

As Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney-trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the kidneys are not purified, if the urine scalds, or if, when the child reaches an age it should be able to control the bladder, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, the cause of the difficulty being kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of the diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a more people suppose.

As well as men are made miserable by kidney and bladder trouble, women need the same great remedy, and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold in fifty-cent and one-dollar bottles. You may get a sample bottle free, also a Home of Swamp-Root, telling all about Swamp-Root, and many of the thousands of testimonials received from sufferers.

In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., P.O. Box 531, Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention "Swamp-Root." Don't make any mistake, remember the name, Swamp-Root, Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

GRACE CAMERON IN "LITTLE DOLLIE DIMPLES"

On Saturday night the dainty, singing prima donna and Broadway favorite, Grace Cameron with her opera company of 60 people, will be at the Grand.

Friends and admirers of Miss Cameron will be pleased to learn that in her present role she has the best part of her entire career, and that is saying much, for Miss Cameron's previous successes include many of the most important operatic organizations that this country has ever known. Miss Cameron has appeared in many styles of part: in her splendid career with such organizations as the Bostonians, "Foxy

Grace Cameron in "Little Dollie Dimples."

Quiller," "When Johnnie Comes Marching Home," "The Tenderfoot," the Savage Grand Opera company, "Piff, Paif, Pouf," etc., etc., but none that are so peculiarly fitted to her great versatility as the role she now plays in "Little Dollie Dimples."

In the first act Miss Cameron is the little 12-year-old waif, full of mischief, yet sympathetic and irresistible and in this act she is afforded an excellent opportunity to introduce her celebrated "baby" specialty which has endeared her to patrons of the vaudeville, both in Europe and America. In the second act she appears as a charming and chic French maid. In this character Miss Cameron made a tremendous hit in "The Telephone Girl" and in Rice's "The French Maid." Prominent in the supporting company are Harry Bewley, the celebrated mimic; Roger Grey, Daisy King, Eva Spear, Emma King and a large lady and male chorus.
