REPORTS MEAGER.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Calcutta, India, June 26.—Great loss of life resulted from the collision of a freight train and a passenger express according to reports just received here from the scene of the accident. Eight cars were smashed and burned up. The express train was heavily loaded and the incomplete

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, June 26.—An investigation is being made today by the county jail authorities, of a remarkable banquet which took place a few evenings ago, and at which several inmates of the jail made merry over tempting viands as guests of former Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz

GOSSACKS MUST QUIT LEGATION

ENGLAND'S DEMAND

STOPS LOOTING—RUSSIAN GOV-ERNOR OF TEHERAN—EXPECT GOSSACKS WILL END REVOLU-TION—BOMB THROWN.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Teheran, June 26.—The British legation this afternoon demanded that the shah withdraw his Cossacks from the legation grounds by 6 tonight under pain of serious consequences if the demand is not complied with.
Several members of the constitutional party have been refugees there since the battle at the parliament house Thursday and since that time the shah's soldiers have been keeping a close watch over the legation to prevent their escape.
England deems this a rank insult and the shah has been notified unless the soldiers leave by tonight, Great Britain may intervene.
This newest development has a tendency to excite the people, and although there has been no rioting today, there is an air of suppressed excitement abroad that brooks further trouble.

St. Petersburg, June 26.—The latest reports from Teheran indicate that the Shah is suppressing the rebellion. Dispatches received here today say that the Cossacks have been summarily ordered to discontinue looting houses. The Russian colonel of Cossacks has been appointed governor of Teheran and military rule has been established in the city.

The Shah is in intimate personal touch with the situation in all parts of the Persian empire and today issued a statement that he is in complete control everywhere.

Advices received here from other sources indicate that no little apprehension is felt by the imperial troops however, on the outcome of the rebellions in the north and south. The Shah looks to the Cossacks on the way from Tiflis to suppress the rebellion in the north and soldiers have been dispatched south to give battle to the rebels.

An attempt to kill the Shah by a bomb thrower who hurled his bomb at the ruler while he was holding an audience in the palace last night is being investigated today, and several arrests have been made.

The Shah today issued a call for a general election for the house to be held within three months. The call urges the nation to choose capable deputies who can be more useful to the country than the men just ousted by the Shah and contains a strong declaration by the Shah to preserve the constitutional form of government in Persia.

Colonel Leakoff today issued rules for the government of the city during the reign of militarism. No one will be allowed on the streets after 10 at night and keepers must keep open under threat of bombardment.

Many Persian officials are still in foreign legations where they have been granted asylum.

Councilman Wills, of Portland, is the only one thus far to come out openly and declare himself a candidate for the mayoralty of this city.

FAMOUS MEN IN CORTEGE

CLEVELAND FUNERAL

ROOSEVELT, FULLER, CORTE-YOU, HUGHES AND MANY OTHERS IN PROCESSION—TROOPS ACT AS GUARD.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Princeton, N. J., June 26.—As the American flag droops at half-mast round the world and half hour guns are booming at every military station of the nation from Sandy Hook to the Antipodes, a distinguished array of the leading officials and former officials of the United States gathered here today to pay their last respects to Stephen Grover Clevelland, twice President of the United States.

The only sign of military display was the lines of soldiers guarding the route of the cortege and this was for the protection of the living rather than for the honor of the dead president, who loved peace and simplicity.

The old town of Princeton is crowded with a throng such as it never saw before. Thousands have come here to witness the passing of the cortege through the streets. The line was crowded hours before 5 o'clock, the time set for the funeral procession to start.

Mrs Cleveland spent much of her time today with her two elder children, Richard and Esther, who came here from the summer home in New Hampshire. She is bearing up well under the strain and it is believed she will be able to pass through the ordeal safely.

Strictest orders have been issued against the admission of anyone except those in the carriages and three press association representative to the cemetery.

Carriage assignments for the funeral are as follows:

First carriage—Dr. Henry Van Dyke, Dr. W. R. Richards, the Rev.
S. W. Beach and the Rev. M. V.
Bartlett, the four officiating ministers.

Second carriage—Mrs. Cleveland, with Richard Cleveland, her elder son, and Dr. Joseph D. Bryant, the intimate friend and physician of the former president.

Third carriage—Miss Rose Clevelland, sister, and Miss Esther Clevelland, the eldest daughter of the deceased.

President Roosevelt, with Mrs.
Roosevelt and Secretary Loeb will occupy a carriage immediately following those of the family.

Others to whom carriages have been assigned are: Chief Justice Fuller, Secretary Cortelyou, Hilary A. Herbert, secretary of the navy under Cleveland; Judson Harmon of Ohio, attorney general under Clevelland; Governor Hoke Smith of Georgia, secretary of the interior under Cleveland; David R. Francis, of Missouri, also secretary of the interior under Cleveland; Governor Granklin Port, of New Jersey; Governor Chas.
E. Hughes, of New York; John Hays Hammond, the mining engineer, who was a close friend of Cleveland, and other friends. Special provision was made for the servants of the family.

The pall bearers walked beside the hearse. They were: Mayor Geo.
B. McClellan, of New York; Paul

COMPANY SUED FOR BIG SUM

FOR BOY'S INJURIES

WANTS $25,403 DAMAGES
AGAINST WILLAMETTE CON-STRUCTION COMPANY—HIT BY EXPLODING TANK.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Walter Crosby, a minor 12 years of age, has through his guardian, A.
B. Crosby, brought suit in the circuit court against the Willamette Construction company to recover the sum of $25,403 for injuries received by the explosion of a tank of gasoline on the right of way of the Oregon Electric Railway, which runs through the Crosby place a few miles north of this city.

The complaint alleges that Walter and his brothers, aged 12 and 14, respectively, were in the habit of playing along the railroad track near their home. Shortly before the 14th of December, 1907, the construction company placed a large tank of gasoline, containing about 100 gallons, some 50 rods from the Crosby house. The gasoline was used by the workmen to heat the blower which melted the solder for the wires.

According to the complaint, nothing was said about the danger of the tank exploding, and the children were never warned to keep away from it. Young Walter was attracted by the greasy film on the surface of a pool of water in which the tank was sitting. He had often seen the strange liquor burn when the workmen applied a match to it, and out of curiosity the boy struck a match to see if he could light the liquid in the pool.

The air was so saturated with gas that it ignited. The explosion was communicated to the gasoline in the tank, which also exploded, bursting the rivets and blowing off the lid.
The lid struck the boy in the leg, breaking it and otherwise seriously injuring him, so that, the complaint states, he will be crippled for life.
The doctor's bills amounted to $403, and in addition to this the plaintiff asks for the payment of $25,000. H.
Overton and Frank Holmes are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

NEWS FROM ALL OVER

THE ROUND WORLD

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Bryan is again claiming the Democratic convention by a two-thirds vote.

The recent decision of the interstate commerce commission practically reducing the lumber rate on all roads from 15 to 25 per cent will be appealed to the federal courts.

The story is given out that Sherman was nominated vice president by Cannon and Woodruff, whose puppet it is claimed he will be.

The house at 239 Arch street, Chicago, which legend says was the home of Betsy Ross, maker of the first American flag, has been branded a fake and is not among the 30 historical landmarks selected by the historical committee.

Harvard won the great race Yale yesterday.

The underwriters have raised 25 per cent rate in insurance in Portland because of the many buildings.

BANKERS CAPTURE THE TOWN

LARGE ATTENDANCE

BANKERS AND THEIR LADIES GIVEN THE FREEDOM OF THE CITY BY MAYOR RODGERS—FLOWERS AND FLAGS FOR THE PLACES OF MEETING.

The bankers' convention has filled the city with solid looking gentlemen representing the banking houses of Oregon, with a sprinkling of well-dressed delegates from the larger cities, like Chicago, New York and San Francisco.

The Elks hall where the convention was called to order at 11 a. m. was lavishly decorated with flags and roses, and the Willamette hotel, which is designated as headquarters, is also beautifully dressed with flowers, the gift of public spirited citizens.

by McElroy's orchestra and solos by talented artists and toasts.

The Mayor's Speech.
Mayor Rodgers referred to their last visit to this city, when the bankers came to Salem on a mid-train to pay their respects to the governor and for the next months scarcely paid anything (Laughter.)

A newspaper friend of the marked that this gathering was intelligent enough to be fully in some of his re-
