movement of the frontier, who shared all the hardships in the life of the frontiersman, while at the same time ministering to that frontiersman's spiritual needs, and seeing that his prevailing material cares and the hard and grinding poverty of his life did not wholly extinguish the divine fire within his soul. Such was your work in the past; and your work in the present is as great; for the need and opportunity for service widens as the field of national interest widens. It is not true in this country that the poor have grown poorer; but it is true that in many sections, and particularly in our large cities, the rich have grown so very much richer as to widen the gulf between the man of very large means and the man who makes each day's livelihood by that day's work; and those who with sincerity, and efficiency, and deep conviction, band together for mutual help, are those who can do most to keep the gulf from becoming too wide. True religion, through church organizations, through philanthropic organizations, in all the field of kindred endeavor, can manifest itself as effectively in the crowded and complex life of today as in the pioneer yesterdays; and the souls of men need the light now, and strive blindly toward it in the vanished past. It is your task to do the work of the Lord on the farm and in the mine, in the counting-room and the factory, in the car shops and besides the blasting furnaces, just as it was the task of your spiritual forebears to wrestle for the souls of the men and women who dwelt on the stump-spotted clearings in the wilderness.

United States Improves.
No nation in the world has more right than ours to look with proud confidence toward the future. Nowhere else has the experiment of democratic government, of government by the people and for the people, of government based on the principle of treating each man on his innate worth as a man, been tried on so vast a scale as with us; and on the whole the experiment has been more successful than anywhere else. Moreover, on the whole I think it can be said that WE HAVE GROWN BETTER AND NOT WORSE; for if there is much evil, good also greatly abounds, and if wrong grows, so in even greater measure grows the stern sense of right before which wrong must eventually yield.

Washington, May 16.—More than 1000 delegates and visitors who attended the recent Methodist conference in Baltimore will be entertained here today as the guests of the American university.

Sacramento gave the mosquito fleet of the big squadron a royal welcome yesterday. Incidentally the Sacramento river, up which the ships passed is not as navigable as the Columbia.

Transport Clerk Missed.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Seattle, Wash., May 16.—Mystery surrounds the whereabouts of William H. Smith, quartermaster's clerk of the United States transport Dix, who has not been seen since last Monday evening. With nothing but his cap and uniform he left the vessel some time between midnight and 6 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Severe Pains

When a prominent nerve is affected, the pain is severe. It is called neuralgia. It may be in either the head or body. Relief comes only when this nerve trouble is overcome. By its soothing and strengthening influence upon the nervous system Dr. Miles' Nervine removes the cause.

"It was about two years ago that I was taken down with what the doctors claimed was neuralgia, and some called it lightning rheumatism. Sharp pains would go from one place to another, mostly in my head, and they would last two or three days before I could get relief. During those spells I would be so nervous that I hardly knew what I was doing. The pains were so severe and exhausting that my husband would have to steady me when walking across the room. I would have fever, and my heart would palpitate, and in a day or two I would feel better. Just as soon as I would expose myself the very least I was sure to have a spell of neuralgia. I have taken lots of doctor's medicine, but I might just as well take water. My aunt kept writing me to just try Dr. Miles' Nervine, and I am thankful that I was persuaded to do so, for the Nervine has cured me—has driven it out of my system."

-SMILES-

This office has some souvenirs on its desk of political fidelity and gratitude for favors received and work done for the Republican party in the past. There is an itemized bill of $106.89 for campaign of 1896, Geo. W. Davis was county chairman, Geo. G. Bingham, city chairman, and E. P. McCormack, state chairman. There is an unpaid bill against the Bryan club of $5.50. The Young Men's Republican club of 1903 has an unpaid balance of $9.00. The Republican city central committee of 1904 has an unpaid balance of $68.00. The People's party central committee has a little love token of unrequited affection of $12.50. These sweet billet-doux remind the publisher of a newspaper that while others hold the office he holds the sack too often. But in our present happy frame of mind, wearing the Taft smile that does not come off, we can forgive them all and say come on boys, this is a free country, and if you want to do politics and haven't any money, this paper will not kick you out.

The Capital Journal must request all church notices to be in this office Friday evening. Some notices mailed do not reach this office until Saturday morning which is too late for free insertion.

The Salem saloon license is a kind of an openwork affair. The city fathers want to have a look in for everybody—a kind of peekaboo ordinance.

A Salem merchant yesterday voluntarily sent in to the board of trade a $100 subscription to the Salem and Stayton electric. A Stayton real estate man came in and proudly admitted his name had gone down for $1000. Keep the ball rolling.

Stayton boosters will have an all-day railroad booster picnic Tuesday, May 26. They have hired a band, there will be delegations from all the valley towns, and from the Waldo hills urging the pressing needs of getting onto the wire—the live wire—getting out of the ruts of foolish conservatism, where the valley has stuck for 40 years.

Harold Hardy, a 14-year-old Oakland school boy, committed suicide yesterday by drinking carbolic acid, because his parents quarreled.

LAUNDRY

Why is our work demanded by stylish and up-to-date dressers as well as those who dress for comfort. Because in finishing up our work we give that touch of good taste that very readily appeals to the man of fashion. Our work has a mysterious something about it that easily distinguishes it from ordinary laundry work. Those who demand comfort, find our work is pliable, due to our own particular way of starching. A shirt or collar laundered by us gives with every movement of the body, giving absolute comfort to the wearer. Our collars do not break at seam or buttonhole, and you will find no blisters or wrinkles. You might just as well have this work; its costs no more.
