NO VERDICT IN POLLARD

ATTEMPTED MURDER CASE
 (United Press Lensed Wire.)
 San Francisco, June 19.—After having been out 19 hours, the jury in the case of Mrs. Deena Pollard, charged with attempting to murder her husband, the well-known actor, Harry Pollard, today announced that it could not agree on a verdict.
 The shooting, which occurred in April last, caused a sensation because of the actor's popularity here and on account of the mystery which surrounded the affair.
 Both Pollard and his wife testified in a dramatic manner, that he held the pistol when the shot was fired, and not Mrs. Pollard as claimed by the prosecution. The case is set for trial June 29.

Annual Commencement Exercises.
 Eugene, Oregon, June 20-24, 1908. For the above occasion a rate of ONE AND ONE-THIRD FARE on the certificate plan is authorized.

SELECTION

Senator Gallinger, of New Hampshire, offered a resolution naming Senator Lodge as chairman of a committee to notify Taft of his nomination and Senator Penrose as chairman of a committee to notify Sherman. Lodge said he could not accept and suggested Senator Warner, of Missouri. This was agreed to.
 Resolutions, thanking the officers of the convention were adopted.
 A telegram was read from the Irish-American league of New York, pledging support to the ticket. Governor Willson, of Kentucky, offered a resolution thanking the local committee for the satisfactory arrangements.
 Senator Penrose could not serve on the committee to notify Sherman and Senator Burrows took his place.
 When the vote was taken it was realized almost immediately that Sherman would win. The vote of New York, which cast its solid 78 for Sherman gave him the nomination. The motion that the nomination be made unanimous was made by Senator Murray Crane of Massachusetts.
 Chairman Lodge announced that the new national committee would meet for organization immediately after the adjournment. The convention then adjourned sine die at 11:47 o'clock.
The Proceedings.
 The convention was called to order at 10:19 o'clock by Chairman Henry C. Lodge, who just previously had said:
 "There is nothing to it but Sherman for the vice presidency."
Cannon Cheered.
 Speaker Joseph B. Cannon entered the Coliseum received a big ovation. There were cheers all round the hall for "Uncle Joe."
 Chairman Lodge formally announced the nomination of Taft at 10:31 o'clock. The announcement was received by great applause.
Ovation to Sherman.
 The New York delegation then entered with a banner bearing a big picture of Representative James S. Sherman. The band played "Hot Tims in the Old Town." Sherman entered shortly afterward and was given a big ovation.
 State Chairman Timothy L. Woodruff, of New York, then was recognized. A motion was passed limiting the nominating speeches to ten minutes and the seconding speeches to five minutes. Woodruff presented the name of Sherman, who sat smiling in the middle of the New York delegation.
Need New Yorker on Ticket.
 Woodruff said in part:
 "We feel that unless the state is given the second place on the ticket after we have unsuccessfully presented the name of a presidential candidate, we will be returned to the vast constituency of New York without certainty. The ticket will meet with success."
 He said that no national Republican ticket with a New York on it was ever defeated except when the Democrats placed a New Yorker at the head of their ticket.
 He paid high tribute to Sherman for his service in congress and said:
 "Our candidate is one of the strongest in the nation. As president of a national bank in a strong financial region, he is well versed in the intricate problems of business and finance.
 When he named Sherman he was given an ovation which settled it in the minds of every one present that he would win.
 Speaker Cannon then seconded the nomination of Sherman in a speech that brought applause.
Cannon's Speech.
 Cannon said in part:
 "Uncle Joe would rather be a doopkeeper in the house of the Lord, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness."
 This statement was greeted with great cheering and he was forced to wait until quiet was restored. Then he added:
 "Since the organization of the party, by its laws and in its wisdom, the Republican party has been faithful to the hopes, ideals and aspirations of the American people."
 He congratulated the convention upon the nomination of Taft. As he concluded, the veteran speaker of the house of representatives was given by far the greatest ovation yet accorded a speaker.
 Governor A. E. Willson, of Kentucky, also seconded the nomination of Sherman.
 F. A. Dennison, an Illinois negro, was called to the chair and presided over the convention, while Chairman Lodge took the floor and placed in nomination Governor Curtis Guild of Massachusetts.
 C. S. Osborn, of Michigan, seconded the nomination of Governor Guild. McCarter, of New Jersey, then placed former Governor Murphy of that state in nomination. As the clerk proceeded with the roll call, Mississippi seconded Sherman, as did North Carolina and Oklahoma.
 "Uncle Joe" Cannon had his trousers tucked in the tops of his congress walters and his vest open as he left the platform after the nominations. He was hot after his efforts and poured ice water on his head and the back of his neck. He said:
 "Taft and Sherman fill the bill and I believe they will be president and vice president during the coming four years."
Changes at Willamette.
 The meetings of the board of trustees of Willamette university closed last evening, all the business of the institution for the ensuing year having been satisfactorily settled. All the departments except the department of chemistry will be in charge of the same instructors. In addition to this the trustees established a chair of philosophy. The professor of philosophy has not yet been selected.
 Before the election of professors, Dean C. O. Boyer of the College of Liberal Arts handed in his resignation. It is not known at present what work the dean will take up in the future. He is one of the most popular men in the university, and his absence will be keenly felt by both faculty and students.

You will find bargains advertised in the big ads, and in the little ones. But, to the person who has a want, there is no better bargain to be had in this city than a few lines of classified advertising space in this newspaper.
 If your money is not particularly important—if it is easily made, and you prefer to spend it a hapov-go-lucky way, then the ads. will not interest you.
