

WHITE CAPS MAY CAUSE TROUBLE

Louisville, Ky., July 29.—Officials of the Illinois Central railroad today took precaution against the fulfillment of threats made by night riders to wreck trains unless the militia men, encamped upon railroad property, be ordered to evacuate immediately.

Following the threat of the riders and appeal was made to Governor Wilson. The railroad refused to withdraw the troops, saying that the commonwealth must be considered before private rights.

The situation in Western Kentucky is growing more strained daily, and it is feared that a clash between the state troops and night riders will occur before the week is ended.

STUDENTS ONLY CAN GET OLD MASTERS

Chicago, July 29.—Artists here today are discussing the ruling of the attorney-general prohibiting editors from sending reproductions of old masters, in the "altogether" through the mails, except to art students.

The opinion was handed down in the case of Editor Campbell, of the Fine Arts Journal, which was recently barred from the mails, but later admitted upon the representation that it was principally read by artists. After this decision, Campbell became so elated that he advertised that he would issue a free print of the nude picture "La Source." This the attorney-general forbids, declaring that such pictures can only be mailed when included in a magazine.

CUPID OUTWITS KAISER

Berlin, July 30.—Kaiser Wilhelm learned today that he had been outwitted and defeated by cupid, and was forced to admit the victory of the little god of love in the face of the imperial mandate of the great emperor, for Marie Sulzer, the former dance hall queen, has been wife of Prince Joachim of Prussia since August 15, of last year.

The wedding was made known this afternoon for the first time, and the news came as a great shock to royalty and society in general in Berlin.

When it became known a year ago that the prince intended to marry the dancer, who then was the Baroness Bieberg, the kaiser used every means to discourage the match. Failing to convince the lovelorn prince that he was making a mistake, he issued an order banishing Joachim to Africa. He firmly believed that a year on the southern continent would cool his ardor, and make him listen to reason.

Marie at that time had only recently divorced Baron Bieberg, and paid him $7500 to allow her to retain the title, in order that she might be eligible to marry the prince.

It became known today that when the kaiser banished the prince, she hurried to Paris, where they met. They then proceeded to Zurich, where the wedding ceremony was performed.

AMERICANS TO PAY TRIBUTE TO DORANDO

London, July 30.—Mathew Spill, manager of the American Olympic team, announced today that when he returns to America he will raise a fund for the purpose of purchasing a trophy to be presented to Dorando, the Italian runner, who finished first in the Marathon race, but was disqualified.

The Americans were greatly impressed by the great run by Dorando, and think it is worthy of some mark of distinction, even though his enthusiastic admirers carried him over the tape, and he could not claim the victory, according to the rules.

The attitude taken by Dorando in accepting the result in a manly manner has won widespread admiration for him.

It Helps the Women.

Thousands of women find their household duties burdensome. They rise in the morning without feeling rested, the appetite fails and strength is insufficient for the ordinary duties of the home. What is the meaning of this condition? Simply that the blood, which is intended to supply life and nourishment to the organs of the body is impoverished. A great change is wrought by enriching and vitalizing the blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla. A large proportion of the most wonderful testimonials written in favor of this medicine come from women to whom it has given strength, vigor and vitality. Hood's Sarsaparilla gently tones the stomach and digestive organs, creates an appetite and in this way imparts physical strength. By making the blood rich and pure, and puts the whole system in a healthy condition. The worst cases of scurvy, salt-rheum, blood poison and all humors, boils, pimples and eruptions yield to its power. It cures dyspepsia, catarrh, rheumatism, malaria, that tired feeling and builds up the debilitated system after serious illness.

HIG BROKER HAS SUSPENDED OPERATIONS

San Francisco, July 29.—Frederick Dorr, stock broker, entertainer, member of the New York Stock and Cotton exchanges, and other exchange in this city and Chicago, manager of broker concerns in five Western cities, has suspended operations. This announcement, which was made by his local manager, B. G. Lathrop, last night, has created no little surprise on the stock exchange here.

Lathrop explained that Dorr is not financially embarrassed, and that the suspension is but temporary. In a statement to Lathrop from Chicago, Dorr denied that he would go out of business. He stated that his business affairs are in good shape.

Dorr had offices in this city, Los Angeles, Denver, Butte, Mont., and in Spokane.

NO BILL OF HEALTH SKIPPER FINED $25,000

San Francisco, July 30.—Captain R. Paessler, skipper of the Kosmos liner Assuan, will have to pay a fine of $25,000 for failure to secure a bill of health when he brought his vessel into the harbor, unless Washington intervenes.

The law provides that a fine of $5000 shall be imposed upon a skipper who brings his vessel into an American port without a bill of health. Captain Paessler made four ports besides his home port. His fine has been fixed at $25,000 by Collector Stratton. A report of the case has been forwarded to Washington.

REPORT OF JAPS' CAMPS STOCKED WITH ARMS

San Jose, Cal., July 30.—Citizens here are alarmed over a story that the Japanese laboring camps in this section of the state are all stocked with arms. The report says that a citizen of San Jose once gained access to the interior of one of the camps, and that he saw a room filled with firearms. The interior of the Japanese labor camps is ordinarily inaccessible to white men, and great secrecy is maintained about what goes on inside.

KILLS HIMSELF BY GRAVE OF MOTHER

San Francisco, July 30.—Sitting on the side of his mother's grave in Laurel Hill cemetery, Almarin B. Paul, Jr., a well-known real estate man and mining engineer, yesterday shot himself through the head. A note left to his wife explained that he was despondent and financially depressed.

The letter says: "My Dearest Sarah: As an honest and last dying word, your accusations in your letter of the 18th are wrong. My promise to you was kept. My heart is broken. Never allow Walker to borrow a cent. I am in my true mind. This is not an act of insanity, but I must seek comfort with my mother, and dear Lloyd. Many kisses and much love to you, Walker and Katharine. Thank your people for me for their assistance to you. Lovingly, Almie."

HUSBAND HAS RIGHT TO SWEAR AT HOME.

(United Press Lensed Wire.)
Orange, N. J., July 29.—After securing a ruling from the court that a man may swear to his heart's content within the walls of his home, Wilfred Thomas Wright is happy today, while his wife is worrying about the future of her children.

Mrs. Wright recently heard her little boy following the example of his father, whose profanity she declares to be unequalled. She argued with the head of the house, but her anti-profanity crusade came to naught. Then she appealed to the court, but Police Justice Bray, before whom the case was called, decided that Wright had a right to swear as long as he did not do it in public.

Admits Big Theft.
New York, July 30.—Admitting that they spent $47,000 belonging to the Eagle Savings and Loan Company, of Brooklyn, in Western mining scheme, Quarantine Commissioner Frederick H. Schroeder and Colonel Edward Earle Britton are under arrest today.

Colonel Britton is the president of the company and Schroeder is a director. They said they took the money, expecting to pay it back before the shortage was discovered. The money has been taken in sums ranging from $9000 to $2500.
