

SIMPLIFYING THE SEARCH FOR "SOMEBODY"

THE MERCHANT knows that every article in his store is a bargain for SOMEBODY—for somebody who lives in his store-territory.

The real estate operator and agent know that every piece of property on their lists is a "bargain" for SOMEONE—for someone who lives here, or hereabouts.

The landlord knows that his tenantless store, or office, or house or apartment is exactly what SOMEBODY is looking for somebody who MAY actually live in the neighborhood.

The householder, with a furnished room to rent, know that to SOMEONE in town it would appeal as the prettiest "one-room home" possibly to find.

The owner of a "used but useful article of value, no longer personally needed, knows that, to SOMEBODY in town the chance to buy it at a reasonable cash price would be welcome.

For all of these people, advertising in this newspaper affords the only practical way to find their especial "somebodies"—to go into the crowd and pick out, unerringly, the "right people."

CAKE FIRM FOR STATEMENT NO. 1

SAYS HE HAS NOT CHANGED HIS POSITION IN ANY PARTICULAR WHATEVER—BELIEVES IN PRINCIPLE—REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE REPLIES TO EFFORTS TO DISCREDIT HIM BEFORE THE PEOPLE BY THE OPPOSITION PARTY.

"I stand as I have always stood, firmly for Statement No. 1, and the popular election of United States senators," said H. M. Cake, Republican nominee for United States senator, who returned to Portland yesterday, after completing a tour of Southern Oregon and the Willamette valley. "I am perfectly willing to trust the people, and efforts to discredit me as to my position on Statement No. 1, will not deceive anyone."

"And, by the way, what has my Democrat opponent ever done to sustain Statement No. 1? The battleground has been in the Republican party and when the fight opened this spring Statement No. 1 was publicly discredited in the Republican party, but I made my fight among its enemies. I propose to continue my efforts and ask the people to give me the reward of a hard-earned victory for this principle."

"For more than two years I have done what I could for the maintenance of the principles involved in Statement No. 1—the popular election of senators—and the people of the state of Oregon know my position too well to be influenced by the efforts that are being made to discredit me. It was only after machine politics in Oregon had been forever defeated that I sought political office. I owe nothing to any man or set of men or combination of men or corporations, and if elected I will be absolutely free to serve the people and the people alone. I have gone to them for the nomination and have obtained it, and I am appealing to them as Republicans for my election, and I have no doubt of the result."

Mr. Cake has devoted the last two weeks to a canvass of seven southern Oregon and Willamette valley counties, traveling most of the distance by train, with side trips by private conveyance or automobile to reach some of the interior towns. The counties visited were: Linn, Benton, Klamath, Josephine, Douglas, Lane and Yamhill. In two days last week the Republican candidate traveled 100 miles visited 12 towns and made brief addresses at nearly every point.

In the territory he has visited, Mr. Cake says he found no evidences of party disaffection. On the contrary, he says the Republicans seem to be better organized than they have been in years, and there is a general feeling that they will support their ticket in the June election. Mr. Cake discredits the report that any part of the Republican voters of the state are opposing him or intend to knife him at the polls. Neither does he place any credence in the report that deliberate efforts by Democrats are being made to prejudice him in the eyes of the people.

Mr. Cake is conducting his campaign without resorting to personalities. He discusses national policies and emphasizes the importance of sending a Republican senator from this state to Washington, reminding his audiences that non-partisanship is an unknown quantity in the national congress. He points out that there is no middle ground and no dodging the issue—a member of the United States senate is either a Republican or a Democrat—and the worth of each member to his state is measured largely by his political affiliation.

Following his address at Astoria Tuesday night, Mr. Cake will leave for Eastern Oregon, where he will spend the last two weeks of the campaign. He will conclude his tour of that section of the state Saturday, May 30, Decoration Day, when he will address the voters of Umatilla county at a big picnic at Weston.

With his time so completely taken up by his Eastern Oregon itinerary, it may be impossible for Mr. Cake personally to address the voters of Portland. However, his brother, State Chairman Cake, may arrange for a rally in this city at the close of the campaign.

The Badge of Honesty

Is on every wrapper of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because a full list of the ingredients composing it is printed there in plain English. Forty years of experience has proven its superior worth as a blood purifier and invigorating tonic for the cure of stomach disorders and all liver ills. It builds up the run-down system as no other tonic can in which alcohol is used. The active medicinal principles of native roots such as Golden Seal and Queen's root, Stone and Mandrake root, Bloodroot and Black Cherrybark are extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet which quotes extracts from well-recognized medical authorities such as Drs. Bartholow, King, Scudder, Coe, Ellingwood and a host of others, showing that these roots can be depended upon for their curative action in all weak states of the stomach, accompanied by indigestion or dyspepsia as well as in all bilious or liver complaints and in all "wasting diseases" where there is loss of flesh and gradual running down of the strength and system.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, pure blood and so invigorates and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, and through them, the whole system. Thus all skin affections, blotches, pimples and eruptions as well as scrofulous swellings and old open running sores or ulcers are cured and healed. In treating old running sores, or ulcers, it is well to insure their healing by applying to them Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve. If your druggist don't happen to have this Salve in stock, send fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a large box of the "All-Healing Salve" will reach you by return post.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

Henry O'Mally, superintendent of the fish hatchery at Oregon City, announces he will soon send 15,000 brook trout to be placed in Mill Creek at Salem for stocking purposes.

The Most Common Cause of Suffering

Rheumatism causes more pain and suffering than any other disease, for the reason that it is the most common of all ills, and it is certainly gratifying to sufferers to know that Chamberlain's Liniment will afford relief, and make rest and sleep possible. In many cases the relief from pain, which is at first temporary, has become permanent, while in old people's subject to chronic rheumatism, often brought on by dampness or changes in the weather, a permanent cure cannot be expected; the relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.

Authorizes Purchase

A. N. Gilbert and F. D. McCully, co-executors in the estate of David McCully, have been authorized by County Judge Scott to expend $4000 in the purchase of a farm for John W. McCully for use during his lifetime, after which it will revert back to the estate.

Poison Oak Poisoning

Ballard's Snow Liniment cures it. Mr. O. H. P. Cornelius, Turner, Ore. writes—My wife has discovered that Snow Liniment cures "Poison Oak Poisoning," a very painful trouble. She not only cured a case of it on herself, but on two of her friends who were poisoned by this same ivy.

Price 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by all dealers.

Primary Cost $2244

According to the report of county Commissioners I. C. Needham and W. H. Goulet, the recent primary election has cost the county $2244.65.

A Happy Father

is soon turned to a sad one if he has to walk the floor every night with a crying baby. McGeary's Baby Elixir will make the child well, soothe its nerves, induce healthy, normal slumber. Best for disordered bowels and sour stomach—all teething babies need it. Pleasant to take, sure, and safe, contains no harmful drugs. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. Sold by all dealers.
