FINEST GRILL IN EASTERN OREGON

Spacious Dining Room Finished and Furnished in Flemish Design Throughout.

(Pendleton Tribune.)
One of the swiftest dining rooms in eastern Oregon is being opened to the public this week in the Bowman hotel at the corner of Main and Railroad streets in this city.
Judd Fish, formerly of the Umatilla House at The Dalles and one of the best known and most popular hotel men in the inland empire, who leased the Hotel Bowman May 1, has just fitted up the basement in elegant style and will open a cafe this week.

The spacious dining room, 40x50 feet under the hotel building has been furnished and fitted up at an expense of about $2000 and is one of the most unique rooms in the city.
It is fitted and furnished in the Flemish design throughout. The heavy Flemish furniture, sideboard and shelving were all manufactured at the Forster Planing mill in this city and speaks much for the artistic skill of that mill.

There are 12 large tables, all of which have the heaviest Flemish design with four Flemish chairs to match each, while the pillars and joints are in the Flemish and the entire place is beautifully lighted with electric lights of unique designs.
About the entire room is a shelf filled with rare old Flemish mugs, steins and plates, bearing mottoes and beautifully colored and the room has an artistic and home like appearance throughout. Several of the old fashioned fireplaces add to the beauty of the place and everything has been done to carry out the Flemish design.

The kitchen will be on the upper floor and the orders will be sent to the dining room by means of a dumb waiter or elevator and thus the heat and odors from the cooking will not reach the dining room and bureau of public instruction. The edict also sets forth that hereafter no women shall be admitted to any of the universities.

It is announced the action is the result of the activity on the part of women students in revolutionary movements. The women have been open in their encouragement of the men students in their attacks on the government.

An appeal is being made to the dooms for relief from the effects of the edict.

The students proclaim the czar's order to be "another effect of the government to force the nation back into the dark ages." They denounce it as striding progress and advancement and it is not unusual to hear the opinion expressed that the day has passed in Russia when such arbitrary oppression will be accepted unchallenged.

Some of the shrewdest students of affairs fear the results of the edict and riots would not come as a surprise.

WOMEN'S WOES.

Salem Women Are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and healthy is easily maintained.

Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. Mary Baumgardner, of 424 Water st., Salem, Ore., says: "I have found Doan's Kidney Pills a remedy that is worthy of all confidence and I am pleased to endorse them so that other sufferers from kidney complaint may know how to get relief. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Dr. Stone's drug store and several members of our family have used them with gratifying results. I took them myself for a tired, aching back and a dragging down feeling that comes from irregular and deranged kidneys. The results were of the best. The aching and soreness was banished and the kidneys were rendered normal. My health has become better in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

MINISTER ROASTS THE SMART SET

(United Press Lensed Wire.)

University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., June 22.—"There are women in Boston who send poodles to hear Caruso. They get their dog's nails manicured. Indeed, I have seen doggies taken to ride in coaches for their health. And a maid would go along to hold a parasol over each one."

With this arraignment of Boston's smart set in his baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the University of Oregon the Rev. Herbert S. Johnson, pastor of the Warren street Baptist church of Boston, has created a stir in local society circles, and those who heard the sermon are today discussing with much interest the marked difference between social conditions in the hub city and those under which they live.

The speaker also recalled to the arrangements made for a recent eastern ball, where $100,000 worth of imported butterflies were turned loose to delight the guests. He was dealing with social problems, poodle dogs and aristocracy in contrast with the working people of the country.

"Why, do you know," he asked, "that I have a friend back east who takes city children for fresh air, and that some of them struck because the milk was yellow and rich and not blue and thin like the kind rich children had at home. They are children five years of age in Boston who have never seen a blade of grass. Such as these are mere cogs and pulleys in the world."

The preacher then referred to Boston society leaders and their poodles.

"At a ball in the home of a New Jersey belle, after wine of the costliest kind had been served," he continued, "and after the hall had been decorated with American beauties bought for $12 per dozen, the father turned loose thousands of yellow, gaudy colored butterflies to flutter about until they fell from exhaustion under the feet of the dancers. And these butterflies cost not less than $100,000 while four bucks from that ball room there were women earning through the whole week only $4."

Dr. Johnson graduated from the University of Oregon in 1889. His father was its first president.

TERRIBLE HEAT WAVE IN CHICAGO

Chicago, June 22.—This city today is again in the grip of a terrific heat wave and before noon two deaths and a dozen prostrations were reported.

The weather bureau promises no relief until tonight.

In the business section the pavement sand stone walls are throwing off heat waves and it is so oppressive that it is hardly possible to walk on the streets.

The hospitals have received orders to prepare to give swift attention to heat victims and ambulances are kept in readiness.

Reports from the parking house district say a number of prostrations have occurred there among the foreign workmen.

The torrid atmosphere has given the city, famous for its bustling, a tropical languor.

BAD CHECK

stranger in the city, and that Mr. R. B. Fleming, manager of the penitentiary stove foundry had told him he could get the check cashed at the book store.

Not having the money with him Mr. Patton took the stranger into Haas' drug store where the money was paid to Glenn, Patton endorsing the check. The paper now contained the names of John W. Morgan, R. B. Fleming, Hal Patton and F. G. Haas. It was made out to John W. Morgan and signed by Robert C. Sills worth, and was drawn on the Ladd & Bush bank.

When Haas presented the check at the bank it was refused, and Patton was held liable by Haas. Patton paid the money, but at once set to work to find the miscreant. He went to the penitentiary, gave a description of the forger, and was shown through the gallery where he recognized Glenn's picture. This picture he turned over to Chief Gibson, who at once began work on the case.

Patton heard Saturday evening that Glenn was in town. He encountered him on State street as he was trying to get another $18 check cashed at the Hughes grocery store. Patton offered to cash the check if Glenn would follow him. Patton accompanied the ex-convict up the street where he met Sheriff Culver and Policeman Murphy, to whom Glenn was turned over.

The sheriff locked the forger in the county jail, where he will remain until his case is brought up for trial. As yet, no date has been set for his examination.

Fleming magnanimously came forward and yesterday refunded Patton the $18.

Glenn was arraigned before Judge Webster at 10 o'clock this morning. He waived examination, and the hearing was set for Monday, June 29.

PORTLAND CAR IS HELD-UP

Portland, Or., June 22.—Portland's detective force is today engaged in a man hunt for the lone highwayman who early today held up the crew of a streetcar, relieving the conductor of $35 and taking his and the motorman's watches.

Conductor Cooper and Motorman Mattinen were sitting in the car at the end of the line waiting for the time to start on the last run to the city when the front door opened and a lone bandit, with a mask over his face and a revolver in his hand, entered. Cooper and Mattinen made no resistance. After their pockets had been turned inside out and their valuables taken they resumed their seats, while the robber went his way.

SUPPOSE THIEF IS A CONTRITE PRAYER

(United Press Lensed Wire.)
San Francisco, June 22.—The police are today looking for a woman whom they believe to have been making a practice of robbing wealthy women while at prayer in St. Mary's cathedral here, the largest Catholic church in the west. The latest victim of the mysterious woman burglar is Miss Constance Snowball of Norfolk, Va., who lost a handbag containing $100 in gold and some valuable stones. She rose from her prayer to find that another bag had been substituted for her own. She suspects a woman who was praying next to her.
