WOMEN'S FASHIONS

made with a very narrow gored front with the fullness tucked to yoke depth on each side of this. It is trimmed with two very wide bands of Cluny insertion, one just above the hem and the other about six inches farther up. The waist has a round yoke of Valenciennes allover and has the fullness below this striped with narrower Cluny insertion. The same insertion also runs down the outside of the short sleeves.

The Empire Waist Line. The Empire waist line has invaded the province of the lingerie frock and here as elsewhere, one finds a shortened waist the rule.

Manufacturers of McCall Patterns.

And very charming are these graduating gowns, simple in the extreme but yet made by a good remaker, using a chic that is all their own. The materials usually chosen for these frocks and Valenciennes, Cluny and baby Irish are the laces used to trim them. In these imported frocks a great deal of applique is seen and so beautifully is it put on the cor-though there are of course exceptions and princess dresses with natural waist lines still have a decided vogue. India linen, batiste and mull are the materials usually chosen for these frocks and Valenciennes, Cluny and baby Irish are the laces used to trim them. In these imported frocks a great deal of applique is seen and so beautifully is it put on the cor-tume that it is difficult to tell it from hand embroidery.

New Lingerie and Outing Hats.
This summer's lingerie hat is in the Charlotte Cordray shape with lace or embroidery ruffles falling most becomingly about the face. These hats are trimmed with big bows of ribbon or bunches of roses or other summer flowers. A particularly smart model is made of all-over lace, draped over a wire frame, with double ruffles of the material edged with Valenciennes. It has a band of black velvet ribbon around the softly drape crown and a big bunch of pink roses at the left side of the front.

The Panama outing hat, simply trimmed with a fancy scarf twisted around the crown with the fringed ends hanging down the back, is the proper thing for general wear at the seashore and mountains this summer. There are also hats of white and light gray felt that are considered very smart indeed for the same purpose.

The June Bride.
Dresses for the June bride are picturesque in the extreme. The materials used are all soft and supple and even when satin is chosen for the wedding gown it is of the new pliable variety, the kind that "can stand alone" being hopelessly out of date.

For the bridesmaid there are an endless variety of styles to choose from in this day of many modes. The Directorate styles, which are decidedly prominent this season are charming for the purpose. A skirt of some sheer material like mousseline-de-soie or chiffon with a Directorate coat and waistcoat of satin is extremely effective.

White Serge Suits.
The white serge tailor suit is very fashionable for street wear at the present moment in New York or for wear at the various summer resorts. In the newest tailored suits of linen considerable use is being made of cretonne trimmings. There are waistcoats of cretonne, or the gaily printed cottons, either in cashmere or conventionalized floral patterns, face the collar and cuffs of the jacket.

Some of the very newest lingerie waists are of allover embroidery trimmed with lace insertion. A very handsome example is of the sheerest batiste in a small allover eyelet pattern. It is elaborately adorned with insertions of Cluny and Irish crochet.

Dip Your Sheep.

For the present season of 1908 all sheep for breeding purposes for interstate shipments from the counties of Benton, Linn, Lane and Douglas should be dipped once as exposed sheep before allowing them to load. Where it is possible we may allow them to move to their destination, provided they can be dipped under federal supervision. (Signed) S. W. McClure, inspector in charge; H. Silverwood, local inspector, Albany, for Linn, Lane and Benton counties.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup is the one that children like so well to take as it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It acts gently yet freely on the bowels and thereby it drives the cold out of the system. It is sold by all druggists.
