AMERICANS PROTEST AGAINST SCORING METHOD—WOULD HAVE MADE ENGLAND WINNER—U. S. STILL CHAMPION.

(United Press Leased Wire.) London, July 17.—Protest against the method of scoring the Olympic games resulted today in the announcement that no championship award will be made this year. Seeing that it would be hopeless to attempt to get the competing teams to agree upon any one system of scoring Lord Desborough, chairman of the London Olympic association, (Continued on page five.)

MURDERER SUDDENLY APPEARS

AND DISAPPEARS

MAN SOUGHT BY THREE POSSES WALKS INTO TOWN ASKS FOR BEER AND RETURNS TO THE WOODS.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Marysville, Cal., July 17.—Heavily armed and bearing evidences of having traveled far without much nourishment, Adolph Jules, the Italian murderer who last Tuesday killed two men in Western Pacific camp No. 20 in the Big Bar hills, boldly walked into the town of Merrimac last night, went to a store and asked for a bottle of beer. On being told that there was no beer for sale, he struck off again into the woods before anyone had time to give an alarm.

Merrimac is one the boundary between Plumas and Butte counties and today posesses from both counties are looking for the man. The officers are working towards each other and are confident of bagging their quarry before night.

Jules possessed the boldness born of desperation last night. Everyone in the country is looking for the murderer and he took big chances in going into Merrimac. He walked right up the main street with his rifle over his shoulder and two pistols hanging from his belt. His clothing was torn almost to shreds as though he had scrambled through the underbrush in his long tramp. His face was covered with unkempt beard and drawn with hunger and thirst. As soon as the alarm had been spread about Merrimac, word was sent to Sheriff Chubbuck who was at Oroville attending the inquest over the bodies of the murdered men. He immediately wired to Quincy and two deputy sheriffs were sent out from Buck's ranch.

Meanwhile, Sheriff Chubbuck left Oroville on a rail auto over the Western Pacific tracks for Berry creek. There he organized a posse and struck out this morning toward Merrimac to meet the Plumas county posse coming in.

The original posse sent out from Oroville Tuesday night is still searching the country south and east of Big Bar. Chubbuck stated before he started out this morning that he expects to round up the murderer before night. He anticipates a stiff fight, however, and it is likely that the Italian will never allow himself to be taken alive.

Late Bulletin.

Marysville, Cal., July 17.—Adolph Jules, who murdered two men at camp No. 20 of the Western Pacific railroad, was captured this afternoon just over the line in Plumas county. Only meager reports have been received but they say Jules put up a hard fight. He was surrounded by members of the posse and taken at a disadvantage. The Italian at Big Bar camp began talking of a lynching as soon as they heard that Jules had been captured.

Dr. Edwin Cyclone Southern dressed like the traditional devil delivered a lecture at Gladstone Park yesterday, entitled "If I Were the Devil." Must have been a hot number.

KILLS WHOLE FAMILY

BY HYPNOTISM

ONE AFTER ANOTHER DROPS DEAD WHEN LOOKED UPON BY GIRL, WHO IS BELIEVED UNDER HYPNOTIST'S POWER.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Cincinnati, Or., July 17.—Suspected of killing a whole family by hypnotic power, Louis Wollweber, son of a San Francisco patrolman, is in prison here today. The authorities believed the man used his power through the medium of his alleged accomplice, Grace Billingsby, a girl of 20.

The pair are being held on the charge of murdering Robert Singleton, an aged justice of the peace. It is alleged they enticed the old man into a room a year ago for the purpose of working a badger game. Singleton died in the room.

ENGLISH TRADE IS BEING FORCED FROM FAR EAST—MAY JOIN U. S. TO DEAL WITH ORIENTALS.

(United Press Leased Wire.) London, July 17.—Evidence of growing unfriendliness between England and Japan appeared today in the announcement that the house of commons shortly will take formal notice of the charges that Japan is gradually crowding British commerce from Korea and Manchuria.

The suggestion that the United States and England form an agreement in regard to the action to be taken in Oriental affairs has been frequently made.

Wollweber was arrested at Boston and the girl caught at Chicago a short time ago. While Singleton's son was signing an information charging them with murder he dropped dead; a suicide, it was said.

While handing a bible to the accused girl, Mrs. E. F. Jones, daughter of the murdered justice, dropped dead yesterday. Mrs. Singleton, widow of the murdered man's son, is at the point of death today and one of the detectives who brought Wollweber here from Boston is seriously ill.

Mrs. Jones went to the county jail yesterday to call upon the accused girl and offer her spiritual comfort. She carried a small bible which she intended to present to the prisoner. The Billingsby girl was before the grand jury and had not returned to the prison and Mrs. Jones started home. On the way she met the girl in company with two officers. Stepping up to the trio, Mrs. Jones handed the bible to the girl and then fell dead at her feet.

Wollweber declares the suspicion commercial interests, as charged in the complaint which are made here repeatedly, is unpleasant to big British interests engaged in Oriental trade.

This is the first time that the government has taken notice of the situation, however, though much has been published concerning it in the London newspapers.

In diplomatic circles the situation is looked upon as being of tremendous importance. There is a belief here that America and Japan are still in danger of breaking off their cordial relations. Japan has the bitter ill-will of China. Russia has not forgotten the war. It is intimated that England's attention might be led to a weakening of the British-Japanese alliance, on the ground that Japan's methods in Manchuria and Korea are unfriendly to England.

that he has caused the trial of death through some strange power is ridiculous—but Miss Billingsby asserts that ever since she met the man he has exercised some evil influence over her.
