PRESIDENT OF LELAND STANFORD JUNIOR UNIVERSITY WRITES ON THE COLUMBIA RIVER SALMON CRISIS.

Stanford University, Cal., May 13 [fectiveness of that industry at all 1908-Mr. Edward Rosenberg, As- times when the water is clear. toria. Oregon: In response to a request from Mr. Hylen, I am giving you my opinion as to certain matters connected with the salmon fishing in the Columbia. As you know, I was the first commissioner ever sent out to investigate the salmon. I spent to the Committee on Resolutions for party they represent, and proud of the financial system, and all kinds of some time in Astoria in 1880 and I have made a number of visits there or farther north in the same interest since then. I have not changed my opinion in this time as to these mat-

The fish whel and the stationary trap in the Columbia river should be abolished. It would be well for the fishing interests of the country if the stationary trap in all of its various forms was evrywhere eliminated, for this is the most destructive and undiscriminating kind of fishing. On the Columbia, where the river is narrow and swift, the fish (urther recommend that said law aside all factional differences of the As young Republicans we earnestwheel is not only very destructive, but has the additional evil or (a) taking work from the fisherman, and (b) of taking the fish when they are not in the best condition, for fish for canning ought to be taken in tide-
