MARION REPUBLICANS RALLY FOR H. M. CAKE

Transfer Demonstration Given Wednesday Evening Under the Auspices of the Young Men's Organization

The only big Republican rally of the campaign was a great success. The music, enthusiasm and demonstrations count for anything. It was a great ovation to the Republican standard bearer, Hon. H. M. Cake, candidate for the United States senate.

From 7 to 8:30 thousands of people lined the streets, and when the music began to play and the bombs of the band, there was great doing in every way. All caught the inspiration of the moment, and the hard labors of the Young Men's Republican club.

In the history of politics was made and demonstration got up to notice equal to this.

At the opera house, after the packed house awaited the speaker of the evening, Hon. Wallace McCammant. Ed. L. Martin, state chairman for Marion county, was chairman of the evening. He introduced Hon. C. B. Moores, who delivered the address of welcome and introduced the speaker.

Oration to Cake.

Many went there expecting to hear Hon. H. M. Cake, but he has never been able to reach Salem again, having spoken here during the primary campaign. The music for the evening was furnished by the Salem Military band, the Indian school band and the Modern Woodmen band. There were several features of the parade that were very attractive. Mr. McCammant's address was on the lines of good old-fashioned Republicanism and pleased the crowd immensely. His references to Cake and his many stand for principles and a clean campaign, his demand for the support of Republican senator and a Republican revision of the tariff in the interest of American industries was highly appreciated, and applauded from start to finish. All the candidates on the county ticket were present and took seats on the platform, although they were not introduced to the crowd. The officers and committees of the Young Men's Republican club, and the state and county chairmen are entitled to great credit for the greatest campaign demonstration of the season.

BASEBALL BITS

BY JOCK

Heyser, the man behind the big stick for the Cherry Pickers, is now the up-to-date champion of the Tri-City league catchers if fielding and batting averages have any weight. Heyser has a fielding average of 1000 and a batting average of 300, which standing is, by quite a little jump, ahead of that of any other catcher on the Tri-City league. "Mistah" Heyser is a man that can be depended upon to hold down that most difficult position behind home plate without those "hard luck" stories, providing he is just a trifle off, and an off day is something the big fellow has very seldom met up with during his baseball career, as he is a ball player who thinks more of his health, than great bunches of "hot air," which generally drive a good player to the bad with the public. Mr. Heyser is not only a good ball artist, but is a first-class musician, now being a cornetist in McElroy's band, of this city, and his ability as a musician is considered a No. 1 by those familiar with his work. It is presumed, by those that "know," that a ball player can't be a ball player unless he does nothing else whatever but handle a baseball. That may be the idea, but how about "Dutch" Heyser?

Will the locals run away with both games when they meet up with the East Portland laddies next Saturday and Sunday? There will, no doubt, be an awful mix-up when these two aggregations come together, but the result so far is, according to the local fans' predictions, very undecided. A few say Salem will grab both of 'em, and a good many think the Cherry-Picking bunch will gallop away with the whole thing. A word to the wise is sufficient—hold tight to your money, Mr. Salem fan, until you see the Portland men on the field, then, if they look good to you, take nothing and bluff a whole lot.

A Vancouver sport had a great time berating several Salem spectators at the ball game last Sunday for the simple and rightful reason they would not take a $20 bet, he being a backer of the Northerners, but he happened to butt up against a well-known Salem ball enthusiast and the result was, the Vancouver team was compelled to provide car fare for their backer in order that he could reach home again.

A Woodburn man said yesterday, Marshall, the great twirler lately signed up by the Woodburn management, would have shut the West Portland team out last Sunday afternoon had he been accustomed to the Oregon weather. Wonder what excuse Mr. Marshall will have some time in July if he gets walloped to the heavens by some team—the Cherry Pickers, for instance.

Lawrence, Salem's second best man, is the oldest ball player on the team, that is, the oldest in actual service. Dave Edwards comes right up beside Lawrence, if not even with him as far as experience is concerned. What these two players do not know of ball should not be worth knowing, according to statements overheard about them made by several who are considered to be the real authority on the game.

DIED.

SCHULTZ—At her home, 747 S. Twelfth street, Wednesday, May 27, 1908, at 4 o'clock a. m., Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Schulz, aged 73 years 11 months and 27 days, of old age and cancer of the stomach. She was born in Wilms Dorf, Germany, the 29th of May, 1834, and came to America in 1862. She was married August 22, 1863 at Peru, Ill., to John C. Schulz, who survives her. To them were born seven children of whom two are living, Henry M. Schulz of Litchfield, Nebr., and Geo. A. Schulz of this city. There are 15 grand children. Mrs. Schulz was a member of the German Evangelical church corner Liberty and Center streets, from which place the funeral services were held today at 2 p. m. by Rev. Mr. Gustafson. Interment in City View cemetery.

Lane's Family medicine cannot save all doctor bills, but can save a good share of them. One two-shilling package has kept a whole family in good health for a year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. R. Smith of South Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Remington of Dallas returned Tuesday evening from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Murray of East Silverton. They went to attend Mr. and Mrs. Murray's 30th wedding anniversary, and also went fishing on the Little Abieque, catching 220 fine trout.

The Marion county ticket is one of the cleanest and best ever nominated, and most of the men are running without opposition.

YOU MAY frequently find a "want ad. opportunity" really worth "looking into."
A few "want ad. walks" about your neighborhood—or about the city—may be healthful and profitable to you.
A few street-car rides, for the longer trips, will prove to be really wise investments for your nickels—and half hours.
Once in a while you may be "too late," or the thing offered may not quite appeal to you—but the same sort of experience awaits you in all other business affairs.
The point is: YOU ARE PROBABLY TAKING IT FOR GRANTED THAT IT WILL NOT PAY YOU TO ANSWER WANT ADS.. Instead of doing that, TEST THE MATTER AS FAIRLY AS YOU WOULD TEST ANY OTHER BUSINESS PROPOSITION.
