

The World of White

Every article that is white in this store has the price reduced and many other lines such as Ladies' Suits, Jackets and Skirts are reduced from 10 to 50 per cent. Anticipate your wants now. We have never offered such unusual bargains as we are offering at this phenomenal World of White sales.

Odd Pairs of Lace Curtains

To Close During Our "World of White" Sale

$6.00 values, to close	$4.28
$3.50 values, to close	$2.63
$3.25 values, to close	$2.33
$2.50 values, to close	$1.87
$1.85 values, to close	$1.32
$1.35 values, to close	$1.19

White Hosiery

at the World of White Prices. White Silk Hose, values to $1.80, white lisle, plain, lace and embroidered Hose—

23c to 68c pr.

Misses and Infants plain and lace Hose—

23c to 68c pr.

New Tailored Waists

In plain and fancy fronts, linen, Swiss, cross bar and Madras, all this season's newest styles, on display in the waist department. Values from—

$1.25 to $4.00

SNOWY LINENS and DOMESTICS. This department offers some unusual saving opportunities in Linens, Towelings and Tub Fabrics. Imported Piques, 28 inches wide, value 35c, World of White Sale—19c yd.

Very fine Persian Lawns, 32 inches wide—

16²/₃ cents yard

Men's Straw Hats

$3.50 values reduced to	98c
$1.50 values reduced to	50c
$1.00 values reduced to	25c
75c values reduced to	15c

Seasonable Golf Shirts

In a large variety of colors. $1.50 to $2.50 values—

Reduced to 75c

Newest Designs in Outing Pants in tan, brown, olive green and grey shades. All sizes, less—

10 per Cent

Frosty Laces and Embroideries

assortments are enormous and never before have we offered such good values. Reduced from 10, 15, 25 and 50 per cent.

"Mum"

"Mum" is the word.
"Mum" is a good friend.
"Mum" is odorless.
"Mum" is harmless.
"Mum" is the remedy.
Nothing else like "Mum."
"Mum" takes the odor out of perspiration.
For further particulars enquire at the Notion Counter.

Panama Hats

$10.00 values now - $7.50
$7.50 values now - $5.00

All this season's newest styles and shapes.

Free

With every junior blouse or Buster Brown Suit. A fancy patent leather belt and pistol, black or red.

Boys' Blouse Waists

In newest shades, sizes from 2 to 4 years. Regular 75c to $1.50 values, for each... 25c

BOYS' HATS and CAPS—a large variety—

Half Price

BOYS' KNEE PANTS less one-third.

City News

Weather Forecast—
Fair tonight; Saturday fair and warm.

Wanted—
Ironers and machine hands. Salem Steam Laundry. 6-1-1f.

Another Oregon Electric Special—
Salem-Portland carnival train. For the benefit of the people of Salem who desire to visit Portland during the evenings of the Rose Festival week, the Oregon Electric Railway has arranged for a special train to leave Salem at 5 o'clock p. m., beginning Tuesday evening, June 2nd, and ending with the train of Saturday evening, June 6th. This train will reach Portland at 7 p. m. and, as previously advertised will leave Portland at 11 o'clock p. m. on the return trip. 6-2-5t.

The Salem Branch—
Of the Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co. has had manufactured by the Salem Iron Works an automobile wood saw that is a credit to both concerns. The automobile will pull several wagons or three disc plows and is a success in every respect. It is on exhibition at the Mitchell, Lewis & Staver headquarters on State street.

Freight Facilities Bad—
The Railroad Commission issued an order yesterday to the Southern Pacific Company, stating that on June 15th an investigation into the conditions of the company's freight handling facilities at Monmouth would be made. The investigation will be made in accordance with the complaint of the Monmouth freight handlers, filed last week.

Supreme Court Cases—
The following cases have been set for hearing before the Supreme Court: Anderson versus Lee et al, and Phipps versus Willis, June 16; Ooston versus the O. W. P. Co., and Parrish versus Parrish, June 17; Thomas versus the Booth Kelley Lumber Co., and State versus Jos Young, June 18.

Has a Fine Porch—
Geo. C. Mourer, the contractor, has added a fine porch to his residence on north Liberty street. The porch is wide and the whole effect is good from an architectural standpoint, and adds to the appearance of the street.

Landscape Gardener—
T. Shelley who lives at 589 High street is getting a good name for his landscape gardening work. He can improve grounds and care for trees and shrubbery in a way that makes property look very ornamental, and many places in the city are in need of such a man's services.

The Pioneers' Association—
Of Waldo Hills will hold their annual reunion at the farm of the Hon. John A. Hunt on the 27th day of June, 1908. Music and good speakers will be present. John A. Hunt, president. 1f

Cleaning the Ditch—
The North Mill Creek Ditch has been brushed up and the bottom cleaned out and a clear stream of water runs through it. The time will come when the enterprising owners of the property will have industries strung all along it, and this city will see some great manufacturing plant on the banks of the classic stream. The financial depression is all that is holding it back now and soon that will be over.

Grader Running—
The city grader is at work on Nineteenth street.

Baker Sick—
J. W. Baker is seriously ill at his home at Church and Union streets, from the effects of the grip, contracted a few weeks ago.

Main Completed—
The new line of water main on the south side of State street was completed yesterday.

Miss Gittins Back—
Miss Mary Gittins has returned from California, where she took second place in the prohibition oratorical contest, held at the University of the Pacific at San Jose.

Divorce Begun—
A suit for divorce was filed yesterday in the county clerk's office by Edna Harkins against her husband, J. J. Harkins. The complaint alleges desertion as the grounds for divorce.

Oldest Building Doomed—
The building on Liberty street between Court and State, which is being torn down to make room for the new brick structure to be built by P. H. D'Arcy, is the oldest building in Salem. It was erected by the father of Judge T. L. Davidson.

Blind School Exercises—
At the closing exercises at the Blind School last evening an excellent program was rendered, and each number received a hearty encore. One of the features of the evening was the singing of Mernie Hug, whose performance won much-merited applause.

The Bottom—
Has dropped out of the chicken market. Order your Sunday dressed chicken or fry of Farrington, the grocer and marketman, and get the right price.

Fine Home for Sale

Party with cash better investigate. Price reasonable.

Address H., care Journal

County School Picnic.
The Polk county school picnic, which was postponed last month on account of the wet weather, was held at Rickreall this afternoon. The picnic was attended by representatives of all the Polk county schools, and several of the Marion teachers were present. State Superintendent J. H. Ackerman and assistant E. F. Carlton went over this morning. After the picnic Mr. Ackerman will go to Sheridan, where he will deliver an address this evening.

GRADUATING RECITAL.

A delighted audience gathered in the Willamette University chapel last evening to listen to the graduating recital of the College of Music. Miss Nina Johnson, Miss Helen I. Goodenough, and Miss Ruth Field, were the graduates who took part in the program, and each acquitted herself in excellent manner. One of the features of the entertainment was the accompaniments by Dr. Von Jessen, his masterful work at the piano exciting much deserved admiration. The program follows:
Magnetic Waltz Song Arditi
Miss Johnson.
Andante in F Beethoven
Miss Field.
Chariet Horn Glover
Mrs. Goodenough.
As the Dawn Cantor
A Garden of Love D'Hardelot
At Parting Rogers
Miss Johnson.
Etudes (Opus 25, Nos. 1, 10 and 9) Chopin
Miss Field.
At Night Fall Metcalf
In My Garden Lyddie
Four-Leaf Clover Brownell
Mrs. Goodenough.
Rec. and Aria (Queen of Sheba) Gounod
Miss Johnson.
Tremolo Gottschalk
Miss Field.
Rec. and Aria (Ernan) Verdi
Mrs. Goodenough.
May L. Mart, Accompanist.
Steinway Grand kindly furnished by Geo. C. Will.

SISTER'S CURSE IS FULFILLED

"I wish you would drop dead," exclaimed the sister of Ellis Harris after they had quarreled over the division of $500 left by their mother. The young woman had hardly uttered the last word of her wish when Harris fell to the floor unconscious and died in an ambulance on the way to the hospital. Death was due to heart failure brought on by the quarrel.

Notwithstanding that the Oregonian and Telegram both opposed Chamberlain, it is said that 75 per cent of the employees of the two papers voted for him.

VETERAN ANSWERS LAST CALL

Sam Lindsey, 75 years of age, who has been living in this city for the past four or five years, died suddenly in the apartments of John Savage, Jr., over the Red Cross drug store at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The cause of death was neuralgia of the heart. Lindsey, who was a friend of Savage, came into the apartments shortly before 10 o'clock. He had been to the postoffice, and while there had an attack of heart failure. When he entered Savage's room he was seized with another attack. Savage summoned Dr. Reynolds, but Lindsey was already beyond recovery, and died soon after the physician arrived. Lindsey was an old blue jacket, having served in the Civil war in Dupont's fleet. He came here from New York State, and during his residence in Salem has had no regular occupation. Savage says that the old man was penniless and that he had no relatives.

SIGHT IS RESTORED TO BOY

Philadelphia, Penn., June 5.—Following a remarkable operation performed on the eyes of Herbert Martin, 14 years old, who was born blind his sight has been restored and for the first time in his life he has seen his parents. The successful operation was performed by Dr. Posey at the Howard hospital. He removed from the boy's optic nerves, not far from their issuance from the brain, soft growths which had caused total blindness. Cases of sight being restored to persons who were born blind are said to be few. The boy is the son of a merchant in Lynn, Mass.

ROOSEVELT TO HUNT IN AFRICA

AFTER TERM ENDS

PRESIDENT MAKES OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT TO RESTORE QUIETUS ON THIRD TERM BOOMERS.

(United Press Special Wire) Washington, June 5.—It was formally announced at the White House today by President Roosevelt that he will go to Africa for a hunting trip when he returns from the next March. He will take with him his son, Kermit.

The announcement was made for the purpose of quieting third term talk, which has been growing in the last few days.

It has been reported at various times that the President intends to take such a trip, but this is the first time that he has personally admitted it.

He proposed to sail from New York to Cairo and will be expected to remain in the wilds for some time. He proposes to cut himself entirely from public affairs and, as he believes Taff will be his constant companion on leaving him free from the charge of influence by his press sor.

HITCHCOCK TRIAL IS ON TOUR

(United Press Special Wire) New York, June 5.—Hitchcock, the comedian, was on trial here this afternoon on charges of attempting to seduce Helen Von Hagan, a 14-year-old girl in December of 1906.

Several charges were brought against the comedian by Von Hagan but the other cases against him were called in court.

It is alleged that Hitchcock seduced Helen Von Hagan while he was acting at a Broadway theater and reduced her to go with him to an automobile to his country home on Long Island. He has previously denied the charges.

John P. Ward, an experienced selector as foreman of the jury, after a conference of the attorneys was decided to take an adjournment until Monday.

VENIRE EXHAUSTED IN MURDER CASE
Stockton, Cal. June 5.—After a day and a half in waiting for a jury to try Elmer and William two boys charged with the murder of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Shaw, an exhausted juror of 50 was ordered discharged. The juror was exhausted at noon and a replacement was made. The juror was exhausted at noon and a replacement was made. The juror was exhausted at noon and a replacement was made.

Norwich Union Fire Insurance Society
Frank Meredith, Resident Agent, Office with Wm. Brown & Co., 29 Commercial street.

MONEY TO LOAN
Over Ladd & Bush's Bank, Bank Building.

NEW TODAY

For Sale—New 4-room house on Market and Thirteenth. Also several other houses. Will sell cheap. Write C. H. Journal office.

Rooms Wanted—Two furnished rooms, with water, on the main floor, near downtown. Give rates and location. Write Journal.

Wanted at Once—A good girl to wash dishes at Cottage hotel.