

MAN'S BACKACHE

Backache is the mainspring of neurasthenia. It quickly calls for trouble by aching. It is their symptoms, such as nervousness, headache, pains in the lower part of the back, that a woman's feminine sense demands immediate attention. In cases the one sure remedy speedily removes the cause, restores the feminine organism to its normal condition and health.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Will Young, of Columbia, S. C., writes: "I was troubled for a long time with backaches and a pain in my side. I was miserable in every way. I would never get well. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and had one for others and for myself. It truly says that I never felt better in my life."

Augustus Lyon, of East Earl, Pa., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I had very severe backaches, and I could not sleep. I had no appetite. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me and made me feel like a new woman."

FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made of roots and herbs, has been the best remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with nervousness, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, backaches, pains, flatulency, indigestion, or nervous prostration.

brand is beginning to look favorable which means better games, especially in this city. A game, notwithstanding the snip and ginger put up, is a hard proposition to thoroughly enjoy when one is compelled to bundle up in overcoat and gloves to keep from freezing, or witness a contest on a water-soaked diamond. The "Merry Widow" bonnet will also show up to a more favorable advantage when the mercury starts up.

"Dinny" Hull was just a little off his feed Sunday and the St. Johns' players hit the ball around pretty lively once and a while although their connecting was mostly due to a goodly amount of luck. Had Hull been up to his usual cater, there would have been nothing to it.

Keeler, St. Johns' pitcher, did great while he lasted, but his lasting qualities were somewhat limited.

A Salem inquirer dropped a line to the editor of "Chit Chat of Sporting World," in the Morning Oregonian recently for the purpose of ascertaining the difference between a baseball fan, and a baseball bug, and the following information was handed out by Editor Mac Rae in a good, sound, logical manner as follows:

"One is a student of the game, knows inside ball when he sees it and hoots when a good play is pulled off on either side. The bug never has and never will understand the game. He hollers his head off every time the home player makes an error and yells his head off when an outfielder catches an easy fly."

The above explanation is a sure ringer for a good many enthusiasts, not altogether in foreign cities either and bug style is not only displayed by those behind time in the dope sheet, but is often aired by the wise ones who have some petty prejudice against some player who, no matter how insignificant and minor his error may be should he make one, he is given everything under the sun in the way of a roast which is both unfair and foolish on the part of such a fan (?)

Porterfield on third for Salem has been short in his throws to Cary on first lately. An almost line throw across the diamond into the first baseman's mitt is a feat that keeps the best of them guessing, and to successfully field a line throw to first should it happen to strike the ground for a pickup or bound, is another hard trick for the first sack man, who is sometimes given an error on a miss.

DOGAL BALL BY JOCK

to the meeting which is to be held in Portland tomorrow by the league, several rumors were current yesterday evening concerning the local team in the league. It is a good many Salem enthusiasts to think the Salem Cherry team will be no more. The attitude taken by the local management is the same as heretofore in regard to the games, dates of playing and the players but, due to the fact that the Salem management are unable to meet the required financial requirements to bring other teams to the city both Saturday and Sunday which fact is known by the league board in general. The games will probably be away with hereafter in the Capital, the same as in other cities. The Tri-City franchise is held, with the exception of Portland. Unfortunately the weather has so far been unpropitious to the local team, and the Tri-City board take time to consider the prospects here. Monday and Sunday games could be held off with no inconvenience whatever as the Salem public are in favor of partionizing an American holiday as well as any other city on the coast.
