SAPHO WELL PLAYED BY MISS HARPER

The most sensational of the sensational plays, "Sapho" was played last night before a fairly well-filled house at the Grand Theater. The acting was really excellent and far better than Salem expects at this time of the year. While it cannot be said that Georgia Harper is equal to Olga Nethersole or Florence Roberts, it is true that she is a superb player, and all those who did not go to see "Sapho" last night, missed a big treat. The management had taken particular pains to eliminate all of the objectionable parts of the play without effecting it and leaving the moral underlying it as strong as ever.

There is no occasion to re-tell the story of "Sapho," it is too well known for that. The gowns worn by Miss Harper—as has been the case in her three plays here thus far and will be this afternoon and evening in "The Little Minister, the press agent assures us—are of the richest and much surprise has been manifested by the "theater public" that a mid-summer theatrical company should expend so much on costumes and make-up. Likewise the scenery and electrical display.

"The Little Minister" Today.

"The Little Minister" is a musical comedy of the first order, and it was for this reason that it was substituted for "Quo Vadis" for the matinee this afternoon and the play this evening, it being believed by the company's manager that it would be a relief from the dramas put on during the first three nights. There is much rich Scotch humor in the play and if produced as well as the others have, will be well worth seeing. Miss Leota Howard, a Salem girl, who has formerly starred with several companies but, owing to illness, will only take a minor part in the play this afternoon and evening.

The Big Head.

Is of two kinds—conceit and the big head that comes from a sick headache. Does your head ever feel like a gourd and your brain feel loose and sore? You can cure it in no time by acting on your liver with Ballard's Herbine. Isn't it worth trying for the absolute and certain relief you'll get? Sold by all dealers.

Salem affords all the opportunities for religious worship that anyone can ask for. Look over the announcements and prepare to attend church on Sunday.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve Wins.

Tom Moore, of Rural Route 1, Cochran, Ga., writes: "I had a bad sore come on the instep of my foot and could find nothing that would heal it until I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Less than half of a 25 cent box won the day for me by affecting a perfect cure." Sold under guarantee at J. C. Perry's drug store.

Notice to Growers, Shippers and Packers of Fruit.

Your attention is called to the law of this state enacted in 1907 relating to the marking of fruit boxes. Under the provisions of this law every person, firm, association, or corporation engaged in growing, packing or selling green fruits in Oregon is required to mark, stamp or label plainly on the outside of every box or package when packed the name and address of the packer, and if the packer is not the grower, the name and address of the grower as well as of the packer must appear prominently upon the box or package. It is made unlawful for any merchant, shipper or vender to represent that any green fruits were raised, produced or grown by any other person than the one who actually raised them, or that they were raised or grown in any other place or locality than that in which they were actually grown. Any violation of this law is punishable by fine or imprisonment or both and the possession for the purposes of sale of any falsely or illegally marked box or package is made prima facie evidence that the person having such illegally marked box or package is the violator of the law.

All persons are warned to conform with the provisions of this law.

ARMSTRONG,
Fruit Inspector.

Born in Iowa.

Our family were all born and raised in Iowa, and have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (made at Des Moines) for years. We know how good it is from long experience in the use of it. In fact, when in El Paso, Texas, the writer's life was saved by the prompt use of this remedy. We are now engaged in the mercantile business at Narcoossee, Fla., and have introduced the remedy here. It has proven very successful and is constantly growing in favor.—Ennis Bros. This remedy is for sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.

Poison Oak Poisoning.

Ballard's Snow Liniment cures it. Mr. O. H. P. Cornelius, Turner, Ore., writes—My wife has discovered that Snow Liniment cures "Poison Oak Poisoning," a very painful trouble herself, but on two of her friends She not only cured a case of it on who were poisoned by this same ivy. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00.
