

Your Stomach Is Your Friend

If you have a good stomach and wish to keep it, steer clear of lard-cooked food. Lard is made from hog fat, and is more apt to be impure than it is to be clean and healthful.

Cottolene is the most reliable frying and shortening medium. It is a pure, wholesome, digestible product, that is bound to be more satisfactory than lard wherever it is given a fair test.

Besides being more healthful, Cottolene is more economical than lard or cooking butter, one-third less being required. It will, moreover, make more nutritious food than either lard or butter.

With all these advantages on the side of Cottolene, what argument have you for not using it? Your own grocer, if he is progressive, has Cottolene for sale. Buy a pail to-day, use it according to directions, and we will warrant you will never go back to the lard habit.

"GAMILLE" WAS PRETTY LAST NIGHT

A fair-sized audience, considerably larger than that of the opening night, greeted Miss Harper in Camille at the Grand last evening. Camille is most respects is a better play than Nell Gwynne, the first night offering, and the acting of each of the cast was also better. As for Miss Harper's portrayal of Margaret (Camille), we believe the management is entitled to say with the immortal Ben Jonson, "By God, 'tis good, and if you like it you may."

Miss Harper's work in emotional roles resembles very much that of Florence Roberts, and her acting last night would not suffer by comparison. Her best bit of acting was in the final scene, her portrayal of the lingering illness and misery of the unfortunate woman being particularly well done.

The climax in the third act was also handled in a very creditable manner. Geo. B. Berrell as Mons. Duval, is given an excellent speech in this scene, which he made the most of.

As Ormond Duval, Joseph Detrick's performance throughout was good. Duval's great scene comes at the close of the fourth act. Mr. Detrick's strongest acting, however, was not here, but in the final scene with Camille.

There are but two strong roles in the play, yet the minor parts were well done by the rest of the cast.

Tomorrow evening the company will present another emotional drama, Sapho. For Saturday matinee and evening the bill will be Maud Adam's great success, "The Little Minister."

LIBERAL ARTS BUILDING CEREMONY

With impressive ceremony, participated in by dignitaries of the city, clergy, and university, ground was broken for the new liberal arts building on Willamette university campus yesterday afternoon.

A large gathering of students and townspeople were present, and watched the exercises with intense interest. Practically all the ministers of the city were on the campus, and took part in the ground-breaking. The exercises opened with a prayer by Rev. J. D. Gillilan of La Grande, district superintendent of the Methodist church. Speeches were made by Mayor Rodgers, Dr. D. L. Rader, editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, President Fletcher Holman and Hon. A. E. Eaton, the donor of the magnificent building, each of the speakers turning over a shovel of earth. The impressiveness of the occasion almost overcame Mr. Eaton and tears shone in his eyes as he spoke.

The ground breaking was participated in by all the members of the senior class, the alumni, and the members of the faculty. When Professor Boyer stepped forward to carry out his part of the exercises he was given a great ovation by the assembled students. A spade full of earth was turned in honor of each of the famous men, living and dead who received their education at Willamette. This list of Willamette's specially honored sons numbered about forty. After the exercises many of the spectators adjourned to the chapel, where architect Tourtelotte with the aid of two large drawings gave an informal talk on the new building.

Suits Against Students.

The case of the International Book Company vs. W. M. Kane of this city, which was argued Wednesday before Judge Webster, will probably be carried into the higher courts, as it seems that it will be the means of deciding several cases which have been brought by the International Book company, a department of the International Correspondence school, against correspondence students.

The defendant in the case claims that he paid $5 at the beginning of the course, but that on account of the failure of the company to forward the instruction books with promptness and regularity, he decided to drop the course, and refused to pay more money to the school or the book company. This occurred two years ago. The International Book company sued him for $50, and won the suit.

William P. Lord, Jr., and Walter C. Winslow, who are representing Kane in his suit for arrest of judgment, claim that the decision rendered by the company is a foreign corporation doing business in this state without paying the foreign corporation tax, and that as such it is carrying on business here in violation of the statute. Furthermore the young attorneys contend that according to law this company had no right to bring a suit in this state until it had paid its tax, and that the suit brought by the International Book company was therefore illegal.

Suit for Stallion.

W. L. Skipton has brought suit in the circuit court against S. A. Jefferson for the recovery of $401 paid by the plaintiff to the defendant for a stallion, "George L. Warlaw." The complaint alleges that the horse was not what the seller represented him to be.

A SCIENTIFIC FACT

WHEN THE BLOOD IS BAD THE DIGESTION IS BAD

Showing the Reason for the Wonderful Success of the Tonic Treatment for Stomach Trouble in Even the Most Stubborn Cases.

Good red blood, which means blood well supplied with oxygen, is absolutely necessary to healthy digestion, for upon it depends the proper flow of the digestive fluids, the activity of the muscles of the stomach and the assimilation of the digested food.

That is why a debilitated, run-down condition so often brings on a disturbance of the digestive system that frequently runs into a severe stomach disorder.

The principles of the tonic treatment for indigestion is that it makes the blood rich and red, promotes a normal flow of gastric fluids, tones up and strengthens the stomach and recovery is rapid and permanent.

This principle was illustrated in the case of Mr. Albert Underwood, of Brookville, Ind., who is well-known in his home town where he has been in business for the past eight years. He says:

"When I first became sick I was working on the railroad and think the hard work and exposure had run me down in health. I kept at my work for a time although I should have been in bed. I kept losing strength and became greatly reduced in weight. At last I had to give up and for two years I did nothing but sit around the house. During the following winter I was confined to my bed for the greater part of the time. I suffered from gas on the stomach and could not eat anything without enduring intense pain. It seemed as though there was a pressure on my stomach. Later I had rheumatic pains in my arms and legs and was reduced in weight to 120 pounds.

"I was under the care of our home physicians but they did not benefit me in the least. After spending many dollars in medicines and getting no help I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I took several boxes, and they benefited me so much that I could eat most anything without distress. I kept taking the pills until cured. I have worked hard ever since, weigh 170 pounds and am in good health."

Every dyspeptic should have a copy of our free diet book, "What to Eat and How to Eat." It contains much useful information. Send today for a copy.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50c per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Stomach Troubles.

Many remarkable cures of stomach troubles have been effected by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One man who had spent over two thousand dollars for medicine and treatment was cured by a few boxes of these tablets. Price 25 cents. Samples free at Dr. Stone's drug store.

COMMON SENSE

Leads most intelligent people to use only medicines of known composition. Therefore it is that Dr. Pierce's medicines, the makers of which print every ingredient entering into them upon the bottle wrappers and attest its correctness under oath, are daily growing in favor. The composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines is open to everybody. Dr. Pierce being desirous of having the search light of investigation turned fully upon his formula, being confident that the better the composition of these medicines is known the more will their great curative merits be recognized. Being wholly made of the active medicinal principles extracted from native forest roots, by exact processes original with Dr. Pierce, and without the use of a drop of alcohol, triple-refined and chemically pure glycerine being used instead in extracting and preserving the curative virtues residing in the roots employed, these medicines are entirely free from the objection of doing harm by creating an appetite for either alcoholic beverages or habit-forming drugs. Examine the formula on their bottle wrappers—the same as sworn to by Dr. Pierce, and you will find that his "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood-purifier, stomach tonic and bowel regulator—the medicine which, while not recommended to cure consumption in its advanced stages (no medicine will do that) yet does cure all those catarrhal conditions of head and throat, weak stomach, torpid liver and bronchial troubles, weak lungs and hay-coughs, which, if neglected or badly treated lead up to and finally terminate in consumption.

Take the "Golden Medical Discovery" in time and it is not likely to disappoint you if you give it a thorough and fair trial. Don't expect miracles. It won't do supernatural things. You must exercise your patience and persevere in its use for a reasonable length of time to get its full benefits. The ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed have the unqualified endorsement of scores of medical leaders—better than any amount of lay, or non-professional, testimonials. They are not given away to be experimented with, but are sold by all druggists at reasonable prices.
