Many people do not know what a bank's capital is for, or the difference between a bank of little or no capital and one with large capital.

A BANK'S CAPITAL

Is the fund that protects the depositors from loss; therefore the larger it is, the greater protection the depositor has. This bank has a

Capital of	$100,000
Surplus and Undivided Profits	8,000
Additional Stockholders Liability	100,000

A total of $208,000

RESCUED FROM FIRE BY CHINESE

Sacramento, Cal., Aug. 4.—John Tuft, a veteran of the Civil War, in a serious condition today from burns received in a fire yesterday, when his wife lost her life, and he had a narrow escape from death. That he is alive is due to the bravery of Ah Lum, a Chinese servant, who crawled through flames to rescue the old people.

The two old people lived on a ranch a few miles east of Loomis. Tuft was assisting his wife in the house, when they upset a kerosene lamp. The woman was in her night dress, and was burned from head to foot.

The Chinaman heard the screams of the old people, and rushed into the house and dragged them forth. Mrs. Tuft died a few hours afterwards. The house was completely destroyed.

EDISON COMING TO THE COAST

New York, Aug. 4.—To gratify a life-long wish, Thomas A. Edison, the great inventor, has decided to quit temporarily his laboratory at Llewellyn, N. J., and go on a roving trip to the Pacific coast, where he will then engage in scientific research free from all commercialism. The change does not mean that he will cease work at all, but that he will devote himself purely to science. Edison, accompanied by his wife, will leave his home late in August for the journey.

DEATH OF AUSTRIAN EMPEROR MAY INVOLVE ALL EUROPE

Vienna, Aug. 4.—Realizing that when Franz Josef, the aged and infirm emperor of Austria-Hungary, dies, the political balance of Europe is likely to be upset, the European nations are today keeping a "death watch" on the emperor.

They have not gone to the limit of Turkey, which power had a secret agent shadowing the emperor at Ischl, his summer home. But what the Sultan is doing openly the other powers are doing secretly, and with a regard for the emperor's feelings.

The keynote to the situation is the half-open veiled antagonism between England and Germany. England is mustering every possible resource to maintain her predominance and Germany is striving to obstruct this policy to gain the position now held by England.

France, Russia and Spain are friendly to England, and it is believed that, in the event of a crisis Portugal, Denmark, Sweden, Norway and even Italy, a staunch friend of the emperor, could be won over to the side of England.

Although the reigning hour of Austria-Hungary is the house of Hapsburg, closely allied to the family of the German emperor, Archduke Franz Ferdinand, heir to the Austrian throne, favors the abandonment of German friendship and an alliance with England.

To prevent such a coalition against him, the kaiser would undoubtedly declare war against one or more of his unfriendly neighbors. The death of Franz Josef will be the signal for the breaking up of the Austria-Hungarian empire, which has been held together recently only by the overpowering knowledge that dissolution meant the control of the empire by Germany.

The shadow of the kaiser for years has stood guard behind the Austrian throne, and the German influence is predominant in the kingdom of Bohemia, and the provinces that open on to the Mediterranean sea at Trieste.

In the public schools of Bohemia, the German language is taught, and the Bohemian people have been ready for years to rise against the hated German Emperor Franz Josef is immense as king of Hungary, but the Bohemians have been without a king of their own since they lost their independence.

Hungary will secede from the empire when Franz Josef dies, and a great web of new intrigue, alliance and complication is being woven against the time of the old emperor's death.

Germany wants the Slav provinces to the west and southwest; Italy wants the provinces of her frontier; Turkey would be glad to recover Bosnia and Herzegovina, what she lost in 1878, and Serbia and Roumania would like a slice of the Austrian empire in the Balkans.

A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and open to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Medicines of Known Composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the strictest scrutiny.
Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, his famous medicine for weak stomach, splendor of biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it in plain English, a full and complete list of the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicine. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card, by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. and requesting the same. From this list it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, minerals or other poisonous or injurious agents, and that they are made from native medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the use of not a few of our most valuable native medicinal plants was gained from the Indians. As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, prolapus, anteversion and retroversion; overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and creating a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.
