

NOTICE TO AD-CLIPPERS

Little girls, don't forget that the ad. clipping contest closes next Saturday evening, May 23, at 6 o'clock sharp. Any ad. turned in after that time will not be counted in the contest, and that no Buck trade marks will appear in the Journal for that day, so that we shall be enabled to count the total number of ads. clipped by each little girl and award the prizes that same evening. Don't forget to have you ads in by 6 P. M.

GO-CARTS

Buy the baby a go-cart—Heywood line are the best. We have just received a new consignment of these goods in that soft, pleasing shade of brown, a treat for the eye to rest upon. Every style of Heywood vehicle combines the strength, character, easy running and safety points, that makes the name Heywood famous the world over. See this fine showing of go-carts and we shall both be pleased with the results.

WALL PAPER

The new wall papers are here in a greater variety of design and color effects than ever before. Let a room be hung with wall paper of right tints and colors and rightly harmonized with whatever the room contains, and the effect will be artistic, no matter how little the paper costs. We've studied to have our papers right and our judgment has been so often commended by satisfied patrons, that we believe they are right. Let us demonstrate this fact to you.

land is his successor as editor, if not as orator. I had the honor to the state agricultural college at the State Agricultural society a few months ago and the prize-winner says it was by following my theory of oratory that he won out. It was a pretty severe test, as he went up against three of the best young orators in the west—Brainard of Whitman, Goldsworthy of Pullman, and the best in Oregon.

W. Al Jones had a pan of Duroc Jerseys—red swine—not the Salem hog—but with rings in their noses—five head, all prize-winners. He shipped them up on the boat and was the only Marion county exhibitor. "Al" has done something besides raise hogs. He was on the committee that dug up the $30,000 default of Geo. W. Davis, as state school land clerk. The other members of that committee were E. C. Hackett, of Oregon City, who was deputy under Shaver when he was killed; J. C. Hodson, a merchant at Newberg; W. J. Looney, of Jefferson; J. H. Darling, of somewhere, who afterwards went in and got a lot of school land. They did a good job on that committee by running down that shortage. The committee always considered that Davis got the money, and that it was a pretty smooth piece of work.

The same graft had been passed up and whitewashed over by six different legislative committees, until the committee that "Al" Jones was on went to the bottom of it. The state never got the money. It was stipulated out of court by the skill of the lawyers.

C. W. Taylor, who was 12 years on the Turner road near Salem, had nine Jerseys at the show, bred from a Moody bull and a dam of the stock owned by T. L. Davidson. The herd took first prize and is now kept by Mr. Taylor near Corvallis, and has a milk record of over 8 and one-half percent, which is not easily equalled, as a test for 40 days. His Jerseys look like a herd of deer, and have combined two strains that were never equalled in Oregon's history of dairying.

S. L. Kline of Corvallis has opened up a new store that is one of the prettiest in Oregon. His business manager is Walter Kline, his son, and from the heating plant in the basement to the office with solid oak tables, rosewood chairs and velvet carpet it is a model. The sanitary and pure food law grocery is ahead of anything in the state. There is an elegantly furnished rest room for ladies. C. E. Hoff, a Salem boy sells drygoods; Wallace Walton fits the ladies with shoes; F. Hooks, F. Y. Quick and Clarence Starr handle the groceries; and Willard Livinlie has been bookkeeper for the Kline's for over 20 years. The Klines are certainly boosters for Corvallis.

Chamberlain. In Linn county Chamberlain in 1906 ran 500 ahead of what he got in 1902. They say here and at Albany that Cake will carry Linn and Benton counties. If the Fulton machine supports him to a man he cannot help being elected. The horse show up here showed Benton county strong on both draft horses and roadsters.

The new Corvallis Commercial club is a peach. The furnishings are artistic, costing about $5000. The interior has a fine architectural design, there is a stained glass skylight and dome, the light fixtures are heavy and yet ornamental, ground glass globes suspended on chains from oaken square frames with oxidized green metal furnishings.

President (W. B.) Johnson is very proud of his baby and traveling men who have seen other clubs say it is the finest in the valley. Some of the college professors were practicing in the billiard room and appeared quite green at it. Like editors, they can't be expected to know everything. They will learn if given time. The bar is dry.

There is much discussion as to whether Linn and Benton counties will go dry again. One man, a farmer named Chambers, said Linn would go dryer than ever. Yet the same man said there was more drunkenness at Albany and more liquor shipped in here than when they had saloons. At the horse show in Corvallis I did not see a man drunk. I did see young fellows surging out and in from ginger ale parlors who had some stimulants besides what the sodawater factories produce. There was a place right on the horse show grounds where I was told whiskey could be had. Did not try it. It may be that is a better condition of things for a college town than the open saloon. But I have such contempt for doing things secretly that I cannot bring myself to support illicit and illegal traffic in liquor. So long as liquor is consumed or sold or manufactured in the country, the open saloon with all the curtains down and the doors open and the bar in plain view of the street, is preferable to all the back alley or private bar systems.

E. H. Green, general manager of the National Live Stock Insurance association of Portland, was at the Corvallis horse show. They insure all kinds of live stock from death from any cause and are doing a successful business. Offices in the La Fayette building, Portland.

County Chairman Curll estimates that Linn county will give Cake about 300 majority for senator over Chamberlain. Mr. Curll is a close campaigner and spent two days introducing Cake to people personally. He spoke twice, and while not a magnetic speaker, or creating a great deal of enthusiasm makes a favorable impression and gives Republicans a great deal of satisfaction and leaves them in no doubt as to his upholding progressive Republicanism and Rooseveltism.

PLANS SMALLER NAVIES

(United Press Leased Wire.) London, May 18.—Limitation of naval armament may shortly be agreed to by the European powers, according to a statement made by the British government officials, who said "While England has no immediate intention of issuing invitation to a congress for the reduction of warship construction, nevertheless work is being done to bring about an understanding among the powers to this end. The efforts that are being made are unofficial and considerable headway already has resulted. Within a year, it is very probable that the ground will begin to be cleared for an understanding.

Three governments at present stand opposed to armament limitation. They are the United States, Japan and Germany. Apparently it has now become a set policy of the United States to lay down two battleships of the Dreadnought type yearly. This means that America will enter any international agreement that will not recognize her right to maintain a fleet superior to the Mikado's. No present hope exists of Japan acquiescing in such a proposal and so it is hopeless to expect that the Americans and the Japanese can be counted on to sign a naval reduction pledge.

UNEMPLOYED TO MAKE APPEAL TO JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, May 18.—John D. Rockefeller will be asked to give financial assistance to the unemployed of New York and to suggest some way whereby the jobless army can get further relief.

A convention of men who are out of work is now being held in Manhattan Lyceum and a committee has been appointed to call on the oil king to make the appeal. The committee expects to gain a conference with him through the Rev. Dr. Aked, who is pastor of the church which Rockefeller attends. The convention feels that the effort will not be made in vain.

Secretary Law, of the convention, and L. T. Rush explained their visit to Washington, where they failed to see President Roosevelt to request an appropriation of $150,000,000 for the relief of the unemployed. They returned rather than spend time in waiting to interview him on the subject.

Bad Attack of Dysentery Cured. An honored citizen of this town was suffering from a severe attack of dysentery. He told a friend if he could obtain a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, he felt confident of being cured, he having used this remedy in the West. He was told that I kept it in stock and lost no time in obtaining it, and was promptly cured," says M. J. Leach, druggist, of Wolcott, Vt. For sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.

SCHEMES TO BEAT UNIONS

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, May 18.—President Van Cleave, of the National Manufacturers association, is holding a number of conferences with New York political machineists relative to building up an organization with which the manufacturers hope to combat the strength of the labor organizations.

Van Cleave states that he intends to defeat every candidate for an important state office or congress that has the support of the organized labor vote. "Conditions are such," declares Van Cleave, "that we are compelled to take this step. We may be compelled to oppose public men whom we respect but we will oppose them if they put themselves into a position that we deem it necessary to secure their defeat.

The voting strength of organized labor has been greatly over-estimated. It is not over 500,000 votes and not even Gompers can control it. The labor trust is well organized for this campaign but we will go into politics to protect courageous congressmen and see that tricksters and cowards now in the house, who have surrendered to the labor trust, are retired."

RED HOT TALK BY HAYWOOD

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, May 18.—William D. Haywood, deposed leader of the Western Federation of Miners, has again manifested his contempt for courts, judges and writs issued by them.

"To h— with the courts. To h— with the judges that grant them," he shouted in addressing a gathering of Socialists that had assembled to ratify the nomination of Eugene V. Debs as the presidential candidate of the Socialist party. An audience of 3000 listened to his vitriolic speech. Haywood scored the machinery of the law, Haywood bitterly criticized President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, and John Mitchell, former head of the miners' organization. In fact, he roundly grilled every labor leader who has failed to embrace the cause of Socialism. The speaker also denounced President Roosevelt as a coward for branding him and Moyer as "undesirable citizens."

A Smile. is a pretty hard thing to accomplish when you're blue, bilious and out of sorts. There is a sure cure for all kinds of stomach and liver complaints—constipation and dyspepsia, Ballard's Herbine is mild, yet absolutely effective in all cases. Price 50 cents per bottle. Sold by all dealers.

DIPHTHERIA AT ASYLUM ATTENDANTS CENSURED

The quarantine against diphtheria at the state insane asylum has been renewed for one new case has been found in the epileptic ward. It is entirely under control and under strict quarantine, and Supt. Steiner has had to make an example of three male attendants in the ward, who without permission violated quarantine regulations. In serving the meals there was not enough sent in by mistake and the three attendants walked out and entered the dining room for their breakfast. They should have notified a physician as to the failure to send in enough meals and the error would have been rectified. Fortunately there was no exposure by their action but they were summoned before the board of trustees, notified of what was done, and explanation asked. They could not give a good reason for the violation of the rules, and will have to be censured. No names are given, but the enforcement of the superintendant's cases, will be generally approved by the public and by the state legislature.

HARRIMAN MAY LEND IT TO THE (United Press Leased Wire.) New York, May 18.—In negotiating for a loan of 300,000,000 yen, Japanese financiers now in this city are said to be urging E. H. Harriman, August Belmont, Jacob Schiff and other American money kings to form a syndicate to advance the needed amount.

A report to this effect was received from Washington. It says that the Japanese financiers were on their way to London to raise the loan when they decided that they might be able to get the enormous sum from New York. Harriman bears the intention, it is said, and would accompany them to Washington where negotiations are now being conducted. The status of the loan cannot be learned, but it is understood that they are progressing every prospect of a syndicate being formed.
