City News

Weather— Fair tonight and Friday cooler.

When in Portland— Visit "Halls" new restaurant, 330 Wash. St., opposite Imperial hotel.

Cherry Fair Committee— All members of the Cherry Fair committee together with all parties interested in the fair who are willing to boost along are requested to meet at the Board of Trade rooms tonight at 8 o'clock.

Denial by Nusbaum— The proprietor of the Nusbaum saloon wishes to deny that the row in which one Townsend assaulted another man with a rock took place in his saloon or in the rear of the same. He says the two men had a row about an hour before and he promptly put them both out of his place. They then had further trouble in the alley. Saloon men of this city are becoming sensitive to criticism and are trying to keep out all disorderlies, as the city council shows a determination to enforce the law about cancelling licenses of such places. It is but justice to the Nusbaum saloon to correct the statement made in this paper that the assault was committed in his place.

Peery Bound Over— W. O. Peery, who was arrested last week, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, appeared before Justice Webster this morning, and waived examination. He was bound over to the grand jury under a $500 bond, in default of which he is remaining in the county jail pending the action of the grand jury.

Schreiber Demurs— In the case of August Schreiber, charged with selling liquor to a minor on July 4, Kaller & Pogue, attorneys for the defendant, filed a demurrer to the charge in the police court this morning. The demurrer will be argued at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, when the date for trial will be set.

Salem Canoe Club Picnic— Canoe artists of Capital City are planning a week-end trip to Albany. The members of the Salem Canoe club are a jolly bunch and there will be one continual round of pleasure from the time they set out from here Saturday night until they return Sunday night or Monday morning. The party will consist of the following members and their friends: Russell Smith, Clifford Benson, Ivan

Turner, Dan Allen, Chester Cox, Victor Allen, Spencer Hunt and wife (chaperone), Mrs. Mondell, Portland; Bertha Prim, Jacksonville; Bertha Allen and Mildred Turner. The canoes will be shipped on the steamer Saturday night and "the bunch" will go by rail.

Committed to Asylum— Lydia A. Adams, 32 years of age, who lived at 1591 Broadway, was committed to the asylum this afternoon. The cause of her insanity is unknown.

McNary in Dallas— District Attorney McNary is in Dallas today arguing against a motion for a new trial in the Hembree murder case.

Charged With Insanity— A warrant was sworn out yesterday by L. B. Hixon, charging J. K. P. Warrens with insanity.

Divorce Suit— Rachel A. Meakin filed a suit for divorce against her husband yesterday, on the grounds of desertion. H. Overton appears as attorney for the plaintiff.

Regular Meeting— The monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will be held in the church parlors Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Bennett Under Big Bond— At the preliminary hearing at Woodburn yesterday Brittain Bennett, charged with committing a criminal assault upon his 10-year-old niece was bound over to the sheriff and the bond fixed at $5000. He will remain in the county jail pending his trial in the circuit court.

Baker Goes to Asylum— John Scheret, who came here recently from Minnesota, was committed to the asylum yesterday afternoon. The cause was given as overwork and home-sickness. Scheret was a baker by trade, and was 25 years old.

Moreland Buys Orchard— Judge J. C. Moreland has purchased a 10-acre apple orchard in the Hood River country.

Goode Buys Newspaper— Professor H. N. Goode, for many years a well known resident of Salem, and who has been a school teacher for the past few years, has purchased a half interest in the Silverton Appeal.

Jim Lawrence Is the Grocer— Who satisfies his customers. Let him try to satisfy you. Phone 311.

Summer Is Here— And its time to discard that hot felt hat. If you can't afford a new straw or Panama, you can get the old one cleaned by Johnson & Stege to look like new.

The Best Place— To get your meat this hot weather is at the most sanitary market. Go to Steusloff's for the best. Phone 321.

We Are Still Hollering— To patronize home industry and Wild Rose flour is made in Salem. Try a sack.

Impanel Jury— In accordance with the new law passed at the recent election, Judge Burnett will empanel a grand jury next Monday at the opening of the July term.

Salem Wireless Station— It is probable that a wireless telegraph station will be installed in Salem in the near future. H. H. Cobb of the Wireless Telegraph company was in town yesterday, and stated that after the station was put in at Portland, a branch station would be installed here.

Appraise Darby Estate— J. H. Porter and T. W. Gentry, appraisers in the estate of Sarah A. Darby, have filed their report showing the estate as valued at $2350.

Convict Minstrel Show— The minstrel show given by the convicts of the State's prison, in the prison dining room, Tuesday night was a great success, and was witnessed by about 330 people. The money realized from the sale of tickets will be used in the prisoners' amusement fund.

Good For Larson— In response to an advertisement in this paper a well-to-do business man of Stayton came in to consult Dr. Larson, the vibration expert, but after investigation Dr. Larson told him he did not think he could do anything for him. This is creditable to Larson, as it goes to show he is not an unscrupulous quack who pretends that he can work cures for everything and everybody.

Runs Two Houses— J. T. Wentworth who runs a jobbing fruit and grocery business at Albany and Salem was in the city a few days this week. He has built up a large jobbing trade in the Willamette valley in his line, and seems to enjoy the confidence of the trade.

Going to Newport— Sales from Salem average from ten to twenty tickets a day for Newport. The two trains a day enable people desiring to go to the popular summer resort for all the Willamette valley to travel in the cool of the day and not have to wait at Albany. D. W. James went over yesterday with his son Lowell and his family will follow. Mrs. John Watson went over yesterday and her husband will follow after a while.

Visit from Mother— Lee Cronn, who lives out on the Jefferson road six miles south of Salem, is enjoying a visit from his mother, Mrs. Catherine Cronn of Michigan. It is her first visit in Oregon, she having spent some time with her daughter at Everett, Wash. Her son Lee wants her to make her permanent home with him.

Attorney-General in Laidlaw— Attorney-General Crawford is today in Laidlaw, Crook county, to take testimony in the case of the state vs. the Three Sisters Irrigation company, the Columbia Southern Irrigation company, the Columbia Southern Irrigating company, and W. A. Laidlaw. The attorney-general is accompanied by J. H. Lewis, state engineer, J. K. Kollock, attorney for the receiver of the Columbia Southern Irrigating company, and T. W. Muir of Portland, attorney for the irrigating company.

Asbestos Ore— W. T. Rindon has received a sample of asbestos from Ben Taylor of Elmerado county, Cal., for many years a well known resident of this city. Ben discovered an asbestos mine the other day while on the way to his gold mine which he is working. He took about 100 pounds of asbestos out of the mine, and will use it to cover the steam pipes in his engine room. Taylor also sent some very fine samples of quartz.

W. R. C. Presented Banners— The Woman's Relief Corps of the Department of Oregon did two very graceful acts at the state encampment held recently at Portland. They presented a beautiful silk banner costing $50 to the Department Headquarters of the Grand Army of this state, and they also presented a fine flag to the public schools of Newport. It was reported that this latter presentation was made by the Ladies of the G. A. R., another patriotic auxiliary of the Union Veterans Union, but it was by the W. R. C., and in justice to them this correction is made.

Edwards Gets Team— At a meeting of the managers of the local Tri-City league team last evening, the franchise for the remainder of the year was leased by Harry Albert and George Meyer to Dave Edwards, captain of the Cherry Pickers. It is the intention of Edwards to strengthen the team by engaging some of the best local talent. The first game under Edwards' management will be played with East Portland on the local diamond next Sunday.

County Judge Bushey yesterday issued a decree discharging Abram B. Tucker, administrator of the estate of Edwin M. Tucker, deceased, and releasing his bondsmen from further liability.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to J. M. Jones, aged 26, and Orella Tompson, aged 23, both of Salem.

Meeting Tonight— The Cherry Fair committee meets at the Board of Trade rooms tonight. A special meeting of the Business Men's league has been called tonight to put life into the Stayton-Salem electric railroad project.

Cannery Running on Cherries— The Salem Mutual Canning company has about 200 hands at work on cherries. A better quality of Royal Annes is coming in, as the first ones were affected by the late rains.

Good Band Concert— The Salem Military band under the direction of H. N. Stoudenmeyer, entered a large and appreciative audience last night. It was one of the best concerts of the season and those who stayed away missed a treat. The boys showed great improvement and deserve all the encouragement that can be given.
