"That Which Is Worth Having Is Worth Advertising For"

The old adage that what is worth having is worth asking for is still true-true of the more intricate life of today.

The thing you want-whether it is a used plano or a home, whether it is a ready-made business or a lost pocket-book-is obtained readily through advertising, and with difficulty, or not at all, through other means.

You Can Find a Buyer for Every Dollar's Worth of Real Estate Which You Own!

A reasonable "campaign" of classified advertising, will "sell you out" in real estate.

No one who is looking for real estate in this city falls to read and consider the real estate ads.

Scarcely a sale occurs that is not, in some way, promoted or brought about by a clasified ad. Without the influence of the little ads, real estate transactions would be hard to bring about-not because of any fault or flaw in the properties themselves but because the search for the "right buyers" could not be quickly or effectively made. It would be a slow process-perhaps only occasionally successful,
