THE NATIONAL SITUATION.

Root is to go on the supreme bench if Taft is elected and Fuller retires.

The United States congress will adjourn with MUCH LEFT UNDONE AND LITTLE DONE.

The character and calibre of the men composing those bodies has degenerated.

The few so-called great statesmen in either body are HANGING ONTO THE ABUSES.

In the Methodist general conference there has been the usual strife for honors.

Some so-called bishops have been calling each other liars, both said to be foreign born.

Between doing politics, struggling for place, and watching the dollar public men are TOO BUSY TO DO ANYTHING FOR THE PEOPLE.

It is about time John Johnson or somebody who don't pretend to know it all were made president.

STAND FOR PRINCIPLES—NOT MEN

The Capital Journal advises the voters to act upon principle—not men—in electing a United States senator.

If we could believe all that is printed in the Portland Journal and Telegram neither Cake nor Chamberlain are fit to be chosen United States senator.

THE FACT IS BOTH ARE MEN OF MORE THAN AVERAGE ABILITY AND CHARACTER.

Both are good, clear, strong, forceful public speakers.

Both have a grip on public question far above the ordinary.

Both are men who made a straight-forward fight for Statement No. 1, and took the side OF THE COMMON PEOPLE.

The election of Cake will mean a decisive victory over the old Portland machine politicians WHO HAVE DONE MORE TO DEBAUCH OREGON POLITICS THAN DECENT PEOPLE CAN UNDO IN A GENERATION.

If Cake gets the popular vote he will be seated by the legislature.

The Statement No. 1 members will all vote for Cake if he gets the popular vote.

THE "PARTY CHOICE" MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE WILL VOTE FOR HIM FOR PARTY CONSIDERATIONS.

If Chamberlain gets the popular vote the Statement No. 1 members will vote for him.

This paper will demand that the entire legislature respect the popular choice in either case.

But it believes that Cake's election would settle the senatorial fight in Oregon in the most satisfactory manner BY ESTABLISHING THE PRINCIPLE AND REBUKING THE MACHINE that wants to restore the old system of election by purchase and bargain and sale of federal offices and appropriations.

If Chamberlain gets the popular vote IT WILL TAKE A HARD FIGHT TO SECURE HIS ELECTION.

The problem of who will succeed him as governor will be involved.

During the past two years Governor Chamberlain has been the hardest-worked state official.

As chairman of the state boards in control of the state institutions, OWING TO ILL HEALTH OF SECRETARY OF STATE BENSON, AND ABSENCE OF STATE TREASURER STEEL, he has done most of their work.

The people should decide the senatorial election on the lines of national political principles—not on the personality of the men.

Let us give Governor Chamberlain credit for what he has done. He has made a good governor.

Let us not join in the crusade to belittle and blacken Cake or Chamberlain.

BOTH STAND FOR A PRINCIPLE SACRED TO THE COMMON PEOPLE.

The election of either should be respected by the legislature as the triumph of the principle of popular election of U. S. senators.

The defeat of Cake in June and Chamberlain in January is the play of the old corrupt, unprincipled Portland machine.

NO VOTER SHOULD AID THAT CONSPIRACY AGAINST THE PRIMARY LAW AND STATEMENT NO. 1.

If you vote to down Cake in June you are not sure you will be able to elect Chamberlain in January.

IT IS NOT CERTAIN that the general assembly will have a majority on joint ballot for Statement No. 1.

As Cake is a champion of the direct primary and Statement No. 1, the best way to head off the overthrow of those principles is to vote for him in June.

THE PERSON WHO HAS "LOST INTEREST IN THINGS" HAS LOST ALL.

Is the list of "things that interest you" growing smaller or larger year after year?

What sort of things have you taken off the list—and what sort of things have you added to it?

Look it over—this "list"—and analyze it critically; just as though it were the other fellow's—or the other woman's—"list."

If the list is larger than it was a year ago, congratulate yourself. If it is smaller—get a little anxious, and put yourself on the witness stand.

For the future—add something to this list continually, industriously. For, in every item that you add to it, you add an extension to your "lease of life"—lengthen your years on earth.

How many kinds of advertisements interest you—for example?

Here's a chance to add a lot of items to the list—profitable, educative, remunerative items.

COFFEE

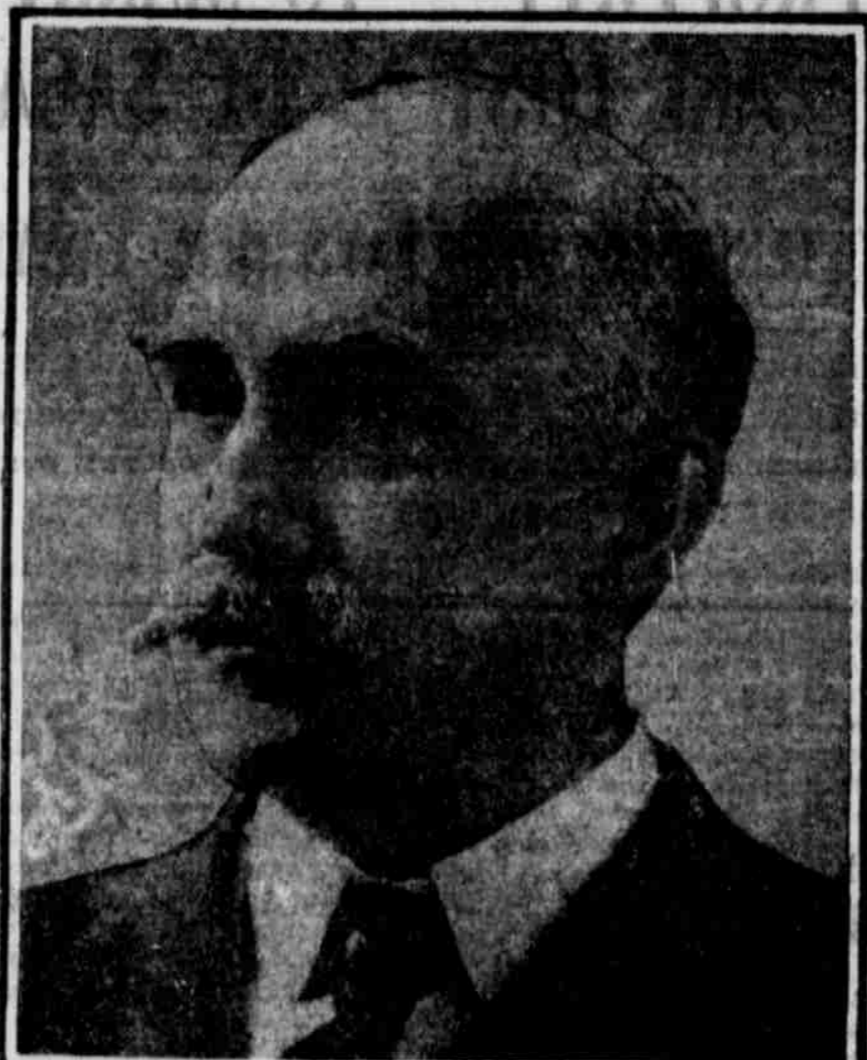

What is essential to good coffee?

Good bean ground fresh, and a woman of common sense.

TO REPUBLICAN VOTERS

AN OVERWHELMING majority of Oregon's voters by registration have formally declared that they believe in the principles of the Republican Party. Let them now show that they are honest by voting in accordance with their declarations. The Oregon election comes before the Republican National Convention. Let every Republican voter in the First Congressional District uphold the honor of the Republican Party in Oregon and strengthen the influence of Oregon's delegation in the National Convention by voting for H. M. CAKE for United States Senator and W. C. HAWLEY for Representative in Congress. If either of these Republican nominees fails of election, the primary election system will be discredited and a return of boss rule will be invited. The good name of Oregon's voters will be smirched and Oregon's delegation to the National Convention will be placed in a humiliating position. For the effect it will have on the November election it is imperative that the Republican nominees in the June election shall be elected by an overwhelming majority. As a believer in the principles of the Republican Party it is your duty to be at the polls June 1, and vote for Cake and Hawley.

JUDSON HARMON.

Judson Harmon, the Democratic nominee for governor of Ohio, has not always been classed as a Democrat nor as a conservative. Prior to the Greeley campaign he was a Republican and in that campaign acted as secretary of the Liberal Republicans. Then he helped organize what was known as the People's party. After that he was out of politics until 1879, when he became a Tilden Democrat.

Parks and Their Uses.

That was a most reassuring address made by Police Inspector Miles O'Reilly in which he told his audience, the Broadway Board of Trade, that he had no intention of interfering with kissing in Prospect Park. Through some regrettable misconception the inspector was represented as a grumpy misanthrope, in whom the milk of sentiment and human kindness had soured beyond hope of recovery. It was even hinted that he intended to establish a sort of secret service among his sparrow police for the purpose of sleuthing and surprising heedless couples who indulged in osculatory manifestations of their mutual regard and hailing them to the lock-up and afterward, to court.

The public interest in this matter is something more than sentimental. A certain commercial significance attaches to it. Park-made kisses lead to matrimony, matrimony means more homes, more homes means a larger demand upon tradesmen, and that enlarged demand implies a material increase in the prosperity of the community. Now, anything producing greater prosperity naturally commends itself to commercial organizations such as the Broadway Board of Trade, to which Inspector O'Reilly's assurances must have conveyed a certain sense of relief. The commercial value of Cupid ought to be more widely appreciated than it is. Police harassment of the poor child would only have driven him into the "let us alone class" where mistaken regulation has already forced other equally industrious individuals.—Brooklyn Eagle.

A Californian's Luck.

"The luckiest day of my life was when I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," writes Charles F. Budahn, of Tracy, California. "Two 25c boxes cured me of an annoying case of itching piles, which had troubled me for years and that yielded to no other treatment." Sold unguaranteed at J. C. Perry's drug store.

People of sensitive nerves enjoy the delightful music and other entertainment from the Edison because it is peculiarly free from the slightest imperfections in tone quality. Why multiply words about the admitted standard of talking machine excellence? You know all about it.

MAKE IT UNANIMOUS

Just now there appears to be little doubt but that it is Senator Cake of Oregon. Once the campaign started it was speedily seen that the oft-boasted personal popularity of George, the Governor, was not so mighty stout as it once was. Various things that some folks have known about our chief executive have come to light, and a lot of folks are today doubtful if George was such a whole of a man after all. The nearer Oregon makes it unanimous for Cake the better for Oregon. There are a few places where party politics still count; they don't usually in city, county and district affairs; but they do in national affairs, especially in the upper house of congress, where the majority party gets what it wants and the minority sits tight and waits. Oregon wants a lot of things from congress; it can never get them unless the Democratic senator. Between the men personal issue is not drawn; it is a national campaign; if it was not would not be on the debate. It is also remembered that was one of the Republicans who the nerve to stand on a platform No. 1 platform when it was thought that meant defeat; he for the popular election of United States senator who profited him or not. Chamberlain has stood for it because it was sole chance of ever leading place. The vast difference between good because you hope it will and because it is right, and the difference between the Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Cake.
