

J. L. STOCKTON

THE OLD WHITE CORNER

A Great Artist in Our Window

He turns out oil painting with lightning rapidity. Average 300 a week the year around. A finished picture in 3 to 12 minutes. COME AND SEE HIM. Stinbarger, the great artist, is painting beautiful landscapes and marine scenes in oil in our Court street window. He finishes a 12x24 picture in 3 to 12 minutes and occasionally to hurry his work he uses both hands at the same time. With each purchase we give a coupon which with 49c entitles the holder to a beautiful oil painting on Academy board, and 60c buys one painted on canvas. The St. Louis Post-Dispatch calls him a wonder. He has painted 500,000 scenes in oil. $6000 a year is his average income. He will begin selling pictures at our store Monday. Be sure and get a FREE coupon with your purchase.

Farewell Party.
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Shafer, 1266 State St., a farewell party was tendered J. Willis Shafer, who leaves Seattle the first of June on one of the first steamers going to Nome, Alaska. A very pleasant time was had. "500" was the amusement of the evening. Miss Nellie Hargrove won first prize and Mr. Hoyt Cary carried away the booby prize. After the serving of light refreshments, and some very fine selections on the piano by Miss Hoyt, all departed for their homes saying they had a most enjoyable time. Those present were the Misses Vina Sherman, Luanna Brown, Nellie Hargrove, Louise Hoyt, Erminegarde Cary, Jay Brown, Chester Hargrove, Clarence Robertson, Hoyt Cary, J. Willis Shafer, Cecil Shafer and Master Earl Shafer.
