City News

Weather—Fair and warmer tonight; Wednesday fair.

When in Portland—Visit "Halls" new restaurant, 330 Wash. St., opposite Imperial hotel.

Wood Cheap—One dollar per wagon load. Refuse material from state fair grounds building. Apply at fair grounds or F. A. Welch, secretary. 6-20-3t.

Josse's New Factory—Is in full blast. Mattresses and couches made to order. All kinds of upholstery and carriage trimming. Furniture of all kinds repaired and polished—made good as new. Leave orders at Josse's store, 371 Court st.

Bridge Ready Friday—If the plans of Contractor Royal are carried out without accident, the big river bridge will be opened for regular traffic Friday morning. A crew of 11 men are at work on the bridge, and it is probable that, beginning tonight, a small night shift will be put to work. At all events the work of repairing the bridge will be completed before the end of the week. Arrangements were made this morning whereby pedestrians may now cross the bridge. By this means fruit may be brought into the city without the delay occasioned by the Polk county farmers having to cross the river on the ferry.

Buy Your Silk Floss Mattresses—From L. U. Josse—We make nothing but the best. 371 Court st.

Confirmation Order—Judge Galloway has issued an order of confirmation in the case of R. V. Harr's vs. Selma E. and J. V. Springer.

Remember—Josse's clean-up sale from now until July 4.

Mill Fire—A small fire broke out this morning in the furnace room of Hansen's plating mill on Mill and Church street. A spark from the furnace flew into the room, catching fire to the sawdust. An alarm was turned in but the fire was extinguished by the workmen before the engine arrived. Very little damage was done.

Underhill Taken Ill—Carl Underhill, the Willamett student, is home from the hospital where he has been recovering from the effects of a serious operation.

Malta Vita, 3 Packages 25c—Eggo-See corn and Eggo-See mush 3 for 25c, also a large package of Eclipse mush 10c at Farrington's, the State street grocer and marketman.

Execution Discharged—Mary D. Arms, executrix in the estate of George B. Arms, deceased, has been discharged, and her bondsmen relieved from further liability.

Fined for Fighting—The cases of Lovel and O'Mera, who were arrested Saturday for fighting on State street were heard before Police Judge Moore Monday morning. Lovel was dismissed and O'Mera was fined $20. It appeared that Bob La Fore attacked Lovel, who blackened both his eyes. La Fore then called O'Mera to help. Another fight ensued, and while it was in progress Chief Gibson came along and arrested the participants.

Smith to Speak—County Superintendent Smith will deliver an address at the alumni banquet at the normal school in Monmouth this evening.

Advertising Salem—The Board of Trade has secured permission from the Southern Pacific Company to erect a sign 10x50 feet on the grounds near the depot, and they will begin work on it in the near future. The sign will advertise the merits of the Cherry city.

Answer Filed—An answer was filed yesterday by E. M. Kightlinger in the case of Mattie Kightlinger versus E. M. Kightlinger. The case is one compelling Kightlinger to appear in court and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt for violating the order of the court requiring him to pay $20 per month for the support of his divorced wife and children.

Southern Espee Officials Here—General Manager O'Brien and Superintendent Fields, of the Southern Pacific company, arrived in Salem in their special car this morning, and visited the local representatives of the company here.

Marriage License—A marriage license was issued yesterday of Earl R. Gribble, aged 28, of Portland and Miss Glorinda Giesy, aged 20, of Aurora.

Divorces—Divorces were granted by Judge Galloway yesterday to Daniel A. Larmer from his wife, Eva A. Larmer, and to John B. Shorey from Zoe I.

Shorey. Decrees in both cases were granted on the default of the defendants.

Would It Be Murder?

Surely two or more qualified doctors should be given legal authority to end a patient's sufferings in an absolutely hopeless case, on the written authority of the patient himself and his nearest relatives or friends. I am aware that no civilized government has sanctioned this course up to the present time, but it has been seriously discussed in America, Mexico, Argentina, Chile and other countries. Bills have at various times been introduced into the legis-
