

START TO DAY IN THE CAPITAL JOURNAL'S BIG VOTING CONTEST

LADIES DO NOT LET OTHERS CARRY AWAY THESE VALUABLE PRIZES

Get right to work and get your share of the subscriptions to be had only for the asking, think about this contest. Get your energy in motion and get one of the handsome prizes. Your friends will admire you for your energy; they will be proud of you for what you do, whether you win or not. But if you work you'll win. All things are possible for any young woman when their efforts are properly directed.

Get in the procession, be a winner. It is worth your while. If there is any thing concerning this great contest that is not plain to you, drop a postal card to the contest manager and say, "I do not understand," giving your name and address, and full information will be furnished.

If you have not already entered the race or entered the name of your friend, you should do so at once. There is a great deal to be gained in a contest of this kind both in pleasure and experience. And those who enter at the start have the best chance of winning. Get your friends to aid you and you will be surprised to see how rapidly the votes roll up.

There is a ballot box. There is a ballot box in the Capital Journal office where the votes may be deposited for any lady whom you may see fit to vote for. If you can not bring the ballots to the office, send them in by mail to the contest manager and the votes will be accorded to the lady for whom they are intended. The votes are counted twice, so there can be no mistake as to the proper number of ballots accorded to each candidate. The votes are always open for inspection to insure a fair deal.

How To Win.

Any lady who desires to enter this great contest and win one of the magnificent prizes offered, should at once see that her name is sent to the Contest Manager. All that is necessary to win a prize is to receive the largest number of votes, according to the conditions mentioned elsewhere in this announcement. Candidates should at once interest their friends in the contest and by united and energetic action induce as many people as possible to vote for them. Each nomination coupon cut from the Capital Journal will count for five votes for a candidate. The nomination coupon will only appear for a few days. The easiest and quickest way to win, is for candidates to ask their friends to prepay their subscriptions for six to 12 months. It costs the subscriber nothing extra to do this and they are saved the annoyance of weekly and monthly collections. By so doing you receive a special vote ballot which is good for any time during the contest; same may be used by the contestant herself or disposed of in any manner she may see fit.

Any lady residing in the territory below mentioned is eligible to compete in this contest.

Any one who desires to vote in his contest may do so by ballots cut from the daily and weekly Capital Journal, or by special vote coupons obtained by subscribing to the Capital Journal. The coupons secured by subscribing to the Capital Journal may be held as long as desired and voted any time up to the close of the contest, but ballots cut from the Capital Journal are only good for one week from publication and will not be counted if voted after the date printed on the ballot.

Instructions for Voting. Enter the name of the lady whom you wish to secure one of the magnificent rewards in the contest at once. She may win an Ellier piano, furnishings for a room, $50 worth of cut glass, one of the valuable scholarships, a free trip, or a gold watch.

Better still get the lady to enter her name and then vote for her. Those who get in on the start have the best chance of winning, so it is desirable that the names be entered at once in order to get a good start. Candidates who enter this contest do not necessarily have to be subscribers of The Capital Journal. Enter your name and your friends will do the rest. You will be surprised to see how rapidly the votes will come in, and what little effort is necessary to win one of the rewards offered. Get in on the start and encourage your friends to vote for you, the rest will be easy. You will never know how popular you are until you enter a contest of this kind.

The first announcement as to whom the ladies are competing in this competition will be made soon, and the number of votes each one has to her credit. After the first announcement of candidates and the counting of ballots, the votes will be counted each morning at 10 o'clock and the result made known in the following issue of The Capital Journal. There will be a short write-up in the paper each day from now on till the close of the contest and those interested can keep in touch with the contest and competing candidates. Certain it is that eighteen ladies of Salem and of Marion, Polk and Lincoln counties are to receive magnificent rewards and it is left to the readers of The Capital Journal to decide.

Persons living in one district are not confined to voting for ladies in their own particular district but may vote for any one in the race. The offer affords the ladies and girls of Salem, Marion, Polk and Lincoln counties an excellent opportunity to receive a business education or to travel at the expense of The Capital Journal.

The trips include transportation both ways, and seven days board at a first-class hotel.

Summary of Prizes Offered. District No. 1. One scholarship. One free trip to Newport and hotel expenses for seven days, and one ladies' gold watch.

District No. 2. One scholarship. One free trip to Newport and hotel expenses for seven days, and one ladies' gold watch.

THE RECALL.

(Daily Astorian.) The fact that the people of Oregon have created, and are holding in their own hands, a law that makes it, practically, as easy to remove a man from office as it is to put him in it, is obviously patent to every man in the public service, or who has been elected thereto, and the people, themselves, are beginning to take due cognizance of the new and strange power wherewith they have equipped themselves. They are not exulting in it, nor casting about for men, nor occasions, to use it; they are realizing the possibilities of such an agency with a pleasurable sense of its efficacy and perfect justice, when the hour for its employment shall arrive.

We, with all men, hope never to see its provisions called into play; this, for the sake of the men who have been honored and for the best ends served by good government. But, all the same it is an excellent thing to have in store; it will always have its real effect, however quiescent it may be. The mere knowledge that it exists that it may be invoked at any hour, upon any man, and that it is primarily constitutional, and above the reach of the courts, that its application is at the hands of those who granted the honor, and trust that is so betrayed as to invoke its power, will have a tendency to cure official life and administration methods, of many of the ills that have grown upon the system and purge it of the grosser and graver sources of reproach.

The equity of the principle underlying the law of recall may not be questioned with any seriousness. It is self-evident, and as true as the vested and unquestioned right to elect. The simple justice of the mandate is the actual source of its great power, morally and actively; and even though it lay inoperative upon the code for years to come, it will be, ever and always, a saving, efficacious and powerful lever, ready at the popular hand, to remedy administrative abuses and deal summary justice upon those who have trifled (or worse), with the confidence and conventions of the people. The old-school politician, and the tracker, in office, and out of it, for spoils and preferment, despise the new law utterly, as a menace to their craft and its practice, but this is understood by the people far and wide, and makes the new gage of popular power infinitely more valuable and influential. Whatever else may happen under its aegis, the law and function of recall will never be recalled!

If the Oregonian had written some of its able editorials against prohibition before election; perhaps three-fourths of the state had not gone dry.

The Oregonian has had some severe denunciations of the persecution of Fulton and Hermann—since election. Before election it egged on the land-fraud prosecutions on every occasion. But it is important in any commonwealth to kill off all the prominent public men.

The Capital Journal discusses principles, not men.

By the way, dear reader, there is one commandment we all fall down on—We do covet the other man's wife is she's handsome, we do try to hire his employe if he is skillful, we try to get his hired girl, if she is competent. We try to get his horse, his ass and his dollar. We are mighty poor specimens, by that test.

MAKES WORK EASIER

Salem People Are Pleased to Learn How It is Done. It's pretty hard to attend to duties with a constantly aching back; With annoying urinary disorders, Doan's Kidney Pills make work easier. They cure backache. They cure every kidney ill.

W. H. Wood, of 250 Cottage St., Salem, Or., says: "A good many years ago I got badly kicked by a mule right over the kidneys and at another time while digging a well it caved in on me also injuring my kidneys. Changes of weather caused my back to ache and when I worked hard it became so lame that I could hardly straighten up after stooping. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Stone's drug store, and since taking them altogether I have continued to work hard and been exposed to severe weather not an ache or other symptom of my former trouble remains. This clearly proved that Doan's Kidney Pills act up to the representations made for them. I also know of other people who have derived great benefit from their use. I am glad to let others know the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills for backache and kidney trouble."
