Talk with your doctor about Ayer's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla. Ask him if he prescribes it for pale, delicate children. Ask him if he recommends it when the blood is thin and impure, and when the nerves are weak and unsteady. Ask him if it aids nature in building up the general health. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

CRIMINAL TRIAL

Lawyer Wins Out After a Full Month Before a

Carson, the well known Salem lawyer, has returned after eight-week attendance upon the States district court of Oregon sitting at Juneau with R. Carson on the bench—Royal Carson for short. The trial originated out of a struggle between two factions of the Copper River and Northwestern railroad, one of which owned a canyon 20 miles long, into which the road had been built by Morgan, Carson and others, and one H. Carson representing the Alaska railroad corporation. The Alaska railroad took 300 men into the canyon to seize the property. According to the Alaska railroad things there were being done, and one Hasey, foreman of the Copper River Co., shot one of whom died. Hasey had on five counts for murdering with intent to kill, and so high at Valdez the defendant a change of venue to Juneau was granted. The trial cost the government about $40,000. With a $4 per day and 15 cents per hour the defendant had 15 witnesses and the case was very long. The government had 15 witnesses and the case was very long. The government had 15 witnesses and the case was very long.

LIBERTY NEWS

The Ladies' Aid society met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. R. Gibson. Quite a large crowd attended and a very enjoyable time was had by all. Wm. Zosel has the lumber on the ground for a new fourteen-room house which he will construct in the near future.

Mr. Shield's is building a ten-room house with all modern improvements on his fruit farm at Liberty.

Mrs. Annan Nash of Newberg is visiting at the home of her brother, Wm. Zosel.

Deputy Assessor F. M. Lick has been assessing in the vicinity of Liberty the past week. Claude Carson, a prominent young man of Liberty is negotiating with S. Reynolds for property at Rosedale. Carl Hagar of Portland was a guest of F. G. Chesnut last Sunday. Miss Lena Mize left this morning for Creswell, Oregon, where she will spend the summer with her cousin, Miss Estelle Howe.

Mrs. Wm. Lick returned from Portland Monday eve where she had been to accompany her husband to the sanitarium, where he will remain a few weeks for treatment.

Kodol completely digests all classes of food. It will get right at the trouble and do the very work itself for the stomach. It is pleasant to take. Sold by all druggists.

As for Taft, it's merely a case of survival of the fittest.

Lane's Family medicine cannot save all doctor bills, but can save a good share of them. One two-shilling package has kept a whole family in good health for a year.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.

Willamette, May 14.—S. E. Bedwell, Portland, Ore.; E. H. Horner, Monmouth; W. A. Stratton, Portland; W. C. Cooper, Portland; U. W. Zinn, Boston; F. G. Burdick, Portland; Pearl Nym, Eugene; J. F. Frost, Portland; May 15.—W. J. Jones and wife, Jefferson; S. G. Subliner, Portland; O. F. Whitcomb and wife, Seattle, Wash.; S. F. Emerson, Nevada; G. E. Sperm, Portland; Geo. Hanson, San Francisco; J. C. Wolf, Silverton; Jas. W. Walker and wife, Fort Jones, Cal.; J. H. McKinney and wife, Salem, Or.; C. L. Sloan, Salem; G. C. Lunt, St. Louis; W. L. Jones, Jefferson.

Would you give 25 cents to stop your cough? Then get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam and you will have enough for the whole family. It costs 25 cents.

New Notaries.

Walter S. Asher, Carlton; Jos. B. Beck, Portland.

Probably it is your stomach and not your heart that causes pain in neighborhood of the heart. If it is, Lane's Family Medicine will give relief. 25 cents at druggists.

Everybody ought to be happy if Taft is nominated. The Republicans all want him and the Democrats say they can beat him.

MINING THE GREATEST INDUSTRY

IT MEANS WEALTH

A FEW WORDS ABOUT AN INDUSTRY THAT HAS BROUGHT FORTUNES TO THOUSANDS OF SMALL INVESTORS.

It is a strange idea that so many people have that mining is a gamble, when in fact it is the industry on which all others are dependent. The farmer depends on the iron miner and the coal miner for all of his implements and machines, and more than that on the same people for transportation of his products to the markets of the world. This, of course, means coal and iron mining, etc., an average man will say; but back of this the further significant fact remains that not only the iron and coal mining, but agriculture itself is dependent on gold mining, for that provides the medium of exchanges that governs and regulates all business. When the gold supply is low the prices of all products are low. In other words, the scarcer gold is, the greater its purchasing power becomes, and hard times follow. Hence it is to the interest of every business man, every farmer, in fact, all mankind to maintain and increase the volume of gold. Hence, also, the idle and foolish talk of mining being a gamble, is an insult to intelligence and an injury to all mankind.

To open and develop a gold mine requires considerable capital, and the greatest fortunes the world has ever known, have been made by those who dared to venture their money in a legitimate business proposition, mining, which, while it contains some risks, offers and gives returns that make the results of rubbing Alladin's lamp simply an "also ran."

It is easily understood why the industry has been brought into disrepute. In every mining camp many claims are located that are absolutely worthless and their owners know them to be so. Being unscrupulous, they advertise these worthless claims, or so-called mines, and by glittering promises induce the public to buy. At the same time, the same camp has from one to dozens of mines that are legitimate business propositions. The trouble is that the public is caught by glitter instead of gold; invests in a gold brick, and then condemns all mining propositions. People deal with strangers, rather than with those they know who in a business way put before them a legitimate, meritorious proposition.

I have lived in Salem nearly five years, and have many warm friends here. I also have mining stock for sale, in a property that I have personally examined, and I know to be as it is represented. I have spent 24 years in active mining in Nevada and have been in nearly every mining camp in it. I was in Virginia City in 1859, when a boy, and worked in the mines there for years, and I unhesitatingly say, that Rawhide, Nevada's new mining camp is the greatest I have ever seen, and that the "Silent Friend" mine, whose stock I am selling, has the best surface showing of any mine in that camp or any other I have ever seen.

Here is a LEGITIMATE mining proposition, not a wild cat. Of it, Mr. Carl E. Bay, on whose recommendation the big Tonopah mines that have produced thirty millions, and are now producing more than seven million dollars a year, were bought, says: "I feel perfectly safe in saying you have the best undeveloped piece of ground in Rawhide." And again: "I believe you will make of the 'Silent Friend' a mine whose production alone will soon attract widespread attention."

This "Silent Friend" stock, now selling for 30 cents, should, judged by other Nevada mines be selling between $10 and $20 a share within fifteen months. This means that a hundred shares bought now for $30 will be worth at the least $1000 and probably twice that within the time named. Either Mr. Ivan Martin or myself can be found at Mr. Liston's office, 370 Court street, where we will be pleased to talk to you about the "Silent Friend," and show you its products.

J. H. CRADLEBAUGH.
