

Cottolene

Shortens your food Lengthens your life

Cottolene is a cleanly, wholesome product. It is made from cotton-seed oil, in a thoroughly modern and hygienic manner, and is just as pure as olive oil. It, moreover, makes palatable, digestible, healthful food which will agree with the most delicate stomach. Lard food on the contrary, is indigestible, and will cause trouble if its use is persisted in.

Cottolene is endorsed by the most prominent cooks and household economists of the country, as well as by those of the medical profession who make a special study of pure food. There is no substitute for Cottolene, because there is no shortening so good as Cottolene. It stands alone, as everyone who has used it according to directions will verify.

Cottolene is Guaranteed We hereby authorize your grocer to refund your money in case you're not pleased after having given COTTOLENE a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk COTTOLENE is packed in pails with a patent air-tight top, to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome; also to prevent it from absorbing the disagreeable odors of the grocery, such as fish, oil, etc.

NEWSPAPERMAN NEARLY NAMED VICE-PRESIDENT

Now that it is all over, it transpires that with no campaign fund or organization back of him a clever Washington correspondent, J. C. Welliver formerly of Iowa, nearly won for Iowa the honor of furnishing Taft's running mate on the Republican ticket. Only the fear of losing strength for the party in New York state defeated his bold, single handed attempt to secure the nomination for Iowa, in spite of that state's "certainty." Welliver is political editor of the Washington

Times, an authority on railroad taxation matters and withal a person of acumen and skill which President Roosevelt recognized by a special commission to make an investigation in Europe last year. Prior to coming to the convention he had forecasted in correspondence the probability that Senator Dolliver's name would be considered; this caused a great stir in Iowa because of the factional situation that was involved in the probable boosting of Governor Cummins to Senator Dolliver's shoes should Dolliver be elected vice-president. The political wheel horses hurried here and from his first day in Chicago Welliver was the center of one of the hottest fights of the convention, one beneath the surface. Even up to the eve of the vice presidential nomination Welliver was the liveliest wire in the contests and politicians will never cease to be amazed at what one man and his pencil was able to accomplish in national affairs.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup is the one that children like so well to take as it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It acts gently yet freely on the bowels and thereby it drives the cold out of the system. It is sold by all druggists.

LOCAL BALL

BY JOCK

On next Sunday afternoon the mixers of "merry juice" for the local saloons and the fuzz cutters employed in the different tansorial parlors, will set aside all their natural abhorrence of stained hands and good old dirt, and take a whirl at the great national game of ball, and a very likely collection of ball 'artists' will face each other on the South Salem grounds at 2:30 Sunday p. m.

The battery for the bartenders is "Sweed" Miller and Batty Cooper, and Brietzke and Neer will hold the fort for the latter slingers. Miller, the slabster for the bartenders, has a hard-glass rep, although his toe plate is a little rusty, and his curve ball breaks in his hand too often due to lack of practice. Batty Cooper, the receiver for the refreshment distributors, is the catching kid, and his actions next Sunday will no doubt prove a credit to him. The barber twist artist will also show up to a good advantage, he having traveled around in tolerably fast company heretofore.

The respective teams are composed of players thoroughly acquainted with the how and way of playing the game, but their knowledge of the rule book may be just a little neglected owing to the fact that the majority of the players have abandoned professional ball.

The line-up of the two aggregations is as follows:

Bartenders	Barbers
Cooper	Neer
Miller	Brietzke
Sauvaine	Miles
Will Nushbaum	Howard
Joe Nushbaum	Booth
Stotter	Corsey
Struter	Fitzgrater
West	Gibson
Simpson	Wilcox

Subs: For bartenders, Towland, Wiley, Fishburn, Swartz and Orey.

The Cherry Pickers will let loose at the East Portland aggregation on next Sunday at the local league grounds. The local team have three new men on the team, they being Joe Fay, well known here as a first-class ball artist. Johnson, formerly with the Frakes team of Portland, and an all round good player, and Roberts of Oregon City. Roberts will undoubtedly throw the game for Salem Sunday. Curtis Coleman is also expected to play with the local Tri-City team Sunday.

CONVENTION WAS GOLD MINE FOR CHICAGO

Chicago, June 26.—That the Republican national convention was a million dollar prize for Chicago is shown by this balance sheet:

Receipts—
Retail houses	$ 550,000
Thirst emporiums	300,000
Hotels	150,000
Entertaining of Chicagoans	200,000
	$1,200,000
Cost	150,000

Profit $1,050,000
According to C. M. Treat, secretary of the convention bureau of the Chicago Association of Commerce, the visitors numbered 50,000, but John C. Roth, president of the Hotel Keepers' association, says they did not number more than 10,000, it being a fact worthy of note that the railroads issued no passes to this convention and did not reduce rates much, their failure to do so being to some extent made up by the 2-cent-a-mile rates that prevail in the Chicago territory. The real convention was held, as some one has remarked, in the big lake front hotels which were overcrowded with guests, visitors and high tension confabs. The marching clubs, which spent large sums to attend the convention, were lavish spenders and feeling runs high because there was a failure to furnish the members with seats at the Coliseum. The Philadelphia Marching club, for instance, paid out $22,000 for their expenses and this was about a fair average for the others. Everyone benefitted by the convention, the butcher, the bakers and candlestick maker, the dealers in the necessary commodities more than the rest, and the hotel men, provision men and restaurant keepers most.
