

Tomorrow will be the final windup of one of the most successful sales ever attempted by this store. For the last time we advise all to take advantage of the money-saving opportunities that now await you. Thousands of articles from every department of this big store with prices reduced one-third and one-half. Some of these you sure need.

Colored Kid Gloves

Regular $3.50 values reduced to $1.88

Regular $4.00 values, reduced to $1.98

$1.25 and $1.75 Fownes and Kayser Silk Gloves in black and assorted colors. Special 5c

Shoe Specials

Smoked Horse Hide Barefoot Sandals.

$1.75 values— Now $1.35

$1.50 values— Now $1.15

$1.00 values— Now 75c

Ladies' White Canvas Oxfords. Special 98c

Men's Canvas Shoes and Oxfords. Special $1.10

Three Pairs Black Lace Hose

Mannish Tailored Suits

These Suits arrived too late for the Spring showing and the fabrics are not too light for fall wear. Tan Suit, light blue stripe line, pointed jacket, $30.00 value— Now $11.85

White Duck Wash Skirts and Petticoats

$1.25 values— July Clearing Sale 94c

Japanese Hand Painted Umbrellas, special,

Advertisement for Jos. Meyers & Sons, GOOD GOODS, featuring a price of $1.00 and $2.98.

PERSONAL MENTION

Those leaving for Newport Wednesday were J. A. Todd, Tom Key, A. L. Moore, Attorney C. M. Inman and wife, J. C. Collard and family, George Francis, T. L. Murphy and daughter Alice, and Mrs. Floyd Brooks of Portland.

TEAM TO GO EAST IS NAMED

Competition for places on the team that will represent the Oregon National Guard in the national rifle shoot, to be held at Camp Perry, Ohio, next month, stopped yesterday afternoon, and those who made the team were announced last night by Captain Scott, after a conference with Adjutant-General Finzer, in Portland.

RAILROAD TRAINING

Los Angeles, Cal., July 30.—Reports made today by the men appointed by the Southern Pacific company to train its employees to avoid accidents show that great progress is being made.

Lynching Followed by Guilt

Pensacola, Fla., July 30.—The body of Leander Shaw, a negro who was lynched at midnight, after a bloody attack upon the jail, was cut down today and comparative quiet has been restored.

Norwich Union Fire Insurance Society

Frank Meredith, Resident Agent. Office with Wm. Brown & Co., No. 29 Commercial street.

MONEY TO LOAN

THOS. K. FORD, Over Ladd & Bush's Bank, Salem, Or.

NEW TODAY

We Are Taking orders for street sprinkling oil. Get your order in early. Mitchell, Lewis & Stave, 7-25-31

Salesmen & Agents—$ $ $ $50.00 per week and over can be made selling New Campaign Novelties from now until election.

The Weinhard Brewing Company—Are anxious to get more of their beer in Salem. There is a man looking around to buy a saloon to put it in. 7-29-21

Party in Salem—Wishes to borrow money. There is no real estate security to offer, and anyone exacting such security need not reply to this ad.

Representative Wanted.—We want a representative to handle Ford automobiles in each town in Oregon. Live hustler, with or without previous experience, can easily clear $2000 in season.

Saleswoman Wanted.—Of experience in dry goods and fancy goods, permanent position to right person. Send reference and address. F. O. box 336, Salem, Oregon. 7-30-31

Wanted.—To hear from owner of good-sized lot, lowest possible price for cash. Write description and location. Address "B. W." care of Journal. 7-30-31

Wanted.—At once, 40 tons of strictly choice oat hay, f. o. b. near Salem. Will pay $11 per ton. Will accept lots for same terms at Mine. A. D. Pettyjohn, Salem, Phone Farmers 40x. 7-30-31

City News

Weather Forecast—Fair tonight and Friday.

Chimney Sweep—Any one who has chimneys or flues to clean, now is the time to clean them without any muss made in your house.

Chemawa Exercises Close—The final day of the commencement at Chemawa Indian school closed last evening, with the graduating exercises and the presentation of the operetta "The Japanese Girl" by the pupils of the school.

IT'S APT TO "STAY LOST" UNLESS YOU ADVERTISE FOR IT. IF YOU HAVE NEVER READ EVERY AD. IN ANY ONE ISSUE OF THIS NEWSPAPER, TRY THE EXPERIMENT. YOU WILL BE GLAD YOU READ THIS SUGGESTION.

A Good Place—To take the children for an hour in the evening to the Edison Entertainment house on North Commercial street. Funny songs and pictures. Changes three times weekly.

You Can—Look as well this dusty weather as at any other time, by having your suits pressed and cleaned occasionally, at a small expense, by Johnson & Stege.

To Remedy Overcharges—The railroad Commission has received a letter from the San Francisco office of the Southern Pacific Company, stating that the company's agent at Roseburg has been authorized to pay the claim of P. E. Blackburn for $30.18 overcharge on a shipment of horse. The case has been before the commission for the past several weeks.

Marriage License—A marriage license was issued today to Riley Morehead, aged 33, of McMinnville, and Iva Tucker, aged 22, of Rosedale.

Big Cherries—A plate of cherries in the window of Fuller & Douglas, on State street, is attracting considerable attention from connoisseurs of the fruit.

Steiner Funeral—The funeral of the late Isaac Steiner was held from the residence on the Garden Road at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. Ramsden Better—Mrs. C. J. Ramsden, who fell from her buggy, near the penitentiary, Tuesday afternoon, when Governor Chamberlain and Treasurer Steele came along in an automobile, is considerably recovered from the shock.

Files Lien—A. D. Smith has filed papers for a lien on the building owned by D. A. Dinmore on Court street between Commercial and Liberty, for work done on the Rex Studio, which occupies the second floor of the building.

Freake's Funeral—Jack Freake, who was drowned in the river here about a week ago, was buried in City View cemetery this morning.

Walter Stolz left Thursday for Portland on business.

S. J. Judd has gone to Portland for a few days on business.

Sam Clemmings has returned to Independence, after a week's visit here with friends.

Homer G. Cresswell, of Eugene, arrived Thursday to spend a few days with relatives and friends.

Ivan G. Martin was in Portland on business yesterday.

Fred A. Legg, the architect, came up from Portland last evening.

Mrs. Charles Watt returned to her home in this city last evening, after several days' visit in Portland.

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Epley have returned from Portland, where they have been visiting for the past several days.

Fred and Matt Cole, of Marshfield, are transacting business in this city for a few days.

R. G. Hunter is in Albany attending to business matters.

Among the Newport passengers today were Geo. G. Bingham and family, C. S. Martin, John Waltz and family, ex-Governor Lord and family, Peter Blanchard and two sons and R. B. Fleming, wife and daughter.

Miss Agnes M. Miller, of Oregon City, is visiting here with friends for a few days.

Joe Bruster left Wednesday for Three Rivers for a week's outing.

Mr. Frank G. Marsters and daughter, Stella, have gone to Seaside for an outing.

Will King, Charles Elgin and Larry Murphy have left for Salmon river on a two-weeks' hunting and fishing excursion.

Chester Frazier, son of A. L. Frazier, the councilman, has returned to his home in this city, after an extended trip to different points in Oregon.

George Benson, of Portland, is here for a few days, visiting with relatives and friends.

I. T. Wentworth, of Albany, is transacting business in this city.

W. H. Lytle, of Pendleton, is here on a short business visit.

Governor Chamberlain took his family to Newport today. They will remain at the coast for two or three weeks, but the governor will return Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Bishop, of Portland, are visiting their son, J. A. Bishop, at Dingley Dell, South Salem.

Jesus never organized a religious sect.