City News

Weather—

Fair tonight; Tuesday fair and probably cooler.

When in Portland—

Visit Hall's restaurant, 330 Washington street. e-o-d

Gilson's Place—

Eleven barber chairs. No waiting.

It Takes—

A sort of courage, to advertise a store adequately—THE FIRST TIME.

Small Bank Balances—

Make cowards of many merchants. A bank balance that is devoted to advertising usually "grows up" quickly.

Dies in Auto on Desert—

Charles K. Spaulding of this city recently received news of the death of his cousin who lived in San Francisco. He was overcome by the heat while driving an automobile through the Yuma desert in Arizona.

Cherry Fair Diplomas—

C. E. Armstrong is sending out 75 diplomas to successful competitors in the recent cherry fair.

Lunch Place Opened—

Frank H. Collins has opened a German lunch place in his resort at 357 State street. The lunch department is under the management of Mr. Lowell Mason, the well known and popular lunch man. Mr. Collins has spared no money to fix up this place in an attractive manner, putting in one of the modern and up-to-date sanitary refrigerator counters. The hungry man will always find Mr. Mason ready to serve them promptly and with courteous treatment. Remembers the place.

Marriage License—

A marriage license was issued Saturday to David A. White, aged 25, and Miss Ada Wilhelm, aged 22, both of Salem.

Salem Commission Company—

F. K. Lovel and R. M. Budlong, who have purchased the Capital Commission company, have incorporated under the name of the Salem Commission company.

Send in Your—

Order for a silk floss mattress. We make them. We guarantee them to be made of pure silk floss and best workmanship. L. U. Josse, Court street.
