City News

Weather—Fair tonight; Thursday fair and warmer.

Must Return Barrels—Bill Anderson is kicking about the parties stealing his wood, and now they are stealing his barrels. He has his barrels marked and if they are not returned will send Chief Gibson after the parties. 5-25-31.

New Launch—Captain Skluner is building a new 40-foot launch which will be put on the Salem-Independence run when completed.

Revival Meetings—The revival meetings at Yew Park church continue each evening this week. A good crowd was present last night, and listened to Brother Tatman discourse, the theme, "Love of God." All are welcome to listen to the services.

Savage Divorce—The divorce case brought by A. T. Savage against Nellie M. Savage, before Judge Galloway was held behind closed doors yesterday afternoon.

The M. W. A. Band—Among the musical organization of this city that are rapidly coming to the front must be considered the M. W. A. band. They have been in existence as an organization only a short time but are rapidly making wonderful progress under the able leadership of Ivan G. Martin. They will soon be in the front rank. Owing to their excellent work on I. O. O. F. day they have been chosen by the Young Men's Republican club to furnish music for their rally tomorrow night.

For the Cherry Fair—There will be a meeting next Saturday at 2 p. m. at the Board of Trade rooms, for the purpose of appointing the working committees for the coming Cherry fair and to secure the co-operation of the Board of Trade and the Marion County Horticultural society in that important matter. L. M. Gilbert, president; F. W. Power, secretary. 5-26-31

"I Am Afraid to Come Home—
In the Dark" The music stores did have it, and will have it again for they have ordered it. But we have it now and will show it tonight. Vandette, and you know what that means.

Steamer Running Again—The steamer Grey Eagle went out from the State street dock on her regular trip yesterday. She has been undergoing repairs there since last Friday evening when she blew out one of her cylinder heads while coming up the river.

Violin Recital—The pupils of Le Roy Gesner will give a recital Monday night, June 1, at the college chapel. Besides violin numbers the string quintet will contribute two numbers. Public is cordially invited to attend. No admission is charged. 5-27-31

New Scow—Cummins Bros. have completed their new 20x40 foot scow, "Julius," which will be used to haul gravel from the pit two miles up the river. The scow is propelled by a nine-horsepower gasoline engine.

See the Glee Club Play—At the high school tonight. 2t.

The Best Groceries—Teas and coffees to be had in Salem are carried by J. M. Lawrence, corner Commercial and Ferry streets. Phone an order to 311 for prompt delivery.

To Dealers—The Salem Flouring Mills can supply you with bran and shorts—also Wild Rose flour.

See the Play—"Phyllis the Farmer's Daughter" at the high school Thursday evenings at 8 o'clock. Given by Glee club. 2t.

The Most Sanitary—Meats always come from the most sanitary market. Go to Steuermann's once or phone there for an order and you will continue to patronize them.

Road Work—The work of rolling the rock on the road between the penitentiary and the red barn began this morning. The rock was placed on this road last night, but on account of the bad condition of the bridges, the rolling could not be done. These bridges have been repaired, and are now safe for the heavy rolling machines. A better road could have been had if the rock had been hauled late, but the county accepted it inasmuch as the hauling was volunteer work, and could not be done after the close of the rainy season.

Hobo Arrested—John Walters a wayfaring man, was arrested this morning for stealing an overcoat and a watch from Joseph Anderson of North Salem. Anderson says that Walters came to Salem last fall, and asked for a two or three days' job. Anderson gave him some work to do, and he remained at Anderson's house while employed. One day the man said he wanted to go down and look at the river, and as it was raining Anderson loaned him his overcoat. The man never returned, and it was afterward discovered that a watch and chain valued at $40 was also missing. Walters wandered into town yesterday and was recognized by Anderson, who notified Chief Gibson. Walters will have a hearing tomorrow, when he will be charged with larceny.

Railroad Commission—The dispute between the O. R. & N. and the Traveling Men's Protective association was heard before the railroad commission at 11 o'clock this morning. The drummers have asked for a flat mileage rate of two cents. The railroad company has refused this but has given them a scrip book, with which the traveling men are dissatisfied. This has been taken under consideration by the commission and a judgment will be rendered later. C. L. McNary is the attorney for the drummers.

Artisan Excursion—The local assembly of Artisans will run an excursion to Portland on Thursday, June 4. All Artisans and friends desire to attend the Rose carnival on that date will please notify the master Artisan or the following committee: Mrs. L. R. Stinson, Louis C. Stringer, E. C. Gamble, W. W. Hill.

AS "THE BEST PILOTS ARE ASHORE," SO THE PEOPLE WHO CAN TELL YOU ALL ABOUT THE DANGERS OF WASTING MONEY IN ADVERTISING ARE THOSE WHO HAVE NEVER ADVERTISED AT ALL.
HAVING GOTTEN SOMETHING FOR ONE DOLLAR YESTERDAY THAT YOU WOULD NOT SELL, TODAY, FOR TWO—DIDN'T IT "PAY" TO READ THE ADS.?

A dispatch all the way from Toledo, O., says: "Bryan supports Brewster." But who the duce is Brewster?

The Portland papers continue to misrepresent Salem saloon men, and repeat that they are not trying to comply with the new ordinance. This is all false, but what can you expect of papers edited by Prohibitionists?

Rev. Sellick Sunday night roasted all the naughty boys. We have all had our fling. If any have not had their proper roast Rev. Sellick has another Sabbath for it.

Notice to Contractors.
Plans and specifications for the erection of an addition to the grandstand at the Oregon state fair grounds may be seen at the city hall (recorder's office), Salem, Oregon. Sealed bids will be received until June 1; same should be addressed to F. A. Welch, secretary of the O. S. B. of Agriculture, and marked on the outside of the envelope "Bids for Grandstand." Right is reserved to reject any or all bids if decided for the best interests of the state.
F. A. WELCH,
Secretary of O. S. B. of A.
