GRAND ARMY ENCAMPMENT AT NEWPORT

Was the Most Successful Held in the History of the Order---Roster of the Members Attending---Flag Presentation to the Public Schools

The Capital Journal gives space below for the results of the encampment of the Grand Army at Newport, the famous summer resort on Yaquina Bay, and a copy of the roster of the veterans attending. A copy of this paper goes to every one who address we can procure in the state, and the same will be preserved in many a scrap book of the members of the organizations represented. Newport was voted the most delightful place for the old soldiers and their wives to assemble, and many a veteran sighed for a cottage by the sounding sea to spend the remainder of his days. Years would be added to the lives of many of them could they spend their declining years by the seashore.
