THE SOCIAL EVENTS

M. W. A. Dance.

The dance given at the Auditorium rink, Thursday night, by the Modern Woodmen of America, was attended by about 250 people. Music was furnished by the M. W. A. and McElroy's bands. A program composed of illustrated songs, selections by the Artisan quartet and a solo by Mrs. Mernie Hug was given, and specially it was a success, but owing to the many other social affairs of the week and the shortness of time in which to advertise the dance is not a success financially.

Tally-ho Party.

Miss Mabel Smith gave a tally-ho party last Monday evening for her cousin Miss Ruth Johns of Baker City. There were 18 young people in the party, most of whom were sophomores of the high school, of which Miss Smith is a member. They drove out on the Garden road, and returned by the reform school.

Tally-ho Party.

An enjoyable tally-ho trip was taken last Sunday by a party composed of Misses Althea Moores, Mildred Bagley, Edith Ragan, Madeline Walker, Veda Cross, Bertha Eckert and Messrs. Ralph Cronise, Ralph Moores, Hal Bean, Curtis Cross, Carl Gabrielson, Chester Moores, Lloyd Farmer, Oudin Roberts and Laurence Hofer. They drove down the river road past the La Follette farm, and stopped nearby, where they had a moon light picnic and bonfire. After a very jolly time the party returned late in the evening.

Farewell Surprise.

The members of the Y. P. A. of the German Evangelical church pleasantly surprised Fred Hornschuh, at the home of Henry Wenger Monday evening. The evening was spent having a general good time. Refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served. Mr. Hornschuh was one of the members of this year's graduating class of Willamette university. He left on Friday afternoon for his home in Portland.

Annual Hop at St. Helen's Hall.
The annual hop at St. Helen's hall, Portland took place Thursday night. About 300 guests were present. Those attending from here were Messrs. Edward Thielson, Dr. Seymour Skiff, Laurence Hofer and Carl Gabrielson.

Piano Recitals.

The pupils of Miss Elma Weller, piano instructor, will appear in two recitals on next Monday and Tuesday evenings at the First Baptist church. On Monday evening her advanced pupils will appear and on Tuesday the junior students, giving the Dunning piano method. Miss Weller has issued invitations and those holding them are requested to bring the same with them.

Piano Recitals.

The piano recitals at the First Christian church Tuesday and Friday evenings, respectively, under the auspices of Professor Frank E. Churchill, of the Western Conservatory of Music of this city, were attended by large audiences, and responsive admirers. The school now under its third year of management by Mr. Churchill has grown to one of the best institutions of Salem. And no better evidence of its popularity and progress could be better indicated than the pleasure the patrons of the school expressed on these two evenings, where the young ladies and gentlemen vied with each other in an exhibition of the musical art.

The class was composed of 35, many who have been with the present management during his administration, and who have made wonderful strides in the course, and some of whom are active in the service of churches and societies, playing to the satisfaction of the most critical. No better commendation could be given, it seems, than the pupils themselves, who have left a mark of intrinsic worth by their zeal and efficiency. Besides the instrumental features of the evenings, were the vocal celebrities in the persons of Mrs. Mernie Hug, J. Wenger and wife and Dr. H. C. Epley, who not only pleased the audiences, but were constrained to respond to the applause that called them before their appreciative listeners. All in all, Professor Churchill is to be congratulated, and his school applauded for the work that has been accomplished the past year. A great future is yet before the school, and the prospects are brighter for more and better service and greater efficiency in reaching larger results.

Prof. Roberts at the pipe organ will assist in making the recitals an artistic success, as his work on that instrument, cannot be excelled.
