City News

Weather—Probably showers tonight or Tuesday; not so warm Tuesday. The highest mark reached by the mercury yesterday fell several points shy of the record hot day, for the thermometer registered only 96 degrees at its highest point.

The Safest Place—To get your meats these hot days is at Stensloff Bros. sanitary market. Their meats are kept in the most sanitary condition and you may feel safe what you order there will be only the freshest and most wholesome. Phone 221.

Wild Rose Flour—Is reliable. It is always the same, and can be depended upon. Try a sack and patronize a home industry.

No Matter—What kind of weather J. M. Lawrence always has the best in the grocery line. Phone 211.

Lucas Funeral—The funeral services of Grandpa Lucas were performed at his home in South Salem yesterday afternoon in a most impressive manner, they being under the supervision of Rev. Babcock, assisted by Revs. Errett and Belknap at the house, and were conducted by the old soldier at the grave. Rev. Babcock dwelt upon the past life of Captain Lucas in some well chosen words, and his kind condolences to the sorrowing relatives and friends was appreciated greatly. Rev. Errett and Rev. Belknap followed with prayer. At the cemetery the burial services were performed by the veterans and their wives in the regular military manner. The fourtokens, the evergreen, the white rose, the laurel and the flag were presented by the comrades, and Mrs. Robinson sang the well known song, "Lay Him Low" in a very touching manner.

Limbach Not Guilty—The jury in the case of the state vs. Martin Limbach, charged with assault and battery, returned a verdict of not guilty Saturday afternoon. Limbach was convicted in the police court at Silverton, and the case was appealed. Thomas Brown conducted the case for Limbach, and Walter Winslow appeared for the state.

Rifle Range Concert—The Salem Military Band will play at the rifle shooting held at the rifle range this evening. The members of the band will leave on a launch at the foot of State street at 7 o'clock, and will give a concert at about 7:30.

Grand Jury Inspection—The grand jury visited the penitentiary this morning. Saturday the members inspected the asylum and the poor farm. They made their report and adjourned shortly after noon today.

Rough Arrested—No charge has yet been placed against John Yates, the man who was arrested during the Mardi Gras Saturday night for knocking down Mrs. Freake, an old lady who lives on Water street between Court and State. According to Chief Gibson Yates was half drunk and was stealing confetti from one of the girls who was selling it. The girl requested him to desist, but he refused. She then called a man to her assistance. When Yates returned to steal another handful of confetti the man who had volunteered protection to the young lady promptly knocked the boozey man down. He regained his feet after much difficulty and ran down the street, scattering the merry makers right and left. Mrs. Freake was not able to get out of the man's way and he ran over her. The elder woman this morning lies in a very serious condition.

Labor Inspector Here—Labor Inspector W. B. Chance of Albany came to the city this morning. On account of the rush of business in the office of the labor commissioner, Mr. Chance will take charge of the inspection work here.

Goodell Comes to Salem—Judge John Goodell, United States commissioner at Kakt, Alaska, is in the city with his wife and two boys, and they intend to make Salem their home for some time. Judge Goodell, who is a brother-in-law of Secretary of State Benson and of W. H. Perkins, came here for the benefit of the health of one of his sons.

PALMER CASE IS TO BE APPEALED—Counsel for Palmer in the suit for damages against the Portland General Electric gave notice in open court of their intention to take an appeal from the non-suit granted by Judge Burnett and the case may go to the supreme court.

Uniform Apple Pack—At a meeting of the Willamette Valley Apple Growers' association held Saturday in the Board of Trade rooms, it was decided not to enter the market actively this year. The annual apple fair was also postponed until 1909.

The most important action of the apple growers was their decision to adopt a uniform pack. The Lowndale pack will in the future be the official pack of the Willamette Valley Apple Growers' association, and a uniform label will be printed, which can be used by all the members of the association.

PERSONAL

R. S. Clapp of Grant, Union county, has been in the city seeing old friends. He was formerly a motor-man at Salem, but is now firing on the O. R. & N. road, which pays better but is a great deal hotter job.

W. F. Buckner, the South Salem fiddler man, was a business visitor to Portland this morning on the electric.

Frank Swayne, of the Edisona theater, took the electric for Portland today.

W. A. Carter returned to Portland this morning after a few days' visit with his brother-in-law, Frank Hughes of this city. Mr. Carter is ex-grand master of the Odd Fellows lodge of Oregon.

H. S. Gille left for Portland today on business.

Johnny Krebs went to the Krebs farms this morning to remain for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thielsen and baby are spending a few weeks at Seaside.

Mrs. C. Amy of Stockton, Cal., will arrive here Wednesday to spend a month with friends and relatives.

Jay Thompson, E. J. Arnold's foreman, followed the Arnold show to Portland this morning. Mr. Thompson has many friends in this city.

Col. Yoran and Major Hamlin of Roseburg and Major Hammond of Eugene arrived last evening to attend the shooting tournament.

Robert McCar returned to Portland yesterday after velveting the cherry exhibit here.

W. P. Babcock and Benny Tamplin are up on the Santiam casting for the speckled beauty.

Frank Ford of Lake Labish was in the city today transacting business and shaking hands with friends.

Dr. Roy Byrd and Lloyd Hauser are up in the Elkhorn country spending a few weeks hunting and fishing.

Paul Hauser, the sporting goods man, returned from Portland today, after looking up some more canoe for Salem enthusiasts.

Bud Hill returned to his work in Eugene today after visiting here for a short time.

Mrs. E. Weller was a Newport passenger on the noon train today.

Amos Vass went to Newport today for a short outing.

Ross Cooper and wife left today for Fish Lake to enjoy a few weeks' fishing.

Railroad Commissioner West and Campbell departed for Albany this morning after attending the Degree of Honor lodge meeting recently held here.

Mrs. L. Kelly of Dallas passed through this city today returning from a visit with friends in Woodburn.

Henry Toland and wife and baby left Saturday for Seattle on a few weeks' visit.

Former Salem Boy Marries.

The following is taken from a Portland paper of Sunday:

"On Wednesday last, at 284 Park street, W. N. Ostrander and Miss May Folck were married by Rev. J. Bowersox. They have gone to visit friends at Silverton and at Salem. After August 1 they will be at home to their friends at 162 East Thirty-fourth street."

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Ostrander of this city, and is well known here.

Card of Thanks.

We desire in this manner to thank the friends who so kindly assisted in the sickness and death of our beloved husband and father.

Mrs. R. B. Lucas and family.
